Ducks Battle Rebounding California Club at Eugene

Eugene — Oregon's Webfoots, on the spot as the team to beat in the race to the Rose Bowl, meet a resurgent California football team at Hayward field Saturday with a damp field in prospect.

Upwards of 20,000 fans are expected to watch Coach Len Casanova's Ducks seek their fourth straight PCC victory. But, in California, the Webfoots meet a rebounding team which dumped USC 12-0 last week after four straight losses to strong opponents.

Oregon is 3-0 in the PCC while the other three bowl eligibles, California, Stanford and WSC, all have lost one conference game. Each team still has five conference games left so the bowl picture actually is about as decided as the first moon visitor.

Chapman Gane Oregon will be without Norm Chapman, its regular center from Medford, who dislocated an ankle against WSC last week. He is replaced by Bob Peterson, a standout from Marshfield high. But the Ducks lack depth as the key defensive position.

California suffered a blow Thursday when regular half-back Jack Hart, the team's leading ground gainer, was hospitalized with a high fever. He was replaced in the starting lineup by John Stewart.

The weather man predicted occasional showers and clearing periods for the game. Rain has fallen most of the week.

THREE SIGNED
Detroit — The Detroit Tigers have signed three young outfielders to non-bonus contracts. They are John Fourcade of Gretna, La., Irving Lyndes of North Stratford, N.H., and Lionel Lindgren of Fayette, Ohio.

Handicap Race Closes Meeting

San Bruno, Calif. — At least 11 horses were expected to go postward in Saturday's $30,000 added Tanforan handicap as the track closes its strike-shortened meeting.

Tanforan re-opened Thursday after having been idled 26 days by a pari-mutuel clerks' strike. A crowd of 7,249 turned out despite the wet weather and wagered $449,783.

Favored Sun Hannah, owned by R. S. Lytle, easily won the featured race with apprentice Ronnie Fairholm aboard. The three-year-old daughter of Hannibal and Sun Tigris broke first in the five-horse field and gradually pulled away to lead by three lengths at the wire. Speedy Edie was third.

Grade Football Tilts Postponed

Three Medford elementary school grid games to have been battled yesterday were postponed because of wet weather. They are to be made up Monday afternoon weather permitting. The games match Oak Grove against Washington, Roosevelt against Lincoln and Jackson against Jefferson.

Hawaii Girl Queen Of OSC Homecoming

Corvallis — Pearl Friel, Oregon State college senior from Hawaii, was chosen Thursday night as queen to preside over homecoming functions for the Nov. 2 week end when Oregon State and Washington State have it out on the gridiron. Miss Friel is a major in elementary education.

Chosen as princesses were Verie Pilling and Sandra Farrell, both of Portland; Nina Gollersrud of Skamokawa, Wash., and Lu Ann Mullen, Albany.

OPPOSES LOGGER CREW
Ron Reich, above, is scheduled among the starters for the Medford high football game this evening when it tussles Eureka, Calif., here. Reich holds down the right halfback job for the Tornado. Game time is 8:15 p.m.

Clemson Upsets South Carolina

Columbia, S.C. — Sophomore quarterback Harvey White sparked Clemson in two swift thrusts Thursday to an upset victory over South Carolina, 13-0, before 44,029 fans who were dampened by pre-game showers but sat in sunshine at the end.

Fanfare

There are many fans in this area who are willing to bet that the long undefeated skein of the Marshfield high football Pirates and the unscored upon status of the Coos Bay club will come to an end this Saturday night. The Buccaneers will be hosts to South Eugene in Oregon's biggest prep encounter of the week end. It will also be a key conflict in District 5-A-1.

Marshfield will be on its home field and that's generally been a considerable advantage to the Bucs. But the Pirates will be without the services of their talented fullback, Hardy Spurgeon, who suffered a shoulder separation in the Springfield deadlock last Friday. Spurgeon's running has been the big feature this year of the Marshfield offense. The other backs this time will have the opportunity to show their full value.

DICK AT CENTER

Dick McLaughlin, for three seasons a quarterback for the Medford High school Black Tornado is now a center on the Oregon State college Rooks squad. The pivot spot is not a new one to Dick, who played that position while a member of Washington Grade school teams here. Tackle Neil Plumley is another ex-Medfordite on the OSC Rook squad.

FLU STOPS BAKER

It took an attack of the flu, now devastating football throughout the country, to halt the win string of the Baker high Bulldogs, coached this fall by Stan Smith, ex-Medford high athlete and ex-Eagle Point mentor. And the mar on the Bulldog record is not an on-the-field defeat. It came by forfeiture. Smith's Baker squad of only 22 players, piled up five wins against better-manned Eastern Oregon foes.

Clayton Hannon, prep writer for the Eugene Register-Guard, speaks of the flu attacks and the resultant cancellations of games as a "feather in the cap" of those wanting to abolish the present system of state grid play-offs. He points up the fact that the football plan has many opponents.

Gale Kerwin Foe Of Johnny Busso

New York — Lightweight contender Johnny Busso is favored at 12-5 to beat Gale Kerwin, the second substitute, tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Canadian-born Kerwin of Valley Stream, N.Y., is substituting for Sonny Boy Williams, who was substituting for Italian Paolo Rosi. Both Rosi and Williams were bedded by the flu.

Busso of New York, 23, objected to Kerwin as a replacement because of his proficiency with the left hook. Johnny always had a weak defense against left hooks. However, no other capable substitute was available.

Hedrick 8th Defeats CP

Hedrick Junior high eighth grade gridders downed Central Point 20 to 6 here yesterday.

The Hornets led 7 to 0 at the quarter and 14 to 0 at halftime. Two runs of 10 to 15 yards by Ron Gandee set up the first touchdown. Mike McCullough went up the middle the last 15 yards and Dick Byrd passed to Norm Olson for the conversion. A couple of long runs by McCullough put the ball in place for the second touchdown dash. Paul Garren went the last 35 yards to the end zone and McCullough swept end for the extra.

Champ Scores
Dashes by McCullough and Gandee helped in the third push and Garren went off tackle for the TD.

For Central Point John Champ took the ball on a keeper and romped 65 yards to the goal. Hedrick showed defensive improvement with the whole line turning in a fine game. Lineman cited were Olson, John dePlace, Chuck Allen, Pat Williams, Mike Miller, Rennie Vowell and Paul Bauer.

All members of the Hornet squad of about 25 got into the game.

MOREHEAD IN ARMY

Philadelphia — The Philadelphia Phillies revealed today that Seth Morehead is undergoing Army training at Camp Chaffee, Ark., under the six months active duty program. The southpaw pitcher will miss spring training next year but will re-join the team shortly after the season starts.
