

Miss Sue Thorpe, a senior in elementary teacher education, will reign as Homecoming queen at Southern Oregon college this week end. Miss Thorpe who is editor of this year's year-book, The Raider, has served as treasurer of the Junior class; a member of Sigma Epsilon Pi, Robes, and was a princess in the Miss Raider contest last year. The queen's home is Ashland.

Masonic Groups At Cave Junction Given Tree Farm

Cave Junction—At a meeting of Bethel 36, Job's Daughters, Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Snider, guardian and associate guardian, spoke of the 40-acre O'Brien Christmas tree farm donated earlier this year to four local Masonic organizations. Owners now are Belt Masonic lodge, Western Star chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Bethel 36, International Order of Job's Daughters and Redwood chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Proceeds from sales will go jointly to the four groups, Mrs. Snider said. She announced another work day at the tree farm for Sunday, October 27, starting at 10 a.m. Jobs will include everything from cutting trees to pulling brush, and workers are asked to wear old clothing and bring pruning and cutting tools. A potluck luncheon is planned at noon. The fourth Sunday in every month has been set aside for the four organizations as well as parents of Job's daughters and DeMolays are invited to participate.

Miss Karen Ellstrom was honored by presentation of a certificate of proficiency by Mrs. Snider. Every member has the privilege of earning the honor through memorization of the secret work of the Bethel.

Senior Princess Carolyn Demersseman announced plans for her project, that of providing a chili feed with home made cookies to Masons at a meeting Saturday, October 26.

A discussion of the Bethel's deer hide project was led by Honored Queen Linda Deaton, who presided. Several hides have already been turned in, and will be taken to Grants Pass by Mrs. Snider. It was emphasized again that hides must be folded skin sides together. Proceeds from the sales will go into the Bethel's general fund.

Job's Daughters meet at 7:30 p.m. every first and third Monday at the Masonic temple in Kerby.

Meeting Planned By Crater PTA

Central Point — Parents of Crater High school students will have a chance to ask teachers about the work of their teenagers at a meeting of Crater Parent Teacher association Monday, October 28. The session will be held in the cafeteria of the school at 8 p.m.

As has been the custom since this PTA was organized, this first meeting of the year will be a "back-to-school" night. Parents will spend 10 minute periods in the same class rooms their children have during the day.

Teachers, new and old, will be introduced during the business meeting.

Officers of the unit for this year are Mrs. Lewis Kilbourn, president; Mrs. Chester Ashton, first vice-president; Clinton Charley, second vice-president; Mrs. Earl Sands, secretary; Albert Piche, treasurer.

Crater PTA meets six times during the year to promote better understanding between the high school student, the parent and the teacher.

October is the month to join; everyone is welcome.

Mushroom Club Plans Field Trip

Southern Oregon Mushroom club plans a field trip for Sunday, October 27. Members and other interested persons are asked to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence, 1422 Euclid avenue, at 9 a.m. Those without transportation are asked to call SPring 2-6767, the Lawrence home.

The last meeting of the club was held at the Lawrence home. Several varieties of mushrooms were collected and brought for examination.

SELF-HELP

Andover, Mass. — Mrs. J. Albion Burt, a retired school teacher, chose a novel method for disposing of a library she no longer wanted. She stacked hundreds of volumes on her porch and invited townsfolk to help themselves.

Dr. Arthur Kreisman

SOC Professor On Program For Nurse Workshop

Dr. Arthur Kreisman, professor of English at Southern Oregon college, Ashland, will address a workshop of registered nurses to be held Saturday, October 26, at the penthouse of Rogue Valley Memorial hospital. His subject will be "Selling Intangibles" and the talk will be at 10 a.m.

The workshop is preparatory to a nation-wide membership roll call of American Nurses' association to be held early in January according to Mrs. Christine Bates, R.N. Medford, president of District 4, Oregon Nurses association.

Purpose of the roll call is to increase membership in the national and state associations, to give added strength to efforts to improve standards of nursing practice, promote the welfare of nurses and meet increasing demands for nursing service, it is stated.

