

Sanford-Adams Ceremony Held in Methodist Church

Jacksonville—Miss Nancy Lee Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Adams, Jacksonville, became the bride of Richard Allen Sanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron J. Sanford, Route 2, Box 45 Jacksonville, in a ceremony held Thursday, October 3, in Meeker Memorial chapel of First Methodist church, Medford.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring eight o'clock evening ceremony attended by 100 relatives and friends. Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the traditional organ wedding music and Miss Judy Hall was soloist.

For the ceremony baskets of white chrysanthemums, white gladiolus and ferns decorated the chapel.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown fashioned with broad satin bodice and ivory satin skirt that terminated in a train. Her fingertip length veil was held by a band of sequins and pearls and she carried a bouquets of pink carnations and pink roses.

Miss Dianne Robbins, maid of honor, wore a pink broadcated taffeta frock and carried white carnations. Miss Linda Hardy, and Miss Nancy Lou Redhead were bridesmaids. They wore mint green broadcated taffeta frocks and carried bouquets of pink carnations. Kathy Sanford, cousin of the bridegroom, was candlelighter.

Donald Sanford served as best man for his brother, Gary West and Gary Walters seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Wesley hall at the church. Mrs. B. J. Hunter, sister of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Vance Adams, sister-in-law of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Donald Sanford, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, poured the punch. Miss Carleen Wall was in charge of guest book and Mrs. Gary Walters and Mrs. Harold Jordan were at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Adams chose a blue and white dress with navy blue jacket. Mrs. Sanford wore a navy blue dress. They both had pink carnation corsages.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to California. For her traveling attire the bride wore a cherry red knit suit with white angora accents and white accessories.

The bride attended Jacksonville schools and is employed as a secretary at First Methodist church, Medford. The bridegroom attended Jacksonville schools and is a fireman apprentice in the United States Navy. He will be stationed at the U.S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., where he will attend the U. S. Navy Boilerman school.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mrs. Minnie Hamilton, aunt of the bride, H. F. Clark, grandfather of the bride, both Escalaw, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Vance Adams and daughter, Jean, of Klamath Falls.
