

Indiana, West Virginia Slapped With Year of Probation by NCAA

Kansas City — Indiana and West Virginia, the latest schools to run afoul of new "get-tough" National Collegiate Athletic Association policies, today made clear they consider their one-year probation a major slap.

Indiana Athletic Director Frank E. Allen reacted to the NCAA penalty by comparing his team to a stricken fighter, "floored twice," but "still with a chance to win." Allen said other schools have come back "to win" and "this Indiana will do."

The Hoosiers' first blow was the suspension of its new football coach, Phil Dickens, last July. The former Tennesse grid star transferred from Wyoming in January. Dickens' suspension followed the revelation of illegal offers of vacation transportation money and "incidental expenses" allowances of $50 a month to about a dozen prospective athletes. The suspension, effected by the university, was the result of Big Ten pressure. Findings Called "Unjust"

At Morgantown, W. Va., university President Irvin Stewart said he felt the probation, imposed following findings of the NCAA's infractions committee, was "unjust."

Stewart said the violation, involving a fabled Kentucky prep basketball player, did not comprise an infraction in his opinion since a "person not connected with the university did certain things without the knowledge of the university. He said further that West Virginia declined to accept the prospective athlete, identified as Kelly Coleman. The youth would now have been a second-year student. Coleman who shattered virtually all Kentucky high school scoring records, was not accepted because of low scholastic marks.

Jerry Donovan Hired by Giants

San Francisco — Horace Stoneham moved into his second day of residency in San Francisco today with new and fast-moving plans for the future of the Giants.

Stoneham was expected to explain plans at an afternoon press conference.

Stoneham set the pace Tuesday when he: —Traded his Minneapolis American association franchise to the Boston Red Sox for the San Francisco Seals franchise in the Pacific Coast league.

—Hired Jerry Donovan, for the past two years president of the Seals in the Red Sox chain, to work for him in an undisclosed capacity.

Tickets Sought —Received a bundle of 600 season ticket applications from the Seals headquarters.

The Minneapolis-San Francisco swap was for the franchises and territories, only, with the Giants tossing in a bundle of cash. The Giants will transfer their Minneapolis players to Seal contracts, and the Red Sox will take their Seal farm-hands to Minneapolis.

"We hope to operate the Seals at some new site in the Pacific Coast league," said Stoneham. "I don't know the city yet, but we will go wherever the PCL wants us."

meeting here, said Indiana's violation was considered "far greater."

The body, however, charged that the West Virginia "friend and booster" offered and gave aid to the athlete "with the knowledge" of a university representative in contradiction to Stewart's comment.

The NCAA said the aid was in the form of the use of an automobile and gasoline credit card during the spring and summer of 1956 and periodic gifts including cash.

The probation does not rule the schools out of any events, but serves as a warning.

NCAA Executive Director Walter Byers, in revealing the probation, said the action meant both schools' athletic programs will be under "close scrutiny." The NCAA will review the probation prior to the expiration date of Oct. 15, 1958. Byers said unless Indiana and West Virginia operate under complete accordance with NCAA regulations, the council would recommend expulsion.

Raiders Gird For OTI Tilt On Saturday

Ashland — Southern Oregon college football Red Raiders return to the home turf of Fuller field this Saturday night for Oregon Collegiate conference action. They battle the Oregon Technical institute Owls who now hold down first position in the OCC.

Saturday contention will mark renewal of one of the hottest rivalries in the Oregon small college loop. Coach Al Akins of the Raiders said he expects one of the toughest loop frays of the 1957 campaign. The skirmish with the Owls could prove the decider in the chase for the OCC title.

Oregon Tech firmed its grip on the loop lead last week end with a 19 to 6 win over Eastern Oregon college while Southern Oregon bowed into the race by losing Portland State college. This Saturday the Raiders will aim to even the score for a 27 to 20 setback at the hands of the Owls in 1956.

Akins Pleased —The Raiders resumed drills yesterday to prep for OTI. Southern Oregon's crew, like many through the country, is having its trials with illnesses—flu and colds.

Although the Raiders could make their passing attack click against Portland State on the Lincoln high mud flat, Coach Akins stated that he was pleased with SOC's overall performance in the conference opener.

