

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Richard Paulsen

Paulsen-Farrar Rites Held In Ashland Episcopal Church

Grants Pass — Miss Judith Alene Farrar became the bride of Wayne Richard Paulsen in a ceremony held Sunday, September 8 at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at Trinity Episcopal church in Ashland. The Rev. John Thompson officiated at the double-ring ceremony and about 100 guests were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Farrar, Grants Pass, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Paulsen, Central Point, Ore. He grew up and attended grammar school in Hornbrook, and has been making his home there this summer with Mr. and Mrs. Loren Cummins.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina gown of white lace over taffeta and net with empire bodice, scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a crown of pearls and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of stephanotis centered with an orchid. She wore a pearl necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. B. A. Harrington.

Maid of honor for the bride was Miss Kara Lee Irwin, Rogue River. She wore an orchid taffeta frock with velvet cummerbund and bow headpiece in a darker shade. Miss Linda Cox, Dupont, Wash., a cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Marie Walters served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were of rose taffeta with pink cummerbund, and pink taffeta with rose cummerbund, with matching velvet bow headpieces. All three carried bouquets of matching gladioli.

Little Miss Jackie Paulsen, sister of the bridegroom, wearing orchid taffeta, was flower girl, and his young brother, Carl Paulsen Jr., was ring bearer. Candelights were the Misses Judy Byers and Linda Whitaker, both Los Angeles. They were dressed in orchid and pink.

Harvey Smith, Ashland, was best man. Seating the guests were Loren Cummins, Hornbrook, and Denny Cox, cousin of the bridegroom, from Dupont. White gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Farrar chose a pink and blue sheath dress with black accessories, while the bridegroom's mother was in blue with black accessories.

Their corsages were stephanotis.

At the reception which followed the exchange of vows, the parish house was decorated with orchid and pink asters. Serving the cake were Mrs. G. G. Whitaker, Los Angeles, great-aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ralph Bosse, while Miss Judy Buckle poured punch. Mrs. Steve Byers, Los Angeles, presided at the gift table.

After a two weeks honeymoon in southern California, the newlyweds will be at home at 160 Laurel street in Ashland when both will continue their studies at Southern Oregon college. The bride graduated from Rogue River High school where she was valedictorian of her class and winner of the Elks scholarship. Mr. Paulsen graduated from Yreka High school where he was an outstanding athlete, and also played baseball with the Navy where he served for four years. For one year following his release from the Navy, he was with a farm club of the Baltimore Orioles.

Out-of-state guests at the wedding were Mrs. A. H. Theilen, grandmother of the bridegroom, Davenport, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cox, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, and their two children, Dupont; Mrs. G. G. Whitaker, great-aunt of the bride, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. L. Bessler, godparents of the bride, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Byers and family, Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. William Paulsen, San Leandro, Calif., brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and approximately 20 friends of the bridegroom from Hornbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Davis, who have lived in Medford 25 years, are shown cutting their silver anniversary cake. Mr. and Mrs. Davis, who reside on Kenwood avenue, were married in Medford. They were honored at a reception September 8.

Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Davis, 12 Kenwood avenue, were honored at a reception September 8 which observed their silver wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have lived in Medford 25 years. The reception was held at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary James Pree, son-in-law and daughter of the couple, helped to plan the event and presented the couple with an anniversary cake. Mrs. Pree cut and served the cake; Mrs. Robert Guthrie and Mrs. Mason Adair poured tea and coffee. About 30 friends called, and the couple was presented gifts for their home.

White and salmon colored gladioli decorated the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married September 3, 1932, here in Medford. The anniversary celebration was held later since the couple was in Portland September 3 on a vacation. They have two children, Mrs. Pree and a son, Airman First Class Edmond Davis, who with his wife is now living overseas. There are two grandsons. Mr. Davis has been employed by Pierce Freight lines for 20 years.
