Church Ceremony Marries Marilyn Cook, Rex Goble

Miss Marilyn Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Cook, 674 Midway road, Medford, became the bride of Rex Goble, son of Mrs. Grace Goble, 725 Oak street, in a ceremony held Friday, September 13, at First Assembly of God church.

The Rev. Raymond W. Hurn of First Church of the Nazarene officiated at the double ring ceremony assisted by the Rev. Robert Cull, of the First Assembly of God church. More than 250 relatives and friends attended the eight o'clock evening ceremony.

Large baskets of white gladiolus and daisies and ferns decorated the church for the wedding. Mrs. George Hiede played the traditional organ wedding music and accompanied Lee Mansveld, who sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white rosepoint lace and tulle fashioned with fitted lace bodice and peplum and full tulle skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid.

Before walking to the altar the bride sang "Whither Thou Goest."

Mrs. Wayne Hunt, Watsonville, Calif., was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a lavender organdy frock and carried yellow carnations. Other attendants were Miss Betty Lou Cook, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Melvin Johnson. They wore yellow organdy frocks and carried lavender carnations. Little Janice Hunt was flower girl for her aunt. She wore a frock of lavender organdy over taffeta. Dale H. Cook, brother of the bride, served as best man. Melvin Johnson, William Brewster, Wayne Larson, and Roland Griffith seated the guests.

Candlelighters were Pamela Jones and Gary Bendickson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cook chose a powder blue lace and crepe dress with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Goble wore a blue-green crepe dress with white accessories. They both had lavender orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Mrs. Evan Rasmussen and Mrs. Al Dollarhide cut and served the wedding cake while Mrs. Alfred Bendickson and Mrs. John Gibson poured the punch. Miss Claudine Edwards was in charge of the guest book and Miss Eva Goble and Miss Ruth Goble, sisters of the bridegroom, were at the gift table.

The newlyweds traveled to the coast on their wedding trip. For her traveling attire the bride chose a black sheath with short jacket and a white orchid corsage. They are making their home at 215 North Ivy street, Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is a dental assistant for Dr. J. W. Burba. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school.

Reception To Be Held In Gold Hill

Gold Hill—The annual community reception for teachers and personnel of Crater High, Patrick and Hanby schools will be held Wednesday, October 30, at 8 p.m. in the Odd Fellows hall, according to officials of Amethyst Rebekah lodge, the sponsoring organization.

Mrs. Walter McLean has been named chairman for the occasion. She has announced that the theme for the costumes this year will be "nursery rhyme." All adults in the community are invited to participate in this affair, even though they are not a member of any local organization. The teachers' reception is one of the largest social affairs held in Gold Hill each year.

The Rebekah lodge is assisted each year by several other local organizations. They are the Odd Fellows lodge No. 129, Gold Hill Grange, Gold Hill Health unit, Gold Hill Garden club, Gold Hill Parent Teacher association, VFW Post 7417, Gold Hill Lions' club and Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club.

Each organization participating will contribute a skit towards the evening's entertainment.

A representative from each organization will be named to serve on the entertainment, kitchen and decorating committees.

At a meeting of Amethyst lodge Wednesday evening, plans were made for the teachers' reception. Mrs. Lester Parker, noble grand, presided at the business meeting.

Prior to the opening of lodge, special music was provided by two local youngsters. Shirley Kell sang a solo accompanied by Richard Herrington on his guitar. Following this, each child presented an individual solo of their choice. The program was arranged by Mrs. F. G. Herrington.

Members of Amethyst lodge received an invitation to attend friendship night of Mountaineer Rebekah lodge in Glendale Thursday, October 17, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Paul Thompson was named to represent the lodge on the decorating committee for the teachers' reception.

Mrs. Paul Molloy and Mrs. Lester Parker will serve on the entertainment committee for the reception.

At the close of lodge, refreshments were served by Mrs. Clar-
