

Mrs. Charles H. Martin II

Meredith Foote, Charles Martin II Wed in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Martin II, whose wedding took place September 23 in Trinity Episcopal church, Portland, are now living at 716 South Fourth street in Corvallis, Ore. Both are students at Oregon State college.

The bride is the former Meredith Foote, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Foote, 18 Portland avenue, Medford, and Don Foote, Sacramento, Calif. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Martin, Portland.

Dr. Langston E. Kempton read the marriage ceremony at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Patricia Strand, Sacramento, Calif., sorority sister of the bride, and William Bilderback, Portland, attended the couple. Only immediate members of the two families were present.

The bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and Mr. Martin's fraternity is Sigma Nu. Mrs. Martin was graduated from Medford High school with the class of 1956, and was class valedictorian. Mr. Martin was graduated from Lincoln High school before entering OSC.

Medford Woman Home From Trip

Mrs. John Wilkinson, 726 South Keeneway, has returned from a trip to Illinois and Minnesota. Mrs. Wilkinson traveled east to Chicago with her daughter, Miss Dolores Wilkinson, who was returning to St. Louis university where she is studying for a master's degree in psychiatric sociology.

Miss Wilkinson, who studied at the same university last year under a scholarship, was awarded a second $2,000 scholarship in order to complete her work for the degree. She was formerly on the staff of Jackson County Public Welfare department.

After leaving Chicago, Mrs. Wilkinson visited in Joliet, Ill., and later went to Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe Andrews (Landis photo)

Jacqueline Loros Wed to James Andrews

Miss Jacqueline Jeanne Loros became the bride of James Monroe Andrews of North Highlands, Calif., in a ceremony held Saturday, September 28, at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Loros, 1862 Delta Waters road, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Andrews, North Highlands.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster read the marriage service at 8 o'clock in the evening, and Mr. Loros gave his daughter in marriage. The reception which followed was in the parish hall. About 100 guests attended.

Mrs. E. C. Conrad played the wedding music, and John Drysdale sang.

The bride's gown of white lace over taffeta was fashioned ballerina length with panels of nylon net ruffles inset in the bou-fant skirt. The neckline was marked with scallops of lace. The bride's veil was loaned by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Richard A. Loros and was finger-tip length with a crown headpiece of seed pearls and lace. She carried a cascade of white stephanotis encircling a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Sandra Jean Andrews, sister of the bridegroom, from North Highlands, was honor attendant and Miss Lynne Andrea Loros, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid. Miss Andrews wore a dress of turquoise and white with square neckline and sash of turquoise and white polka dots ending in a bustle bow and sash streamers falling to the hemline of the very full skirt. She carried a cascade of pink baby roses and white chrysanthemums and wore a headband of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Loros wore a dress of pink polished cotton designed identical to that worn by Miss Andrews, with pink and white polka dot sash and bustle bow. She carried pink baby roses and white chrysanthemums, and her headband was also of white chrysanthemums.

Richard A. Loros, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Frederick L. Griffith, Kenneth Van Ausdall, James Tizek and Ernest Kidwell, Sacramento, Calif.

The church was decorated with tall baskets of pink and white gladioli and white chrysanthemums, and bouquets of these flowers stood on the altar. Tall candelabra held white burning candles, and the pews were marked with white satin bows and streamers.

For the reception Mrs. Carl Oestreich took charge of the gift table and Miss Donna Shore and Miss Florence Robison poured punch. Miss Margaret Hamilton and Mrs. H. C. Crofoot cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Jean Coppedge tended the guest book.

The bride's table was arranged with pink roses and tiny blue birds, white ribbons and white candles. Baskets of pink and white gladioli were arranged about the room.

The bride's mother wore a slate blue dress with ice blue hat and black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of royal blue jersey with blue hat and black accessories. Their corsages were purple orchids.

Mr. Andrews and his bride spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast, the bride wearing for traveling a royal blue knit suit with black patent accessories and black velvet hat. They will live in North Highlands. The bride, a graduate of Medford High school, has been on the staff of Cal-Western Life Insurance company of Sacramento, Calif. The bridegroom, a graduate of Roseville Union High school, Roseville, Calif., is with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Doctor and Wife Attended Ceremony; Daughter in Class

Dr. and Mrs. A. Erin Merkel, 2115 Oakwood drive, attended capping exercises at Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital school of nursing in Glendale, Calif., September 26. Their daughter, Miss Saron Jean Merkel, is a member of the class of 1959 of the school, and received her cap during the service.

Principal address of the evening was given by R. Maureen Maxwell, Ph.D., of the Loma Linda college of Medical Evangelists.

Following the presentation of caps by Louise Brown, R.N., and the candle-lighting ceremony, with Miss Patricia Salas representing the "Lady of the Lamp," the class repeated the Nightingale Pledge and sang.

Open house for the newly capped nurses and their relatives and friends was held at Rhoda Manning hall following the service.

The hospital is owned and operated by the Seventh-day Adventist church, and the 42 students in Miss Merkel's class represent 13 states, 10 colleges, and 3 foreign countries.
