

Rites Held For Pair In California

Mrs. and Mr. Ralph Hulstrom are making their home at 908 Brown street, Santa Ana, Calif., following their wedding Sunday, October 6, in the Westminster Foursquare church, Westminster, Calif. The bride is the former Miss Jean Blomquist, daughter of Mrs. Thekla Blomquist, formerly of Jacksonville, and now of Anaheim, Calif. Mr. Hulstrom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hulstrom, San Jacinto, Calif.

The Rev. Lawrence Krause officiated for the double-ring rite. Yellow blossoms and ferns decorated the church.

The bride wore a ballerina type wedding gown of lace over satin and carried a white Bible and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Alvan Lee, sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Her frock was of yellow.

Mr. Johnson gave the bride in marriage, and Alvan Lee, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man for Mr. Bogart.

Miss Velva Krause provided the wedding music.

The reception was held at the Johnson home, with 25 guests attending.

The bride attended school in Lakeview, Ore., and Medford and the bridegroom attended school here. He is with Timber Products company, and the newlyweds are residing here.

The annual Tudor guild bazaar will be held in Ashland November 7, 8 and 9, it was announced today.

Tudor guild is an auxiliary agency supporting the Oregon Shakespearean Festival association. Proceeds from the bazaar will go into the festival building fund.

The event will be co-sponsored by the Ashland chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, and the Ashland Garden club. It will be held in the Knox building, at the corner of Oak and Main streets, Ashland.

Those participating may obtain further information from Mrs. E. N. Terrill, Talent; Mrs. W. B. Windt, Ashland, or Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr., Medford.

The bride attended Jacksonville schools and Garden Grove, Calif. High school. She is employed as a waitress in Anaheim; Mr. Hulstrom attended San Jacinto High school and is employed as a draftsman in the

Sandra Darlene Straus Wed To Marvin Ralph Wineman

Central Point—White chrysanthemums decorated Church of Christ, Central Point, for the wedding Saturday, October 5, of Miss Sandra Darlene Straus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Straus, route 1, Eagle Point, and Marvin Ralph Wineman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wineman, Glendale, Ore.

The Rev. Mr. Jean M. Shelley officiated at the eight o'clock evening ceremony attended by 90 relatives and friends. Mrs. Shelley played the wedding music and accompanied William Heberling, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length white lace over satin gown and carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Barbara Swanson was maid of honor and Mrs. Lester Hartley was bridesmatron. They wore ballerina length orchid colored taffeta frocks and carried orchid and white carnations. Flower girls were Rhonda Jack and Sheri Hartley, cousins of the bride.

Carl Sether served as best man and Eldred Jack, uncle of the bride, and Jack Straus, brother of the bride, seated the guests. Ring bearer was John Jack, another cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Straus wore a white knit suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Eldred Jack cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. James Jack poured the coffee, and Mrs. Jim McDowell presided at the punch bowl. The women are all aunts of the bride.

Miss Georgia Mason was in charge of the guest book and Miss Sara Clogston was at the gift table.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip. For her traveling attire the bride chose a blue suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Eagle Point High school and is employed by Rogue Valley State bank. The bridegroom attended Broseley, Mo., schools and was employed by Robert Dollar Ply-

Delegate Returns From Portland; Benefit Announced

Roland G. Beach, Medford, past grand master-at-arms of the Knights of Pythias lodge, returned last week from Portland where he attended the state convention of the lodge as the Medford delegate.

State officers elected at the convention were Claude Kelly, Bend, grand chancellor; Tom C. Hartfield, Roseburg, grand vice-chancellor; Dan Hollopeter, Portland, grand prelate; Walter G. Gleason, Portland, grand secretary; and Jack Dempsey, Portland, grand treasurer. The convention will be held in Eugene in 1958.

Two candidates were elected to the rank of page at the last meeting of the Medford lodge. Dan Kadin received his obligations at the "Rathbone Bible Class" initiation held in Roseburg, and Robert Dames, who was unable to attend the meeting, will be initiated in Medford, October 28.

Plans have been completed for the Pythian Home Benefit card party to be held in the Pythian building, Fifth and Grape streets, Saturday, October 26. Chairman of the affair is Edward Bostwick. Halloween decorations will be used for the event.

The business meeting of the lodge will be held Monday, October 21, at 8 p.m. at the lodge building.

Rush Party Given By Sorority

Recent events of Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, included the annual rushing party and a model meeting.

"Around the World in Eighty Days" was the theme of the rushing party held at the home of Mrs. Tom Shoop, 130 White Oak drive.

Members wore costumes representing different countries. Decorations were in keeping with the theme, which consisted of posters, travel folders and flags of the various nations. The dessert was also the table decoration. It was a large balloon floating above and anchored to a cake, which was fashioned and decorated in the shape of a basket. Games adapted to the theme were played.

Rush captain was Mrs. Fred Johnson, and assisting were Mrs. Robert Harland, Mrs. Robert Vincent, Mrs. John Holmes, Mrs. Wayne Turpin and Mrs. Tom Shoop. Mrs. Walter Larsen was in charge of the refreshment committee.

Guests were Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Robert Drake, Mrs. Ellis Chartier, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Floyd Eastwood, Mrs. Ernest Flakus, Mrs. Fred Rawson, Mrs. Ted Nielson, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Roland Hall, Mrs. Phil Huntley and two Beta Sigma Phi transfers Mrs. Jody Larson and Mrs. Martha Sayre.

Rushes were also invited to attend a model meeting held October 15 at the home of the president, Miss Jean Cardona, 224 Saginaw drive. The vice-president, Mrs. Fred Johnson played a recording by Walter V. Ross, founder of Beta Sigma
