Pech-Sanderson Ceremony Held in Episcopal Church

Sams Valley—Miss Beverly Jean Sanderson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sanderson of Sams Valley, became the bride of Jack William Pech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pech, Lake Creek, in a ceremony held Friday, September 27, in St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated at the double ring eight o'clock evening ceremony.

White and pink gladioli in two large hand crocheted baskets, made by the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. C. R. Alexander, decorated the altar for the ceremony. White bows and gladioli decorated the pew ends. Miss Jo Ann Ritter, Miss Sandra Whitesides and Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg assisted with the decorations.

Mrs. William Fisher was soloist. More than 150 relatives and friends attended the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of lace and tulle. Her veil was loaned by Mrs. Jim Higgenbotham, a recent bride, and she carried pink rosebuds encircling a white orchid.

Miss Joanne Ritter, Gold Hill, was honor attendant and Miss Betty Croxton, Sams Valley, and Miss Sharon Chase, Gold Hill, were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length pink dotted Swiss frocks with head dresses of pink and white net and velvet. Miss Ritter carried pink carnations while the bridesmaids carried bouquets of white carnations.

Henry Pech Jr. served as best man for his brother, Lee Sanderson, brother of the bride, Gene Eccleston, and Neil Dusenberry, Trail, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sanderson chose a mauve dress of iridescent satin with brown accessories. Mrs. Pech wore a lavender dress with lace insets and black accessories. They both had white rosebud corsages.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Sanderson home in Sams Valley. Mrs. A. A. Alexander and Mrs. Lloyd Beers, aunts of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. J. B. Alexander, great-aunt of the bride, poured the coffee while Mrs. Bob Sanderson, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Shirley Reed, great-aunt of the bride, was at the gift table and Miss Marlene Pech and Miss Delores Sanderson, sisters of the bridegroom and bride, were in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are making their home at Route 2, Central Point, following a wedding trip to Disneyland. For her traveling attire the bride wore a pink suit with black accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Sams Valley schools and Crater High school. She is employed as a secretary by the Medford Chamber of Commerce. The bridegroom attended Eagle Point High school and Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls. He is employed by Steve Wilson Logging company.
