Penitent Thief Eases Conscience on Plan

East Paterson, N.J. —(AP)— A penitent thief is easing his conscience on the installment plan.

Patrolmen John Petruchkowich found $5 and an unsigned note addressed to the victim, a resident of Saddle Brook. The note said:

"Dear Sir, I am sorry I have taken the money at St. Leo's Roman Catholic church. I realize I was wrong. There is $1 missing. I will try to return that also."

MOVE OVER MARILYN — The most highly talked about newcomer to Hollywood is Mary Hasford who was just a housewife just a year ago when she was signed to star in C. V. Whitney's film, "The Missouri Traveler." Mary, a mother of four, is about to become an authoress and will also announce her marriage to Whitney. She is expected to be as highly publicized as Marilyn Monroe.

EAGLE POINT
Labor Day Visitors Named

Eagle Point — FP 2c and Mrs. Dave Schneider left Tuesday, Sept. 3, for Vallejo, Calif., where they will make their home. Schneider reports to duty aboard the USS Richard B. Anderson. They recently returned from a wedding trip to Yosemite park, Mt. Lassen park and Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Schneider is the former Alice Marie Wilson.

H Young, former residents of Eagle Point, and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Cordon and family of Medford, went to Portland Saturday, Aug. 31, to attend the Young family reunion Sept. 1, in honor of Mrs. Lena Young, who is 92 years old. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Young and sons of Seattle and Tom Shearin, who is attending a bankers institute at the University of Washington for two weeks, met the Youngs. There were 52 relatives attending the reunion.

The Tom Shearin family left Eagle Point Saturday, Sept. 7, to return to their home in Mesa, Ariz., after spending three weeks in the valley visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farlow and daughters, Lois and Sandra, went to Reno, Nev., Friday, Aug. 30, to attend the wedding of Mrs. Farlow's nephew, Sgt. Vincent Swinney, of Medford, and Miss Carolyn Groves of Reno. The wedding took place at the First Christian church Sept. 1. The Farlow's made the return trip home via the Mt. Lassen park.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Griffin of Nick Young rd., went to Olympia, Wash., to visit the Eugene Griffin family. The Griffins went to Tacoma, Wash., where they visited the Sam Edwards family Sunday, Sept. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Griffin returned home Monday, Sept. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hannaford and family moved from the Lazy L ranch to the property adjoining their property on the Butte Falls highway until they can rebuild their home that was destroyed by fire sometime ago.

Anyone leaving dishes at the park from the recent potluck picnics may claim them by calling at the city hall in Eagle Point. The city hall is open from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Tuesday through Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester McFall went to Nubieber, Calif., Sunday, Sept. 1, to attend to business and while there they attended the Inter-Mountain fair at McArthur, Calif. They visited several friends while in the vicinity as they were former residents of Big valley.

The Eagle Point city council held its regular meeting Sept. 3. An ordinance for annexation of school property and an ordinance for sewer charges were approved. The names of all water accounts that were three months in arrear were read and action was taken by the council. Ray Barrows submitted his resignation because he is moving outside the city limite.

The possibility of placing more lights in the city park for future use for picnics was discussed.

Dean Tibbits, who is working for the forest service, visited Mr. and Mrs. Stan Smith, former Eagle Point residents living in Baker. Tibbits will be home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay H. Tibbits, and friends before entering college this fall.

Word has been received here that a four pound, 11 ounce baby girl, Sue Ellen, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Don Barnes, former Eagle Point residents, in a Baker hospital Sept. 3. Barnes, a former Eagle Point High school teacher, is principal at the Baker High school.

NO DRONE — Barbara Logan poses prettily at Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn at Las Vegas, Nev., where she was crowned "Queen Bee" by the 3594th Combat Crew Training Squadron of nearby Nellis Air Force Base. The boys at Nellis must have been reading Webster who describes "Queen Bee" as "perfect female."

West Coast Airlines To Get Propjets Soon

West Coast airlines serving Medford will soon be using Fairchild F-27 propjet airliners in addition to the 14 DC-3s now in service.

West Coast is the first airline in line for delivery of the new style propjet airliners. Six are scheduled for delivery to WCA some time between March and October 1958. Southwest airlines, which also serves Medford, expects delivery of three propjet planes in September, 1958.

The plane is the first projet of a short and medium haul ability. Both airlines plan to cut station to station times 40 per cent with the new planes.

Passenger, mail and freight loads will be doubled, airline officials said.