Southern Oregon's defense was its strong point as it held the Vikings for downs on five occasions. The Raiders dominated the statistic table by running up 203 yards to 114 for PSC. Ron Maurer, slashing, crashing full-back, paced the SOC offense with 116 yards in 16 yard and the 38-yard slog for the Raider touchdown.

Webfoots Found Physically Fit

Eugene, Ore. — The University of Oregon football team was pronounced physically fit for its battle with Washington State Saturday after a two-week bout with the flu.

Coach Len Casanova put the squad through a light workout yesterday and indicated there would probably be some changes in the lineup for the WSC game. Washington State and Oregon are the only two Pacific Coast Conference Rose Bowl candidates that remain unbeaten.

Portland Confirms Heath Appointment

Portland, Ore. — Tommy Heath, 44, resigned last week as field manager after serving two seasons with the Solons. He managed the Seals from 1952 through 1955.

Clyde Perkins, executive vice-president of the Beavers who announced the appointment, said he believed the combination general manager-manager job was a new trend in baseball.

Heath comes to Portland at a time when the future of the PCL is in doubt because of the transfer west of the New York Giants to San Francisco and Brooklyn Dodgers to Los Angeles.

He takes over the manager's job formerly held by Bill Poseidel, who resigned after the Beavers finished last in the 1957 season. As general manager, Heath replaces Joe Ziegler.

Stan Palys Purchased By Redlegs

By UNITED PRESS —It was "moving" day in the major leagues today, with several former big leaguers returning for another chase and others beginning the long road back to the minors.

Stan Palys, who led the Southern association with a .359 batting mark last season, was purchased by the Cincinnati Redlegs, who gave up shortstop Bobby Durnbaugh and pitchers John Oldham and Jim Brechin to Seattle of the Pacific Coast league in exchange for the outfielder-first baseman. Palys first broke into the majors with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1954.

Jim Greengrass, who formerly played for the Redlegs and Phillies, was purchased from Sacramento of the Pacific Coast league by the Detroit Tigers.

Walt Carddock and Pay Herbert, both with Buffalo of the International League, were purchased by the parent Kansas City Athletics, who gave up on both in previous trials.

Nippy To Wichita — In other moves, the A's sent catcher Bill Shantz, left-hander Gene Host and the right-handed Al Aber, 30, also a former Tiger, to Buffalo and second baseman Curt Roberts to Denver of the American Association as part of last summer's big deal with the New York Yankees.

Nippy Jones, 32, whose celebrated "shoe shine" led to Milwaukee's fourth game, 7-5 victory over the Yankees in this year's World Series, was sent to Wichita of the American association by the Braves, who called up infielder Joe Morgan from Atlanta of the Southern association.

Corky Valentine, 27, and Red Murff, 35, both of whom saw little action with the Braves, were sent to Wichita in exchange for Ray Rippelmeyer, a right-handed pitcher, and Vic Rehm, a lefthander.

Bob Kennedy, 37, was given his outright release by the Los Angeles-bound Dodgers.

PACIFIC JV WINS —Monmouth — Pacific University's junior varsity defeated the Oregon College JV's 12-6 Monday.

Webb Favored In Video Match —Louisville — Middleweight contender Spider Webb of Chicago is favored at 3-1 to beat Jackie Labau of New York tonight in their TV 10-rounder at the Exposition Center.

Webb is fighting as a late-notice substitute for Ralph (Tiger) Jones, who was bedded last Saturday by a hip ailment. But the Spider is favored, nevertheless, because of his combined boxer-puncher ability.

Paraguay contains an estimated 157,000 square miles.

Neuberger Requests Probe of Invasion By Dodgers, Giants

Portland — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) has requested a congressional investigation of the invasion of Pacific Coast league territory by the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Giants.

The Dodgers are moving to Los Angeles and the Giants to San Francisco.

Neuberger wrote to Rep. Emanuel Celler, chairman of the House judiciary committee charging that the two teams have "completely disrupted and all but destroyed the Pacific Coast league." He said that "This was done during the past few weeks by the pirating of the most populous and valuable metropolitan areas belonging to the Pacific Coast league."

Advice Thwarted; Vacation Results

Memphis, Tenn. — The Rev. James Elder and his family got an all-expense vacation in California from a man who didn't take the Methodist minister's advice.