Dr. Kreisman is well known for his appearances on the program, "Adventures in Literature," over KBES-TV during the past two years. He is director of the joint U.S. Office of Education-Oregon System of Higher Education experiment in block teaching of the humanities during 1957-58.

Miss Nora M. Marco, associate executive secretary of the Oregon Nurses association in Portland, who attended a national ANA roll call meeting in New York City this summer, will demonstrate tips and techniques for "Overcoming Objections."

Loyalty-Security Topic for League

All women interested in activities of the Medford League of Women Voters will be welcome at the general meeting of League Saturday, October 26, at 12:30 p.m. in the Rogue Valley Country club, according to Mrs. Hugh B. Collins, president.

The program planned by Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, chairman of the national study item on federal loyalty-security programs, along with the need for safeguarding national security and protecting the rights of individuals, Mrs. Sherwood reported.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Fred Carr, SPring 2-6619.

Scottish Rite Club Plans Guest Night

Scottish Rite Women's club members will observe their first guest night Monday, October 28, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic temple.

All Scottish Rite Masons' wives, widows, daughters and sisters are eligible and invited.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Clay M. Lee, SPring 2-9737; Mrs. Robert Simpson, SPring 3-3988; or Mrs. Frank Salyers, SPring 2-8001, by Saturday noon.

Many Events Scheduled For College Homecoming

Ashland—High-stepping drum majorettes, exciting band music, lawn decorations, a sparkling variety show, and the coronation of pretty Miss Sue Thorpe, Ashland senior, will augment the OCE-SOC football game as featured events for this year's Homecoming celebration at Southern Oregon college. The festivities begin this evening and extend through Saturday, it was announced by Walter Hurst, general chairman and student body president.

Beginning with the Variety show at 8 o'clock this evening in Churchill hall, the program will conclude with the lighting of the traditional bonfire on the athletic field. Variety show acts include jazz piano arrangements, male and female solo acts, pantomimes, quartets, comedy routines, and a special dramatic reading.

Saturday's program begins at 9 a.m. with student-conducted tours of the new Britt Student center and The Pavilion with the Homecoming parade scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. at the Plaza in downtown Ashland.

Accompanied by nearly 300 brilliantly-uniformed bandsmen and numerous floats, Mrs. Bert Stancliffe, Phoenix, SOC Alumni association president, will ride with young Hurst in the parade as a symbol of the unity between graduates and today's students. The parade route is from the Plaza, up the main street and back to the Plaza by way of the new highway couplet where a gigantic rally will be conducted.

Alumnae of Robes, SOC upperclasswomen's service honorary, will be honored by on-campus members of the organization at a special luncheon in the Britt Student center at noon. At two o'clock, the Oregon College of Education Wolves will meet the SOC Red Raiders in a contest which sportswriters and coaches in the Oregon Collegiate Conference have described as the most crucial game of the season. Both teams are unbeaten and united in conference play with comparative scores giving a slight edge to the Monmouth team.

Immediately following the game, members of Sigma Epsilon Pi, scholastic honorary sorority, will hold a tea for returning members. They will also assist Alumni association officers and SOC faculty members during the alumni reception from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. The Britt Student center will be the scene of both functions.

An alumni semi-formal dance in the new Britt center ballroom will terminate the two-day round of festivities. The Ken Brew Trio will supply the music for the occasion. Chairman Hurst announced. Registration will be in Britt center between any of the events.

Club Nominates Medford Woman

Jacksonville—Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, member of Jacksonville Garden club, has been nominated by the Jacksonville club for the office of director of the Siskiyou district. At a meeting of the club Thursday it was learned that Mrs. Nichol's nomination, approved by the club previously, had not been forwarded to district officials.

Delegates named by the club to attend the fall district meeting set for Tuesday, Oct. 29, in Fruitdale Grange hall, Grants Pass, are Mrs. Paul Godward and Mrs. Dee Hendrickson. Alternates are Mrs. Leonard McKee and Mrs. Ray Coleman.

A roundtable discussion on hibiscus was held. Tea was served by Mrs. Godward, Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Harold Reed, vice-president, who also conducted the business session.

The tea table was decorated in the Halloween motif.
