Patsy Lane Weds Richard Green

Ashland—Miss Patsy Lee Lane and Richard Earl Green were married in a ceremony held Sunday, September 15, in Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland. About 100 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley R. Lane, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Green, both Ashland. The Rev. John L. Thompson read the marriage vows at three o'clock in the afternoon and Mr. Lane gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a short gown of white embossed satin made with low waistline and full skirt. She carried rosebuds and stephanotis. Miss Sally Lane, who attended her sister, wore a street length frock of blue taffeta with dotted nylon full skirt and bolero jacket. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Miss Edna Dougherty played the organ and Miss Leanne Allen was soloist.

Loyal Green was best man for his brother, and ushers were Lance Locke and Philip Sword.

The church was decorated with pink and white gladiolus brought from Grants Pass by the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Eunice Green. Mrs. Green and Mrs. Dorothy Ekstrom, the bridegroom's sister, decorated the church.

The reception was held in the church parish house, with 125 guests attending. Mrs. Dorothy Ekstrom, Millbrae, Calif., the bridegroom's sister, cut the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Russell Fowler, Medford, and Mrs. Eugene Kenwood, Portland. Mrs. Ray Bohn took charge of the guest book and Mrs. Wayne Myrick the gift table.

The bride's mother wore a light blue crystalline dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of dusty rose with white accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

The wedding guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Leona L. Cochran of Sterling, Colo., and about 35 relatives and friends from several other cities.

Mr. Green and his bride spent their honeymoon in San Francisco and are now at home at 111A, Granite street in Ashland. The bride was graduated from the Ashland schools in 1956 and from the Medford Beauty school earlier this month. Mr. Green, who is assistant sales manager for Selby Chevrolet, Ashland, was also graduated from Ashland High school in 1956.