Elder, his wife and two children were flown to Hollywood as guests of the Randy Wood family.

The Woods and the Elders became friends some years back when Elder was pastor of First Methodist Church in Gallatin, Tenn.

"Randy and I were fishing buddies," Elder said. "One day he asked me what I thought about an idea he had for selling records by advertising over WLAC (Nashville, Tenn.) radio station. He could get some spot announcements for $30 each."

Elder recalled telling Wood that "I thought it was 'operation rat-hole'."

Elder said Wood was the "only member of my congregation who ever asked my business advice."

"I gave it to him, he ignored it, and became a millionaire."

"I now confine my advice to religious matters," Elder added. The minister said Wood ignored his advice and "went ahead with his idea and built up the largest mail order record business in the country."

Wood headed Dot Records. He sold it some months ago to Paramount Pictures for an estimated $3,000,000 and was held on to run the firm.

Wood sent plane tickets for Mr. and Mrs. Elder, and their children, Ronnie, 18, and Alice, 10.

"He had been asking us for a long time to come out and visit them," Elder said. "Finally, he just sent us checks for our plane tickets."

SIGN FOR TV BOUT —Washington — Jose Cotero, California state welterweight champion, Davey Moore of Springfield, Ohio have signed to meet in a 10-round nationally televised bout on Nov. 8. Cotero is ranked fifth while Moore is sixth among the welterweights.

A "BELL CAPTAIN" —Raleigh, N. C. — William (Whitey) Bell, a member of the 1952 "fabulous freshman" team at North Carolina State in 1952, has been elected captain of the Wolfpack basketball team for 1957-58. Bell is a senior guard from Warsaw, Ind.

In the second flight Mrs. Lee Flink defeated Mrs. E. H. Nulton 2 up, and will meet Mrs. J. A. Eidswick who won 2 and 1 from Mrs. Tom Culbertson.

Mrs. John Day defeated Mrs. Ted Groomes in the third flight 3 and 1 and will meet Mrs. Frank Tamney who defeated Mrs. L. C. McLaughlin 2 and 1.

In the fourth flight Mrs. Tom Harnsberger defeated Mrs. Ward Samuelson 2 up in the semis, and will play Mrs. William Knope in the finals. Mrs. Knope defeated Mrs. Floyd Somers 3 up.

Terry Brennan Coach of Week

South Bend, Ind. — He's a true-green Irishman married to a Kelley, yet he refused to inaugurate his first spring practice on the traditional St. Patrick's day because it was too cold.

He's a lawyer who doesn't practice but makes sure his players do.

He was a football player at nine, a college starter at 17, a schoolboy coach at 20 and got the most glamorous college coaching job at 25.

Railway Snowsheds Fast Disappearing

Sacramento, Calif. — The smoke-blackened snowshed, a familiar sight to the western railroad traveler, is giving way to modern methods.

The sheds were erected over the major portion of 41 miles of Southern Pacific track extending along a tortuous course through the Blue Canyon of the High Sierra.

The dirty wooden structures cut off the traveler's view for most of his trip, but they kept him from being snowbound. In their time they were regarded as an engineering marvel.

Their construction was begun in the spring of 1868 when six to eight feet of snow was still along the right-of-way. It took 2,500 workmen and 900 tons of bolts and spikes to finish the job, one of the great pioneer building feats.

Oldtime railroaders will tell you that the marooning of the city of San Francisco in 1952 could not have happened had the old sheds been in their place.

Now construction crews are replacing the ancient, sooty shelters with prefabricated concrete and only five miles of the wooden sheds remain.

In another decade "the Sierra snow galleries" may become just another part of railroad history along with other traditions of the gas light era.

Legion Department Heads Plan Meeting

Department heads of the American Legion and auxiliary will hold a conference at the Elks temple in Ashland Friday, Oct. 18, for department heads in district 13.

Kenneth Lewis, district commander, will greet visiting delegates who include Department Commander Charles H. Huggins, Department President Mrs. Anson Ingels, Vice Commander George Nelson, Vice President Mrs. Donald Acton, Adjutant Joe McDonald, and Department Secretary Mrs. Grover Francis.

All veterans, members of both the Legion and auxiliary, and friends have been invited to the conference, Lewis said.
