Maebashi, Japan—Lt. Col. Walter C. Sharp, of Beach Haven, N.J., testified today that Spl. 3 William S. Girard definitely was on duty when he shot and killed Mrs. Naka Sakai at the Camp Weir firing range Jan. 30.

Testifying as a defense witness, Sharp, Girard's battalion commander, said that once a soldier is placed "to guard anything, he has that responsibility until he is relieved."

Neuberger Asks Time To Reply To Lee

Portland—Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) today asked the East Side Commercial Club in Portland to grant him equal time to reply to former governor J. Bracken Lee of Utah who addressed the club Wednesday.

The Senator called Lee's remarks harmful and damaging. Lee is a long-time opponent of the use of income tax revenues for foreign aid.

Overhulse Plans No Pre-Session Caucus

Portland — Sen. Boyd Overhulse (D-Madras), president of the Oregon Senate, has advised his colleagues he plans to call the Senate to order at the special session of the Legislature Oct. 28 without calling a pre-session caucus.

Normally the Senate holds a caucus on the night before opening of a regular session to work out organizational details. Overhulse said he was going on the assumption that he was elected for a two-year term and that he will be the presiding officer. He suggested that when the formal session opens senators adopt a rule restricting the session to tax relief, school taxes and perhaps an appropriations for the State Emergency Board. "Unless this is done, he said, "We may be in Salem all winter."

'NUFF SAID

San Francisco — George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, opened his news conference Thursday night by inviting questions on any event. The first question was about James Hoffa and the Teamsters' Union. "No comment," answered Meany promptly.
