

Two Days of Bible Emphasis Planned Here October 23-25

Plans are nearing completion for a two-day Bible emphasis program to be held in Medford Oct. 24 and 25. Keynote speaker for the two days of Bible emphasis will be Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, president of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America. He will speak Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church.

Quartet To Hold Nightly Meetings At Friends Church

The Four Flats quartet, Los Angeles, now known as the Visionaires, will open a one-week engagement at the Friends church Sunday, singing for the opening assemblies at 9:45 and 11 a.m. and speaking and singing for the worship hours at 9:45 and 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. They will sing and speak at 7:30 p.m. each evening of the following week, Oct. 13 to 20, the meetings being sponsored by the Senior Christian Endeavor of the church.

The quartet has sung in six nations in the Far East, in Alaska and Canada, as well as from coast to coast in the United States. They have appeared in several of the campaigns of Evangelist Billy Graham, including the recent Madison Square Garden series in New York City. They have sung in Medford several times under the auspices of World Vision, Inc., a missionary organization. The public is invited to the meetings.

At 1 p.m. Sunday the church will celebrate its 15th anniversary with a fellowship dinner in the social hall, followed by a program of reminiscences. Guest musicians will be the Four Flats quartet.

The Senior and Intermediate C. E. societies will hold consecration and pledge signing services at 6:30 p.m. "Quaker Hour" will be broadcast "live" from station KMGD at 9:30 p.m., featuring the Four Flats quartet.

Stewardship Program Starts Second Week

The second week of a stewardship campaign at the First Baptist church will be centered on visitation. On Sunday morning, the Rev. James Neely will speak on the theme, "Lifting Our Church to a Greater Ministry By Visitation." On Monday evening, 50 couples will be served dinner at the church and then will go out to reach prospects for the Sunday school and church.

Thursday the women of the congregation will travel to the Newell Baptist church in Tulare, Calif., for the Women's Fellowship of the Shasta-Cascade Baptist association. The speakers for the two day meeting will be the Rev. and Mrs. Fleming Newcomb who are appointees to Haiti. Mrs. James Neely will conduct a panel quiz on Conservative Baptist missionaries and mission fields. The arrangements for the fellowship meeting are in charge of Mrs. Douglas Lamb of Medford who is president of the group.

Missionary From Turkey To Speak Here Sunday

Miss Harriet Yarrow, Congregational missionary in Izmir, Turkey, will be guest speaker at the two services at the Congregational church Sunday. Her subject will be "A Christian in the Tensions of the Middle East."

A new membership preparation class has begun and will continue to meet Tuesday evenings at 7:30. New enrollment will still be accepted this week.
