Montana Wedding Of Interest Here

From Montana comes news of the marriage of Mrs. Ora B. Rusk, formerly of Medford, to James O. Alcorn. The ceremony was held August 18 in Trinity Lutheran church, Sidney, Mont., with the Rev. John W. Chambers officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bertino, Culbertson, Mont., sister and brother-in-law of the bride, attended the couple.

The bride wore a light blue taffeta and lace dress with rosebud corsage and flowered hat. Mrs. Bertino wore a frock of light amber color with corsage of pink roses. A wedding supper was served in the Lalonde hotel in Sidney, Mont.

The newlyweds are living in Homestead, Mont., where Mr. Alcorn is employed by the Great Northern railway as depot agent. Mrs. Alcorn, who attended Eastern Montana College of Education during the summer, is on the staff of Soo school in the Poplar school system.

During the time she lived in Medford the bride was active in the congregation of Zion Lutheran church.

Family Reunion Held in Medford

Valley visitors last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wurm, Atwood, Kans., Mrs. John Huss, Herdon, Kans., and Mrs. Clara Tongish, Windsor, Colo.

The three women are sisters of Mrs. W. J. Smith, 3021 Table Rock road, A. M. Keplinger, 605 Cherry street, and Henry Keplinger, 107 South Newtown avenue. During their stay in the valley at the two Keplinger homes and the Smiths, the relatives attended a family dinner Friday evening at the Smith home. They also took trips to Crater Lake and the coast.

From Medford the Kansas and Colorado visitors drove to Seattle to visit other relatives.

Citizens Urged to Contribute Clothing For Overseas Drive

Citizens of Rogue Valley were urged Saturday to assist in the clothing drive for overseas. Contributions of warm clothing and low heeled shoes as well as blankets and baby clothes are to be included in articles needed.

Medford Ministerial association, Medford Council of Church Women, Medford chapter, Oregon United Nations Association, and other groups are active in the drive.

Stations for receiving the donations are established at the First Presbyterian church, First Methodist church and St. Mark's Episcopal church. It is requested that clothing be packed in cardboard boxes and tied ready for pickup Monday, October 14, at which time a van will arrive from Modesto to transport the clothing to the port for overseas shipping.

Since all articles are processed and baled at Modesto it is not necessary that they be cleaned or pressed before sending, states the Rev. Escil Heiser, who is the key person on drive

Bridegroom-To-Be Honored at Party

Cave Junction — The only bachelor (but not for long) in the Illinois Valley school system was honored at a kitchen shower given by his fellow Kerby teachers Monday afternoon.

Wesley Clark, whose marriage to Miss Shirley Brewer of Selma will be a November event, was showered with skillets, pots and pans, towels, casseroles, and a rolling pin for the bride at a hilarious party which took place after school hours in the Kerby cafeteria.

A concealed tape recorder operated by Don Orton played back the gift-opening comments. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Theresia Marchant.

Newlyweds To Return Here Today

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Star Gardiner Jr., are expected to return today from a week's trip to northern California and will make their home on Old Military road. Before her wedding on Sunday, October 6, the bride was Marina Starfas Gates, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Starfas, Ventura, Calif. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover V. Love, Millbrae, Calif.

The nuptial rites were read in the wedding chapel of First Presbyterian church, Burlingame, Calif., by the Rev. Dr. George T. Peters, pastor, at 1 o'clock. Only members of the immediate families attended.

The bride wore a sheath dress of pink-beige lace with matching jacket trimmed with silk organdy and satin, and a small matching satin hat. Her shoes were of the pink-beige lace over matching satin. She carried a bouquet of green cymbidium orchids on a small white Bible.

Mrs. Tommy S. Starfas, Portland, sister-in-law of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a sheath dress of emerald green silk faille, and her hat was a honeybear brown feather cloche. She carried a bouquet of brown cymbidium orchids.

Lt. Col. W. Douglas Gardiner, U.S.A., presently stationed in Okinawa but in the bay area on temporary duty, served as his brother's best man.

A luncheon for the wedding party and the wedding guests was held at Benjamin Franklin hotel, San Mateo, following the service. A tiered wedding cake with pink frosting and topped with pink bells centered the luncheon table.

Guests included the bride's mother, Mrs. Starfas, and her brother, Tommy S. Starfas; Mr. and Mrs. Love, parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. Hilda McCurdy, Burlingame, Mrs. Faye Davies, San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian van Hotten, Burlingame, cousins of the bridegroom, and Dr. and Mrs. Peters.

Mr. Gardiner is assistant division manager, California-Pacific Utilities company, and Mrs. Gardiner is secretary to an officer of The California Oregon Power company.

Pledge Ceremony Planned by Guild

Susannah Wesleyan Service guild will hold a meeting and pledge service Monday, October 14, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Everett Faber, Freeman road.
