London — Red China's giant, Russian-inspired program for the development of sports is producing its first fruit. This year, for the first time since the Communists grabbed power, Red Chinese athletes have performed creditably. If their progress continues on the same lines, Red China might be a major power in sports by the 1964 Olympics.

Ironically, it is an American sport in which the Red Chinese have made the biggest impression this year—basketball. A Communist Chinese basketball team, under-size, but cat-quick and perfect ball handlers, made its first appearance in the West in the recent Paris World University games. It breezed by a number of highly regarded European teams before its players — apparently unaccustomed to tight Western tournament schedules — tired and faltered in final-round play.

In athletics, weight-lifting, swimming, gymnastics and soccer the Chinese have also approached top international standards this year. Good Performers International Olympic Committee President Avery Brundage, after watching a group of Red Chinese athletes perform in the recent International Track and Field championships of Romania at Bucharest, said: "They have made very good performances. I can see a very great deal of progress in a short time."

South Eugene Wrests No. 1 Spot From Bucs

Portland — Marshfield's four-year reign as the kingly of Oregon high school football teams came to an end today when South Eugene took over the No. 1 spot in the Journal Coaches poll.

Beaverton held down third place. Jefferson of Portland dropped a notch to fifth behind South Salem. Sixth place was a tie between Springfield and Milwaukie. Grant of Portland was eighth North Salem ninth and McMinnville 10th.

IBL Owner Says Brook Ball Nears

By OSCAR FRALEY Tokyo — Bill McDonald, wealthy international sportsman from Miami Beach, Fla., disclosed today that on his return to the United States next week he would take steps to obtain an International League franchise in Brooklyn.

DISTRICT 6 A-2 (Southern Division (Rogue League)) W. L. T Pct. Phoenix 4 0 0 1.000 Glendale 4 0 0 1.000 Brookings 2 0 1 1.000 Illinois Valley 1 2 1 0.333 Eagle Point 1 2 1 0.333 Henley 1 2 2 0.333 Rogue River 0 5 0 0.000

International League officials contacted me just before I left to attend the International Trophy and Canada Cup golf matches in Tokyo this weekend, McDonald revealed. "I can say that I am definitely interested."

DISTRICT 5B W. L. Pct. Malin 4 0 1.000 Merrill 4 0 1.000 Talent 2 0 1.000 Chiloquin 2 0 1.000 Bonanza 2 0 1.000 Sacred Heart (Klam. F.) 0 3 0 0.000 St. Mary's (Medford) 0 3 0 0.000 Jacksonville 0 3 0 0.000

Everything would depend, he said, on whether he could make a deal with Walter O'Malley of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who still holds a two-year lease on Ebbets Field.

Medford high pauses in its District 6 A-1 campaign this Friday to meet a longtime California football foe but the other four members of the loop will engage in counting games.

"If I get a franchise, which I am quite certain that I can, and if I can make a sensible deal with O'Malley, there will be baseball in Brooklyn next spring," McDonald asserted. "But I am not going into this thing to use or be used as a club to bid up somebody financially."

The Black Tornado will be host to Eureka High school. Grants Pass will attempt to pull even with Medford in the Southern Oregon conference by entertaining Klamath Falls. Ashland will oppose Crater at Central Point.

McDonald, who owns the Tampa team in the Florida State League, said that if his plans went through he probably would hire "one of the old Brooklyn heroes" as manager. It gave rise to speculation that he might make an offer to Jackie Robinson, who at Brooklyn played the first Negro to play in organized baseball.

Rogue league (District 6 A-2 southern division) will have one particularly crucial conflict. Phoenix High vies at Glendale on Friday in the circuit's big game. Each is undefeated in four games in the division. Eagle Point meets Illinois Valley at Cave Junction also on Friday. Henley and Brookings will meet each other halfway in one respect. Their game will be played Saturday afternoon on the Phoenix field.

WRIGHT LEADS Pinehurst, N. C. — Co-medalists Fred Wright of Watertown, Mass., and Maurice R. Smith of Kansas City led a field of 32 players into today's first match play round of the sixth annual North and South Seniors Golf Tournament.

Rogue River action is outside the Rogue loop as host to Grants Pass junior varsity on Saturday.

In District 5B Merrill plays at Jacksonville Friday afternoon. St. Mary's is guest of Bonanza and Talent meets Chiloquin at Klamath Falls in other Friday games. Sacred Heart will be at Malin for the other week end fracas in the loop. Merrill and Malin head the loop unbeaten.

Traces Lost Road He said he traced a "lost" road from low tropical jungle to an altitude of about 7,000 feet and beyond into the high Andes. The road, partly cobbled or carved from stone, averages six feet in width. Stairsteps indicate the road builders did not intend the passage for wheels or beasts of burden.

Each of the four transformers will step up the voltage of one of Brownlee's 90,100-kilowatt generators to 230,000 volts for transmission over a 100-mile line now being built to Boise and a recently completed 42-mile line that will carry power to Baker, Ore., and thence into the Northwest Power Pool.

Patronage checks also will be distributed to those members who have traded at the store during the past year, it was announced. The cooperative is now serving approximately 2,000 members and non-member customers in Jackson county, a spokesman said.

The new 106-ton transformer began its journey at the project's railroad at Robinette, Ore., where it was hoisted from its specially built railroad flatcar. Then, while the transformer was held aloft, the flatcar was moved away and two "low-boy" diesel trucks, chained together, backed into position to be loaded with the heavy equipment.

US. Department of Agriculture studies show that the age of a non-vaccinated cow does not affect her susceptibility to brucellosis.

Once the transformer was tied down with stout cables, the trucks headed into the canyon with their massive burden. The 10-mile journey along the Snake river took the trucks over a sheer-walled, winding road.

Discovery of Ancient Jungle Road Reported In South America Lima, Peru — An American explorer has reported the discovery of an ancient jungle road which may provide a "missing link" in the history of South America. The archaeological find also may shed light on the evolution of writing, according to George Michanowsky, president of the Amazonia Foundation. For four months, Michanowsky and an Amazonia Foundation team explored an area northeast of LaPaz, the Bolivian capital, by plane, mule and foot.

1957 Beaver Manager To Phil Coaching Staff

Philadelphia — A personality clash with manager Mayo Smith was hinted today as a possible reason for the Philadelphia Phillies' dropping of pitching coach Whitlow Wyatt.

"I had Posedel before," Hamey said. "When he became available we wanted him. I think he's one of the best in the business at helping pitchers."

Bill Posedel, manager of the Portland team of the Pacific Coast League, was named to succeed him.

The Phillies gave no reason for not renewing Wyatt's three-year, $15,000 yearly contract. Wyatt came to the Phillies with Smith in 1955 from the Southern Association where both were managers. Although Smith never criticized Wyatt publicly, it was understood they had clashed behind the scenes over several issues.

Phillies' General Manager Roy Hamey indicated the reason for the switch was Posedel's ability rather than Wyatt. Hamey said he was impressed with Posedel's coaching as far back as 1948 when Hamey was general manager for Pittsburgh and Posedel was a Pirate scout and coach.

Posedel, who began his baseball career in 1929 and played for the Dodgers and Braves during his big league stint from 1938 through 1946. He went to Portland in the middle of last season from the St. Louis Cardinals where he was a pitching coach since 1953.
