

Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Lorilee Ruth Stark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley L. Stark, 97 Fair Oaks drive, Medford, became the bride of Jerome Arnold A. Smith, a son of Mrs. Esther Smith, Glendive, Mont., in a ceremony held Saturday, October 5, in St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco.

The Rev. John Sweeney officiated at the three o'clock afternoon double ring wedding. For her wedding the bride wore a pink jersey sheath dress with pink feather hat and white orchid corsage. Mrs. Thomas Smith, Colusa, Calif., sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was honor attendant with Miss Esther Miller bridesmaid.

Mrs. Smith wore a mauve colored frock and Miss Miller was in a beige colored dress. They both wore green orchid corsages.

Thomas Smith served as best man for his brother.

Following a wedding trip to Carmel and Monterey, Calif., the newlyweds are making their home at 36 Alta Way, Corte Madera, Calif.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony included the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Speare, all Medford.

The bride attended Medford High school and is employed by a dental clinic in San Francisco. The bridegroom attended Dawson county, Mont., High school and Montana State university. He is employed with Shell Oil company in San Francisco.

Guests attending the shower were Mrs. Wayne Birkland, Mrs. Nettie Birkland, Mrs. Walter Michael, Mrs. Henry Lindwall, Mrs. George McCune, Mrs. Ernest Pitts, Mrs. Grover Rawls, Mrs. Everett Grissom and Mrs. Harvey Cassman.

Visits Here
Dr. H. A. Krause, Portland osteopathic physician, visited at the home of his sister-in-law and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tizek, 2116 East Main street, Medford.

Dr. Krause, formerly of Medford, recently completed a residency in Mt. Clemens, Mich. He left the valley Saturday to attend the annual convention of osteopathic surgeons in St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Virginia Lee Carter Is Bride of Donald Burgess

Among October weddings was that of Miss Virginia Lee Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carter, 730 Broad street, Medford, to Donald Glein Burgess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Burgess, San Diego, Calif.

The double-ring ceremony, attended by 130 guests, was held Sunday afternoon, October 20, in First Presbyterian church, by the Rev. John O. Reynolds.

Bouquets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church and candelabra held lighted tapers.

Mrs. Charles Champlin was soloist, and Mrs. Richard Hart was at the church organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with a round neckline trimmed with applied lace and sequins, fitted bodice, and a hoop skirt ending in a chapel length train.

Her fingertip length veil was held by a pearl and sequin trimmed Juliet cap. She carried a white spider chrysanthemum cascade bouquet and wore a heart-shaped necklace which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Her "something old" was a handmade lace handkerchief made by her grandmother, Mrs. Lou Carter in 1908 for her own wedding and also was used at the wedding of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lee Merriman.

Miss Jacqueline O'Malia, Oakland, Calif., was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Nelda and Miss Reida Jenkins, Portland. They wore matching frocks of yellow jacquard woven in a leaf pattern, crowns of white pompon chrysanthemums, and carried bouquets of the same blossoms. They wore matching gold necklaces.

Best man for the bridegroom was his cousin Richard Glein, Tacoma, Wash., and the ushers were Gary Schafer and David Carter, brother of the bride.

A three-year-old cousin of the bride, little Nancy Lehman, was flower girl. She wore a bouffant yellow nylon dress, a crown of white chrysanthemums, and carried a small bouquet of the same flowers. The flower girl's mother, Mrs. Vernon Lehman, when she too was only three years old, was flower girl for the bride's mother.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue lace sheath dress with navy blue accessories and pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a deep violet sheath dress with off-white accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

About 115 guests attended the reception which was held at the Girl's Community club, the first wedding reception to be held in the new building.

Mrs. Vernon Rush, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake made by a friend of the bride, Mrs. Robert Lull. Serving punch were Mrs. Lee Merriman, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. John Green, Mrs. B. J. Glein, aunt of the bridegroom, poured coffee using the silver service loaned by Miss Elizabeth Burr. Assisting were Mrs. D. O. Rosenbaum, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. W. F. O'Conner, Miss Joyce Rush, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Following the reception, the couple left on a wedding trip to the Bay area in California. The bride wore a powder blue suit with dark brown accessories and brown chrysanthemum corsage.

In the evening following the wedding and reception, a buffet supper was served by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Merriman of Ashland, to relatives and close friends.

The after rehearsal party Saturday night was held at the Carter home.

Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon D. Burgess of San Diego, former owners of the Burgess Paint and Wallpaper store of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Glein and sons, Richard and Gary of Tacoma, Wash., uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Lou M. Carter of Sacramento, Calif., grandmother of the bride; Mrs. D. O. Rosenbaum and daughter Kathleen of Omaha, Neb., aunt and cousin of the bride; Mrs. W. F. O'Conner, Cottage Grove; Miss Dixie Lee Denman, Grants Pass; Mrs. Leslie R. Bragdon and Mrs. Elene Marmon, all of Portland.

Henry Galey, Ashland, a guest at the wedding and reception, was also present at the wedding of the bride's parents and of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lou Carter, Portland, who was bridesmaid for the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lou Carter, was also present.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school, attended Highland School of Nursing, Oakland, and has been employed as a doctor's secretary and receptionist.

The bridegroom, also a graduate of Medford High school, has just been promoted to manager of the Art Department of the Pacific Beach Branch of the Frazee Paint company of San Diego. The couple will be at home in San Diego after October 28.

Many of the new suits and coats have cardigan or collarless necklines.

Home Rites Wed Couple

Eagle Point — A home wedding Tuesday, October 15, in Eagle Point married Miss Doris Aliene Hammonds and Paul Dean Essary. The Rev. Floyd Pollock officiated at the eight o'clock evening double ring ceremony attended by 45 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hammonds, Route 1, Box 35, Eagle Point, where the ceremony was held. The bridegroom is a son of Raymond Essary, Crane, Mo., and has been making his home at Route 2, Box 220, Medford.

For her wedding the bride wore a pale blue taffeta frock styled on princess lines with matching bolero jacket. Her flowers were white carnations. Mrs. Robert Perry, Central Point, attended her sister. She wore a grey frock with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Larry Rodgers, Eagle Point, served as best man.

White and gold chrysanthemums decorated the home for the wedding and reception which followed. Mrs. Robert Minter cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Clyde Dunn, aunt of the bride, poured punch, and Mrs. Lindell Carney, another aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ralph Emmert poured the coffee.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hammonds wore a light blue suit with red accessories and white carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Eagle Point schools. The bridegroom attended Crane High school and is employed by Pineapple Orchards and Packing company.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Shute, Spring 3-4121.

Visitor Leaves
Central Point — Dale Throckmorton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Throckmorton, Route 2, Central Point, has returned to his home in Chicago after spending a week visiting his parents. Mr. Throckmorton is Midwest regional business manager for the Chrysler corporation with offices in Chicago.
