

Sharon Lee Whitlock Wed To William Michael Barlow

Miss Sharon Lee Whitlock became the bride of William Michael Barlow in a ceremony held Friday evening, October 4, in Meeker Memorial chapel of First Methodist church. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the 7 o'clock double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitlock, 1425 Crater Lake avenue, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Olen H. Barlow, 415 Pine Street, Phoenix.

The chapel was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladiolus, and matching sprays of gladiolus and bows of white ribbon were on the pew ends. Four white wrought iron candelabra held lighted white tapers and soft indirect side lighting furnished light for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin fashioned with long sleeves, V-neck, and fitted bodice. Her bouffant skirt was scalloped at the lower edge and fell from ballerina length in front to heel length in back. Her elbow length veil was held in place by a pearl crown. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. The bouquet was white carnations centered with an orchid, and she also carried a white lace handkerchief brought to her from Paris by Mrs. Clifford Aldrich.

Miss Beverly Tangvald, Portland, a college classmate of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a rose pink crystalline frock designed similarly to the bride's gown with a head tulle veil and carried a bouquet of pink shattered carnations.

H. Owen Thompson, Eugene, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Marshall Cornett, Corvallis, a fraternity brother, and Richard Smith, cousin of the bridegroom.

Approximately 75 guests attended the wedding and reception which followed at the church. The bride's table was decorated with pink tapers and pink carnations and maidenhair fern encircles the cake. Baskets and bouquets of chrysanthemums and gladiolus in the reception room were in the pink and white color theme.

Mrs. Ira Culver cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Richard Whitlock, sister-in-law of the bride, poured punch, and Miss Barbara Barlow, sister of the bridegroom, attended the guest book. Mrs. Elmer Bellack poured coffee, and Mrs. Delvin Lunsford took charge of the gift table.

The bride's mother wore a navy and pink printed taffeta dress with navy faille duster, navy feather hat and pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy dress with winter white accessories. Their corsages were pink shattered carnations.

Mr. Barlow and his bride traveled to Vancouver, B.C. for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a dark aquamarine knit suit with black and white tweed coat trimmed with black velvet, and black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Oregon State college. The bridegroom graduated from Phoenix High school, and attended Southern Oregon college and Oregon State college where he is a senior in engineering. He is a member of Sigma Pi Fraternity.

The couple plans to resume school next year.

Other guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Quinn, Gold Hill; Mrs. Robert Gellatly and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gellatly and family of Philomath, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Martin, Junction City, and Warren Biden, Corvallis.

Play Cast Explained By Director

"The Wooden Dish" is a real challenge to the Footlighters and other actors and actresses in the Medford area," Director Richard Graham said today. "The problem presented in the play is an unusual one yet could happen to almost everyone."

Mr. Graham added, "We would like to have every actor and actress turn out for casting at 8 p.m., October 14 and 15. Frankly though, I would also like to tell everyone that this is not a Noel Cowardish type of play. We need actors who are not reactors."

"A brief thumbnail sketch of the characters might best illustrate what I mean. Pop, the male lead, is a peppery old man still fighting the past, in the present and the future. Glenn, his son, is big but ineffectual. Floyd, the other son, is a stuffy never-never-made-it business type."

The director checked his casting list, and added, "Sam, Pop's best friend, is mellowed by his years and hopeful. Ed, that's the boarder, reminds me of the milkman in 'Come Back Little Sheba.' Mr. Forsythe is the oily type. The female lead is Clara who is not old but has let herself go a bit. She's the gal who can't get into last year's girdle. Bessie, the second lead, has 'gone.' Susan, the daughter of the house, is young, about nineteen, and learns quickly that life is not as sweet as young dreams might have it be."

"Janey, Susan's friend, is a year younger in age and much more in understanding. That's the cast and I might add that those who would prefer trying out by reading from something they are familiar with rather than cold from 'The Wooden Dish' are invited to do so. All we ask is that they come out prepared to work."

Mr. Graham also stated that production of the play was scheduled for December 3-7. Rehearsals will be three times a week, at the cast's convenience, except during Thanksgiving week. Dress rehearsal will be December 2.
