Grange Notes

Phoenix Grange

Phoenix Grange met Tuesday, Oct. 22 at 8 p.m. Lecturer Ethel Carr announced the program put on by the legislative committee would precede the business meeting and was open to the public. Melvin Lattie, chairman of the committee, spoke briefly concerning the object of the program, and introduced Harry Martin and Albert Straus, office manager and committeeman, respectively, of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation program known as the ASCP.

Martin gave an informative talk on the soil bank and soil conservation, and what it should mean to farmers of Jackson county, although of the five basic crops which come under the Soil Bank and Conservation Act, only wheat is grown in this county. He told how it could benefit those farmers taking advantage of the opportunities provided by the program, and how to proceed in obtaining the benefits. His talk was illustrated by slides shown by Straus. Some time was devoted to a question and answer period.

Following which a little entertainment was provided by Barney Lewin with some "slight of hand" tricks. The art of "making money" was illustrated with the assistance of Mark Norton.

Grange meeting was called to order at 9 p.m. with all officers present, excepting Musician Florence Hartley. Mrs. Vaughn Quackenbush substituted for her.

Albert Straus, master of Sams Valley Grange, was escorted to the Master's station, and Harry Martin, who is a member of Roxy Ann Grange, remained for the meeting, and both spoke briefly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whitesides were obligated in the first and second degrees.

An old family album and very old scrapbook, property of the Mark Nortons were on the display table, and created a great deal of interest.

Regarding the resolution from Baker district Pomona, which concerned depreciation of property and taxation, the committee gave their report as favorable, and the Grange voted their approval of same. The resolution will be presented to Pomona Grange, which meets Saturday, Oct. 26 at 10 a.m. at Phoenix Grange hall. Judging of canned fruit and jelly will be held at 10:30 and all entries must be accompanied by a White Satin sugar sack and name, address and Grange of the contestant, according to Mrs. Olin Poe, district HEC chairman.

HEC Chairman Coral Schroeder requested Phoenix ladies bring a vegetable dish for the Pomona potluck dinner at noon. Phoenix Grange will furnish the meat dish and ladies from other Granges bring salad or desert.

Chaplain Mrs. B. N. Lewin reported Mrs. Herb Thomas and Charles Lewis ill.

The ways and means committee announced a turkey dinner and carnival to be held Saturday, Nov. 23, plans for entertainment, booths and games are in the making.

A letter from the American Red Cross was read by Lesbia Lattie, thanking Phoenix Grange for the use of chairs and dishes.

Master Dee Hendrickson announced election of officers would be held at the next meeting Nov. 12.

Refreshment committee at that meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Simmons and Ira Lumen.

Meeting adjourned at 10:30 and refreshments of fruit cake with lemon topping and coffee served by the committee Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lattie, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stevens and W. B. Tucker. The tables were decorated with bright autumn leaves and Halloween napkins.
