

Yankees Roll Over Braves, 12-3

By OSCAR FRALEY
Milwaukee—Don Larsen, walked out of the bullpen yesterday to pitch seven and one-third delayed relief innings as the New York Yankees murdered the Milwaukee Braves, 12-3, in the third game.

The Yankees, jumping in to a two-to-one game lead before a disappointed partisan Braves' crowd of 45,804, turned their power loose on six Milwaukee pitchers in a nine-hit attack sparked by Tony Kubek's two home runs and one out-of-the-park blast by Mickey Mantle.

Hank Aaron, the National league home run champion, chipped in with one for the Braves. And Johnny Logan's leadoff single in the fifth stopped Larsen after he had retired seven

'Bush League,' Say Yankees To Big Milwaukee Welcome

Milwaukee—Veteran outfielder Andy Pafko, the Braves' most experienced World Series player, took issue today with the New York Yankees charge that the city is "bush league."

The aging right fielder said "It's an awful thing" to call Milwaukee "bush league," answering back a statement by a husky Yankee who tagged the city label as he, his teammates and manager Casey Stengel turned a cold shoulder to a civic reception.

"After all," said Pafko, "Milwaukee is a nice town and has shown that it's big league by drawing at least two million people in four of five years."

"That's more than the Yankees have done," he said. Pafko said "Milwaukee wanted to welcome the Yankees and they should have been glad to get a nice reception in an opposing town."

Stengel refused. Albert Davis, assistant secretary to Mayor Frank Zeidler, was at the Milwaukee Road station along with a crowd of several hundred to greet the eastern team when it arrived here Friday to work out at County Stadium.

The Yankees bundled from the train to three waiting buses without stopping to give or take a word. Milwaukee Judge Robert Cannon, a personal friend of Stengel's, asked him to leave his bus and acknowledge the reception. The manager refused and Cannon boarded the bus with several newsmen.

Then a husky Yankee began hustling the newsmen off the bus and said the whole thing "is strictly bush league."

"Gentlemen," Davis called out as the buses pulled away, "whether you know it or not, you've been welcomed to Milwaukee."

MEPHISTOPHELES WINS
Agua Caliente, Mexico—Mephistopheles, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tompkins of Chula Vista, Calif., scored a one-length victory over Fallen Market Saturday in the six furlong feature race at Caliente racetrack before a record Saturday crowd of 7,616 fans.

ANGELS SELL THREE
Los Angeles—The Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League have sold catcher Elvin Tappe, outfielder Bob Coats and shortstop Wally Lambers to Portland of the same league. It was a straight cash deal.

Evanston, Ill.—Half-backs Joe Francis and Earnl Durden accounted for three touchdowns Saturday in leading Oregon State to a 22-13 victory over Northwestern.

The Oregon State triumph, their third straight of the campaign, came before 34,500 fans who filled Dyche stadium to watch the first gridiron clash between the two schools.

The issue was seldom in doubt as the fleet duo of Francis and Durden began operating off the single wing and split-T formations in the first period and collaborated for two touchdowns. They added a third score in the final period. Quarterback Ted Searle inserted a field goal in the second period and kicked the extra point after touchdown.

The Beavers stopped a Northwestern drive with six minutes to go in the first period and put across their first touchdown. Marching from its own 30 on a series of ground plays and a 16-yard pass from Francis to Bob DeGrant Oregon State moved the ball to the Wildcats' 38. Francis tossed a pass to Durden who caught it on the 10 and scampered untouched into the end zone.

Three minutes later another drive put the ball on the Northwestern 10, and Francis skirted the Wildcat right flank for a second touchdown. Searle for the second time missed the try for the extra point but made up for it when he booted a second period field goal from the 21 after the Wildcat defense stiffened.

The Beavers iced the game with eight minutes remaining when Durden took the ball on a reverse at the Wildcat 15-yard line and sprinted into the end zone. Searle's third attempt to make the extra point was good. Northwestern scored in the second period after failing on four drives to move the ball past the Beaver 20.

EAGLE BACK HALTED—Stan Zwan, Phoenix tackle, brings down Dave Huffman, Eagle Point back, as the Eagles threaten in the fourth quarter of their Friday game on the Pirate field. Huffman made a substantial gain here. The Eagles went on deep into Pirate territory. A fumble, however, ended the drive, and Phoenix held on to win 7 to 6 in the District 6 A-2 ruckus. Other players identified are Mack Lemmon (45), Eagle Point, and Dennis James (71), Phoenix.

PHOENIX HIGH NUDGES EAGLES IN ROGUE LOOP

Phoenix—Phoenix high kept at the front of the District 6 A-2 southern division and Rogue league football chase Friday night barely shading Eagle Point, which finally hit its stride after a slow start this season. Score was 7 to 6.

The Pirates got their touchdown in the first quarter and played it "close to the vest" after that. Eagle Point countered in the third panel. The Eagles, who finally have the hang of Coach Tom Van Etten's wing T offense, outgained and out-first-downed the Pirates, were hampered by fumbles.

Van Etten declared that he "was real proud" of the EP club. He said that the Eagles "lost but weren't beaten."

Fumble Gives Chance
Phoenix turned an EP fumble, recovered by Jim Waldron on the Eagle 15-yard line into a touchdown. A 15-yard pass play, Jim Stout to Dennis James was the scoremaker. Don Wallace kicked the conversion. Previous to the Eagle muff the Pirates had driven to the EP 15 but lost the ball on downs.

Eagle Point moved from midfield to its TD. Gary Mendenhall crossed the final stripe on an eight-yard run. A couple of end-around plays with Wayne Christian packing and a 15-yard penalty against Phoenix helped the hard-driving Eagles.

Glendale also kept unmarred in the subdistrict, subduing Illinois Valley 33 to 0 for its second Rogue loop triumph.

Idaho Powers to Win Over Utah 'Skins, 21-6

Boise, Idaho—The Idaho Vandals powered and passed their way to a 21-6 win over the Utah Redskins on a cold, damp field here Saturday.

The Vandals made capital of two TE fumbles in the first half to treat a partisan southern Idaho crowd of 9,000 persons to the first Idaho win in three starts this season.

The temperature on the field was in the 40's and an occasional light drizzle kept the field damp but not muddy.

CAL TECH ROLLS

Pasadena, Calif.—California Institute of Technology opened its football season Saturday with a 41-7 shellacking of the University of California of Riverside.

Henley High Runs Over Rogue River

Klamath Falls—Henley high swamped Rogue River, 56-0, Saturday in a District 6 A-2 football contest.

The Hornets had quarterly margins of 13 to 0, 26 to 0 and 35 to 0.

Scoring Henley touchdowns were Warren Sohrakoff on three and 40-yard runs, Larry Ferguson on one and 19-yard plays, Bruce Durant on 33-yard and 16-yard rambles, Tom McBride on a 55-yard scamper and Gary Pippin on a 27-yard run.

Delbert Herringshaw tackled RR's Darrell Johnson in the end zone for a safety. Phil Swisher kicked five points after touchdowns and Durant ran one conversion.

Henley rolled up 593 scrimmage yards to 81 net by Rogue River. Hornet first down edge was 16 to 4.

Massachusetts was the last state to adopt a written constitution, (1780) yet it is the only state that still governs by the original instrument.
