

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Sea Island, Ga.—Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas, on the actions of Federal Judge Ronald Davies in the Little Rock school integration crisis:

"A judge with some understanding of the problem would have handled it differently."

Washington—Thomas J. Haggerty, a leading opponent of James R. Hoffa for the presidency of the Teamsters union, on corruption within the union:

"I was never in a position to do anything about it."

New York—Negro congressman Adam Clayton Powell Jr., of New York, on the Little Rock school integration problem:

"I must sharply condemn my fellow Democrats . . . for daring to insert politics into this sensitive question. There is no time for cheap politics, especially when hypocrisy, not democracy, is involved."

Tokyo—Dr. Albert L. Schweitzer, noted scientist, doctor and philosopher, on the danger of radioactive fallout:

"The radioactivity released from nuclear explosions is already not only endangering mankind; if they (the tests) are continued, it is already clear that this danger will become fearful."

Chicago—Mrs. Fred Dust, an East Chicago, Ind., housewife, who will be placed in a hypnotic trance for five days as an experiment:

"I'm much more creative under the spell of hypnosis."

BUTTE FALLS

Dogwood In Blossom Again

By MARY JO HARRIS

Butte Falls — At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Finch in Butte Falls, a dogwood tree is in bloom for the second time this year. The blooms are normal against a background of autumn-red leaves. The tree bloomed twice last year but the second bloom had only one petal. The buds are dropping as usual in the fall but the tree is still blooming and is reported to be a lovely sight. Doug Finch is the District Assistant Ranger of the Butte Falls station.

Labor Day guests in the Don Joliffe home were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Nolan of Redding. Virgil was an engineer on the Willow creek dam project three years ago.

The Butte Falls Lions and auxiliary held a joint installation in late August at the Butte Falls hotel. Prior to the program and installation a ham dinner was served by the auxiliary.

The program consisted of a reading by Mrs. William L. Harris, two piano numbers by Miss Julie Pingle and a community sing led by Mrs. William Harris and accompanied by Mrs. Roger Harris.

Mrs. Larry Sheehan of Rogue River installed the incoming officers of the auxiliary. They are Mrs. Glen Cathey, president; Mrs. Roger Harris, vice - president; Mrs. William Harris, secretary; Mrs. F. E. Poole, treasurer and Mrs. Al Hartlerode, tail twister.

Doug Finch installed the incoming officers of the Lions club. They are F. E. Poole, president; Bruce Pingle, vice - president; Bill Harris, secretary-treasurer; Roger Harris, lion tamer; Glen Cathey, tail twister and Page Stauffer, director.

Following installation, district governor Larry Sheehan of Rogue River gave a short talk on Lionism.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sheehan, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rickstein, deputy district governor, of Talent, and Mrs. Dick Walker of Portland. Guests attending from Butte Falls were Mrs. Bob Cupples, Mrs. Keith Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Smetzer, Miss Julie Pingle, Mrs. Floyd Price, Mrs. Doug Finch and Bob McUne.

Mrs. Robert Beeman and children, Bruce and Gloria of Wenatchee, Wash., were August visitors at the Doug Finch home. While here Mrs. Beeman, a former resident, visited with old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wood of Elgin, Oregon, were recent guests in the Virgil Conley home. The Woods are the parents of Mrs. Conley. While in the Rogue river valley the Woods visited with another daughter, Mrs. Melvin Taylor and family, of Medford.

Recently visiting with the Burrell Facey family was Earl White of Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Facey is a niece of Earl and this visit was their first meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Buttram of Seattle were weekend guests in the Trudy Buttram home this past month. Edgar and Trudy are cousins.

Miss Sherry Tygart celebrated her sixth birthday at a party given in her honor at the fish hatchery Sunday, Sept. 15. Sherry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tygart.

Games were played, gifts opened and cake and ice cream served.

Clymer, Kathy and Jerry Conley. Guests attending were Jeannie ley, Billy Taylor of Medford, Doris and Jimmy Burton, Buddy McKeen, Donna Wolf, Steve and Sherry Tygart.

Mothers attending were Mrs. Duane Burton, Mrs. Dan McKeen and daughter, Bonnie, and Mrs. Henry Tygart, hostess.

Mrs. F. E. Poole visited with Mrs. Ralph Hurst of Vancouver and Mrs. Foster Greb this past week at the Greb home in Eagle Point. Mrs. Hurst, Mrs. Greb and Mrs. Poole are sisters.

The Butte Falls Mt. Pitt club held its regular meeting Thursday evening, Sept. 19, at the home of Mrs. Burrell Facey.

Activities discussed for the coming months were a masquerade party for Halloween and a rummage sale scheduled for the latter part of October. The anniversary dinner has been changed to a Thanksgiving dinner to be served by club members for their families and guests.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Harris. This meeting will be for nomination of officers and will also be birthday night for Mrs. Trudy Buttram.

The last meeting was birthday night for Mrs. Don Joliffe. Members honoring her were Mrs. Keith Johnson, Mrs. Trudy Buttram, Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. F. E. Poole, Mrs. William Bowen, Mrs. Henry Tygart, Mrs. Virgil Conley, Mrs. Lee Joliffe, Mrs. Gene Irwin, and Mrs. Burrell Facey, hostess. Mrs. Doug Finch was a guest.
