Patients—Milton E. Crisswell, 622 South Central ave., is a medical patient at Osteopathic hospital. Convalescing there following minor surgery is Mrs. Eugene Mars, route 1, box 233, Rogue River.

Smoke Investigation—The Medford Fire department reported a smoke investigation alarm was answered at 6:34 p.m. Saturday. Firemen said no fire was found during investigation of the LeRoy N. Nealey residence at 1910 West Main st.

Truck Fire—A fire in the front of a pickup truck destroyed the interior of the cab, according to the city fire department Saturday night. The truck was parked in the lot of Eads Transfer when it caught fire from an undetermined source according to the department.

Items Taken—More than $51 worth of small items were taken from a car belonging to Robert Lee Rose, 2752 Howard st., according to city police reports. Police said the theft took place while the car was parked in front of the Rose home Saturday night.

Program Wednesday—A 4-H Achievement program will be held Wednesday, Oct. 9, at 7 p.m. in the Eagle Point school cafeteria. A potluck dinner will be served. Gene McCurley, agriculture field representative, First National Bank of Portland, Medford branch, will present the pins.

Talk Scheduled—Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon college, will speak on "Should A Farm Boy Go To College?" at the Central Point Grange meeting. The public is invited to the meeting scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Grange hall.

Panel Discussion Set On Capital Punishment

Two Medford attorneys and two local ministers will be members of a panel discussion Tuesday on whether to abolish capital punishment in the state of Oregon. The panel will be held during the Medford Ministerial association meeting Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 11 a.m. in the First Presbyterian church. Panel members will be Walter Nunley, former Jackson county district attorney, Robert Duncan, attorney and state representative, the Rev. Thomas McCamant, pastor, Congregational church, and the Rev. Kenneth Korby, pastor, St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church. The Rev. Haddon Robinson, assistant to the pastor, First Baptist church, will be moderator for the discussion. Interested persons are invited to attend the panel discussion.

Hubcap Theft—Eugene E. Fields, 416 Laurel st., reported to police that a hubcap, valued at $15, was taken from his car while it was parked on Sixth st. near Oakdale and Main sts. Saturday night.

Man Injured—John Austin Tippetts of Camp White was treated by city police for an injured hand and released to the custody of the Camp White authorities Friday night, according to police reports. Police said Tippetts was picked up on Front st. after he had fallen and was unable to rise. According to Camp White hospital authorities, Tippetts received only minor hand injuries.

Smoke in Building—Firemen said a stuck furnace draft permitted smoke to escape into the building at the Littrell Parts firm, 319 East Sixth st., yesterday morning. They used a smoke ejector after being called at 11:15 a.m. to investigate the smoke report. Oil spilled from a leak in a stove feed line ignited about 10:30 p.m. yesterday at the Walter Johnston residence, 2630 Tennessee dr. There was no fire damage and no smoke damage, firemen said.

New Fixtures Planned For City Jail Cell

The city jail is receiving a new set of plumbing fixtures in the main cell, according to city police officials.

Officials said that inmates had damaged the fixtures earlier in the week and made replacement necessary. The new fixtures will be installed so that similar damage cannot be repeated, they said.

Also being installed in the police station is a first aid supply kit. It will hang on the wall in a central location, said police.

John Brown Ford, 44, of 2190 Spring st., was arrested by city police at 3:37 p.m. Friday on charges of issuing a forged check, according to city police reports.

Police said Ford, who was arrested while picking apples at the Stagecoach orchards, is charged with passing two checks in the Medford area during the last 30 days for a total of more than $41.

OBITUARIES

SHERMAN STUART
Sherman Stuart, 63, of Lower Applegate, died Saturday night in his home, it was reported today.

He was born on Feb. 27, 1894 in Dexter, Mo. Services are pending at Litwiller funeral home in Ashland, it was reported.

MRS. OLIVE R. McCAY
Mrs. Olive R. McCay, 305 Liberty st., died this morning at her home. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Conger-Morris Funeral home.

FRED BOSWORTH
Fred Bosworth, former resident of Central Point, died near Barstow, Calif., while on duty as a California State highway patrol officer Sunday at 10 p.m.

Bosworth was a graduate of Central Point school and a grandson of the late George Triehler of the Medford area. He served in the Navy during World War II.

Funeral services are in charge of the McDonald Funeral home in Barstow, Calif.

ELIZABETH ANDRE
Mrs. Elizabeth Catherine Andre, 79, of 603 South Third st., Jacksonville, and a resident of Southern Oregon for the past 30 years, died in a local hospital Saturday.

She was the mother of Mrs. Dorothy Dutton, Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Chapel Mortuary, with the Rev. Norman K. Tully, pastor of the Central Point Presbyterian church officiating. Interment will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Those wishing to do so may either send flowers for the services or make a contribution to a charity of the donor's choice, it was suggested.

Mrs. Andre, daughter of Samuel and Sarah Seibert Byers, was born in Butler county, Penn., Dec. 29, 1877. She was married there in 1897 to Perry L. Andre. The family came from Texas to the Medford area 30 years ago. Mr. Andre died in 1947.

Survivors include three sons, Perry Andre, Jr., Portland, Major Albert Andre, with the U.S. Air Force, stationed at Omaha, Neb., and Dudley Andre, Kerby; three daughters, Mrs. Vernon Adrean, Burnet, Tex., Mrs. Fred Dutton, Jacksonville, and Mrs. Morris Cherrick, Dillard; a number of nieces and nephews; 10 grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

Stock Market Finds Recent Lows Wanting

New York—The stock market today tested the recent lows and found them wanting. Industrial shares fell to a new low since Feb. 12, the day the market made its 1957 lows. Utilities were a few cents away from their low since November, 1956, and rails sagged to within about a point of their low since 1954.

Aircrafts and other companies with any part in the missile program ran up 1 to 4 points and held part of their rise.

DOW-JONES AVERAGES
