

Milwaukee Braves Come Closer, Yanks Remain on 'Magic Two'

By UNITED PRESS

The Milwaukee Braves reduced their pennant-clinching magic number to three Saturday by whipping the Chicago Cubs, 6-2, while the Cincinnati Redlegs downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 9-8, on Roy McMillan's 10th inning home run.

In the American league, the New York Yankees' magic number remained at two when they dropped an 8-3 verdict to the Boston Red Sox and the Chicago White Sox rallied to defeat the Cleveland Indians, 7-6.

A grand slam home run by Ted Williams—the 15th of his career—powered the Red Sox to victory and postponed the Yankees' pennant party at least 24 hours. Willard Nixon gained credit for the victory although he needed help from Ike Delock, who came in with the bases loaded in the eighth inning and retired Enos Slaughter on an in-ning-ending fly.

The White Sox erased a 6-2 deficit in defeating the Indians. They scored three runs off Early Wynn in the seventh and then climaxed their rally with a pair in the eighth—highlighted by Ron Jackson's homer and a run-scoring single by Ted Beard.

The Philadelphia Phillies rallied to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 3-2, when relief pitcher Ed Roebuck walked Richie Ashburn with the bases loaded in the ninth inning. Jack Sanford gained his 18th victory while Johnny Podres suffered his ninth defeat.

The New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates split a two-night doubleheader, the Pirates winning the opener, 5-4, and the Giants the night-cap, 9-5, while the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Detroit Tigers, 6-3, and the Washington Senators defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 8-1.

Oregon Downs Idaho, 9-6; PCC Record Missed by Morris

By RUSS NIELSEN
United Press Sports Writer

Moscow, Idaho — Full-back Jack Morris booted Oregon's first field goal in eight years Saturday to give the highly favored Ducks a 9 to 6 victory over underdog Idaho in a Pacific Coast conference football game.

Morris's boot came shortly before the end of the third period. It broke a 6-6 tie and kept Oregon in the four-team race for the Rose Bowl. It was a game marked by staunch defensive play in which serious threats were few, but each team made the most of the breaks.

The only Oregon touchdown came after substitute fullback Chuck Osborne intercepted Idaho quarterback Howard Willis's pass on the Oregon 30. Twelve plays later Oregon quarterback Jack Crabtree plunged over from the one.

Osborne contributed a 32-yard sixth inning scored winning pitcher Bob Purkey with the deciding run for the Pirates in the first game, while sub first baseman Gail Harris, with a homer, triple and two singles, accounted for seven runs to lead the Giants to their win.

Big Gus Zernial slammed his 24th and 25th home runs of the season to lead the A's to their victory over Detroit, while Roy Sievers, the American league's leading home run and runs batted in leader, slammed his 40th and 41st home runs in the Senator's easy win over Baltimore. Sievers batted in five runs to boost his total to 111.

run to the drive, and Crabtree kept it going with passes of 11 and 17 yards to halfback Leroy Phelps.

Morris apparently succeeded in setting a conference mark for conversions when he booted his 24th without a miss, but a penalty nullified the effort and he missed his next try from the 17.

The Vandals kept coming in the third. Eighteen plays after taking the kickoff, Willis plunged over for the tying score. Guard Jerry Kramer's conversion attempt was wide.

The winning field goal was set up when Oregon end Ron Stover broke through to throw halfback Lloyd Fenton for a long loss to the Idaho 16. Then a bad quick-kick by Fenton went out of bounds on the Idaho 32. Halfback Jim Shanley, who carried the mail most of the day for Oregon, fumbled but recovered for an 11 yard gain, but once again the Idaho line halted the March. Then Morris stepped back and booted squarely through the uprights to settle the issue.

Although Morris failed in his attempt at a conference record, Idaho fullback Ken Hall may have succeeded. Statisticians produced three sets of figures, from 76 to 83 yards, on his quick kick that opened the fourth period. Depending upon the final ruling, the punt may break the previous record of 82 set by Flip Kleffner of Idaho against Washington State in 1953.

California Upset By SMU Club

Berkeley, Calif. — The lean and hungry Mustangs of Southern Methodist, who are expected to finish in the Southwest conference basement this season, upset favored California 13-6 Saturday to mark their seventh straight victory over a West Coast team.

This second touchdown came after the Bears had failed for the third time during the half to make enough yardage while gambling on a fourth down situation.

The Mustangs line, although outweighed by an average of 16 pounds per man, fought Cal's heavier troops to a standoff most of the day which was a disappointing one to many in the crowd of 45,000.

US Rider Cup Team Displays Top Form

Buffalo, N.Y. — America's Ryder cup golfers displayed razor-sharp form over the rain-swept Wanakah country club course Saturday as they took a 4-1 lead in a series of exhibitions with a picked team of challengers.

Led by Sam Snead, who failed to make the Ryder cup team for the first time in the past seven selections, the team of challengers could win only the first of five four-man best-ball matches over a sudden course which gave absolutely no roll to the long hitting pros.

The day's best contest saw Jack Burke and Tommy Bolt defeat Marty Furgol and Don Fairfield, two-up, with the winners shooting a 64 and being pushed every step of the way by the challengers.

Masters Champion Doug Ford and Ted Kroll wrapped up their 18-hole match with Jamestown Pro Toby Lyons and Mike Fetchick, 4 and 3, by touring the Wanakah back nine in 31. The torrid back nine included birdies on four straight holes which Lyons described as the "greatest four holes of golf I've ever seen."

Shea Upsets Herbie Flam In Net Test

Los Angeles — Unseeded Gil Shea of Los Angeles upset defending champion Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., in five sets Saturday to move into the finals of the Pacific Southwest Tennis tournament against second-seeded Vic Seixas of Philadelphia.

Shea, showing near-perfect service control, downed the recently selected Davis cupper, 6-4, 6-3, 3-6, 8-10, 6-2. Seixas had an easy time with Sammy Giammalva of Houston, Tex., winning 6-4, 6-4, 6-3.

Shea carried on a running battle with cameramen during the match and at one point in the second set ordered them from the court. When the photographers complied, tournament director Perry T. Jones told them to return to "their rightful places."

In the women's semi-finals, Louise Brough, Beverly Hills, defeated Beverly Baker Fleitz, Belmont Shore, Calif., 8-6, 6-3.

Stanford Indians Scalp San Jose in 'Rehearsal'

Stanford, Calif. — The Stanford Indians frolicked to a 4-0 victory over San Jose State Saturday in what amounted to no more than a dress rehearsal for Stanford's national TV appearance next Saturday.

Some 26,000 fans watched the Indians run up a decisive 34-0 halftime advantage and then depend exclusively on reserves in the second half as Stanford "worked out" for next Saturday's game — of — the week with Northwestern.

At the final gun the true caliber of the Indians' play remained a mystery to both the Northwestern scouts and the crowd. Coach Chuck Taylor used his regulars for little more than one quarter of play.

The second half was given over entirely to Stanford's third and fourth teams, and, even against them, San Jose was no test.

Actually San Jose had the ball less than five of the 30 playing minutes of the first half and was able to muster only three first downs—two on penalties. The Spartans had little else to cheer other than the one lone touchdown.

Pocatello, Idaho — Idaho State college unveiled its 1957 football team here Saturday with a 22-0 victory over Hastings, Neb., college in the season opener for both teams in the Spud bowl.
