

Semi-Windup Likely To Steal Spotlight On Pro Boxing Card

A match which promises to steal the spotlight on the all-professional boxing card at Hedrick Junior high school gym on Saturday night, Oct. 19, has been signed.

Promoter Harry Chipman announced yesterday that he has paired LeRoy Flamond, 160, Portland, against Bob Milne, 156, Seattle, for the six-round semi-windup. They fought a realer sixer in Portland last Tuesday night, a match that had the crowd cheering wildly all the way, with Flamond winning a narrow decision.

Chipman said there is a lot of bad blood between Flamond and Milne and they are anxious to settle their differences in Medford.

Hails From Alberta

Flamond is a Cree Indian who hails from Edmonton, Alberta, where he is under contract to Gordy Grayston, former Empire middlweight champion. His appearances in the United States are being handled by Ted Walker.

Flamond never had an amateur bout and is undefeated in 25 professional matches. He has boxed main events in western Canada and headlined two cards since coming to the states, where he has boxed in Montana, Washington, Idaho, Nevada and Oregon.

He is saving his ring earnings and when his fighting days are over he plans to go into the farm implement business in Edmonton.

Phil Moyer, Portland, and Roy Ray, San Francisco, clash in the eight-round main event. Three four-rounders will complete the program.

Tickets are on sale at Lamport's sporting goods store in Medford and at the Greyhound Tavern in Ashland.

Red Raiders Head for Vik Encounter

Ashland—A 26-man Southern Oregon college football squad was to have left this afternoon for Portland. The Red Raiders oppose the Portland State college Vikings Saturday night in their 1957 opener in the Oregon Collegiate conference.

Illness threatened to hamper the hopes of the Raiders in their effort to make a good start in the loop. Back Eldon Francis and Guard Tom Findlay were reported as flu victims. Quarterback Lance Locke and Center Phil Sword were said to be under the weather.

SOC Mentor Al Akins called off practice last night because of threat of sickness among the players. In workouts on previous days offense got the attention. Concentration was on correcting mistakes made in the line against the rugged Linfield club and on improving backfield timing.

Defense did well against Linfield and therefore did not get such heavy work in this week's practices.

Portland State also has had it troubles with the flu bug.

Eighth Albany Pin Meet Set

Albany—Some 1,500 five-man teams will win more than $100,000 in cash prizes at the eighth annual All-Coast Bowling tournament, Feb. 15 to June 29 at Albany lanes.

That was the forecast today as Albany merchants and Toy Lindblad, operator of the Lanes, cooperated in laying plans for the 20-week event which promises to be the "biggest and best" since the tourney's start in 1950.

An added attraction to this year's event is the $5,000 guaranteed cash prize which will go to the first bowler to roll a "300" game. A total of $25,000 in guaranteed cash prizes will be offered, of which Albany merchants are donating $6,000.

Public Interest High In 2 Gridiron Tiffs

By HARRY WISMER
Written for the United Press

Two games stand out in public interest in collegiate football this week end. The first, because it sees the resumption of one of the games great rivalries, is Notre Dame vs Army; and, the second, because it may settle things in the Big Ten and even determine the eventual Rose Bowl representative for that conference, is the Michigan State-Wolverine clash at Ann Arbor.

In the East, I pick Penn State over William & Mary 20-12; Pitt over Nebraska, 14-6; Yale over Columbia 20-19; Brown over Dartmouth 13-7; and Princeton over Penn 21-9.

In the Midwest: Iowa over Indiana 27-7; Minnesota over Northwestern 20-7; Ohio State over Illinois 13-7; Wisconsin over Purdue 28-20.

In the South: Auburn over Kentucky 19-13; Duke over Rice 27-19; North Carolina State 35, Florida State 12; Georgia Tech 18, LSU 13; Mississippi over Vanderbilt 14-7; Tennessee over Chattanooga 34-12; Tulane over Georgia 14-12.

In the Southwest: Oklahoma over Texas 28-13; Baylor over Arkansas 21-19; Southern Methodist over Missouri 13-6; Texas "Aggies" over Houston 19-6; and Texas Christian over Alabama 19-13.

Middies Over Bears
In the Far West: Navy over California 19-12; Oregon State over Idaho 19-0; Stanford over Washington State 13-6; UCLA over Washington 13-0.

and several midwestern states stems from the unique "several-tournaments-in-one" feature. In reality, the All-Coast consists of three separate men's tourneys and two for the ladies.

Men will compete in the 170 average and over handicap division, the 170 and under handicap, and the scratch division. Women will participate in the 145 average and over division and the 145 and under bracket. Separate prizes are offered in each division.

SOC Heads OCC Pass Offense

Portland—Coach Rex Hunsaker's Oregon Tech Owls have taken over the rushing leadership among Oregon Collegiate conference football aggregations. The Owls replaced Southern Oregon college which dropped to fourth after being held to a meager net by Linfield.

The SOC Raiders, however, maintained their passing superiority with an average of 173 yards per game. Portland State is in second place with an average of 102 yards in two games.

Southern Oregon also leads in individual statistics. Fullback Ron Mauer tops the rushing department with 322 yards. Dick Quinn of EOC is in second place with 222 yards and OCE's Larry Buss is third with 207 yards. Quarterback Lance Locke of Southern Oregon heads the passing department with 24 completions in 52 attempts. Charley Ganter of OTI has completed 16 and Jim Bowlen of Oregon college 14.

BEAVER HARRIERS WIN

Portland—Oregon State won a four-way cross-country meet here yesterday. The Beavers took first and third places to down Portland State, University of Portland and Lewis and Clark. The race, over the University of Portland course, was the first test of the season for all four teams.

Webfoot, Orange Gridders Encounter Underdog Foes

By UNITED PRESS

Undefeated Oregon State and Pacific Coast conference leader Oregon take on two underdog opponents in Saturday football games at Corvallis and Eugene.

The Beavers, defending PCC champions, make their 1957 conference debut against tough Idaho at Parker stadium. Forty miles to the south the Webfoots meet San Jose State in a non-conference encounter at Hayward field.

Oregon State, with three victories under its belt, is a solid 18-point favorite to knock off the Vandals. However, Coach Tommy Prothro and his assistants aren't taking the odds matter-of-factly. They remember all too well last year's game at Moscow when a desperation late game touchdown pass was all that saved the Beavers, 14-10, and put them in the Rose Bowl.

Except for tackle Dave Jesmer, who is out of the game with a torn cartilage in his side, the Beavers will be at full strength for the contest.

At Oregon, the Webfoots, fresh from their startling 21-0 win over UCLA, may have their hands full against pass-minded San Jose. The Spartans have completed 23 of 57 passes for 346 yards and three touchdowns this season and are expected to fill the air with passes against Oregon.

Surplus of Snow Halts Lift Work

Mount Shasta, Calif.—A surplus of snow has halted work until next spring on the lower ski lift being built by the Mt. Shasta Ski bowl.

The heaviest early-season storms in many years have left two feet of snow at Panther meadows, where the lift starts, and more than four feet where it ends. The area ranges in altitude from 7,800 to 9,850 feet.

Bowl Secretary George Schrader said the Panther meadows lodge would not be built until next year and that the entire project has now been set for completion by Sept. 1, 1958. A second lift is planned for 1959.

Schrader said also that plans had been dropped to install a rope tow at Panther meadows and that the only skiing area would be that at Snowmen's hill at the base of the mountain.
