Civic Music Group Starts Campaign

Jackson County Civic Music association opened the annual membership campaign last night with a dinner for workers at the Jackson hotel. The campaign closes Saturday at 5 p.m. and that evening the board of directors will meet to select musicians for the season. One attraction, the Rudie Sinfonietta, has been booked in advance.

Seth M. Bullis, association president, conducted the meeting and introduced board members Oscar Bjorlie, Ashland, Ray Lewis, Mrs. Darrell Huson, Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and Mrs. Karl Peterson, Ashland. Also introduced were Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold, treasurer; Mrs. Leland Mentzer, secretary and Mrs. William Duhaime, campaign chairman.

Bullis, Mrs. Duhaime and Mrs. David Davis, representative of National Civic Music association, spoke concerning the campaign. It was pointed out that only through cooperative groups selling memberships in advance can a city the size of Medford be assured of a concert season with fine artists. Volunteers carry on the work of the association, and no one assumes any financial obligation, officers pointed out.

Headquarters for the campaign have been established at Purucker's Piano house and anyone not contacted by workers and wishing memberships may call at the store.
