JUNIOR TREASURE CHEST

Grab the Bell Nat Bradford

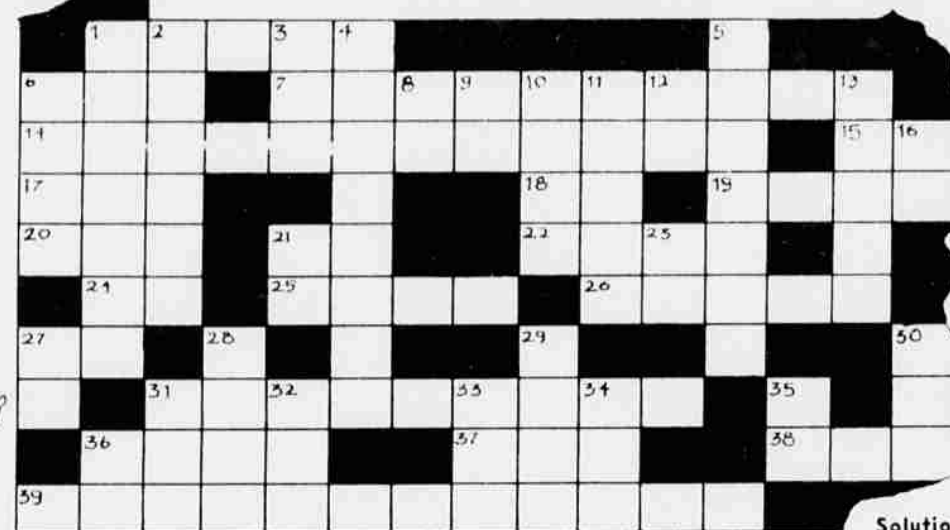

Here's a good outdoor game! Stretch a rope high between two trees. Fasten a bell to a loop of rope and suspend it from the stretched rope. Two teams face each other about 40 feet apart. Each captain selects two players and puts buckets over their heads—paper ones are obtainable at paint or hardware stores. You can paint funny faces on the buckets if you like. Now the players can see down but not straight ahead.

The umpire moves the bell along the rope and gives it a ring. The players, blinded by the buckets, hurry toward the sound. The one who grabs the bell first wins a point. Then four others try. This is fun!
