

School Librarian's Group Organized At Recent Meet

Nineteen school librarians and teacher-librarians met October 23 for a luncheon meeting at the Medford hotel to form a Jackson County School Librarians' association. The meeting was held in conjunction with the Jackson County Teachers' Institute.

Mrs. Lois Martin, McLoughlin Junior High school, was chosen chairman of the new group, and Miss Ruth Esther Hill, Ashland Junior High school, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Martin appointed Miss Ina Freeman, Talent High school, chairman of the high school group, and Mrs. Hazel Mekvold, Roosevelt school, Medford, chairman of the elementary school group, in discussions on library problems.

Mrs. Mildred Rogers, Hedrick Junior High school, was appointed parliamentary, and Giles Green, Ashland High school, chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee.

Mrs. Hazel Ann Hunt, librarian of children's literature at Southern Oregon college, spoke on the value of organizing such a group in Jackson county. A talk on an article by Jessamin West which appeared in the Wilson Library bulletin was given by Mrs. Rogers.

The association set its next meeting for December 3 in the Southern Oregon college library.

Entertains Friends

A number of friends called at the home of Mrs. Emma Perkins, 243 North Holly street, recently to view pictures shown by the Rev. D. E. Millard of a trip through eastern Oregon, Yellowstone park, Montana and Idaho. The trip was made by the Rev. and Mrs. Millard and Mrs. Perkins.

Newlyweds To Reside In Brookings

Star of the Sea Catholic church in Brookings was the setting last month for the wedding of Miss Shirley Bowlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bowlin of that city, and Allen Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith, 3455 Jacksonville highway, Medford.

The Rev. James Harris officiated at the noon nuptial mass. The double ring ceremony was performed on Saturday, September 14. Mr. Bowlin escorted his daughter to the altar.

For her wedding the bride wore a white lace over satin gown and her fingertip length veil was held by a tiara of pearls and lace. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Miss Diana Bowlin was honor attendant for her sister. Other attendants were Miss Sharon Bowlin, another sister, and Mrs. Gerald True, Medford. Joan Wimberly was flower girl for her aunt.

The attendants wore ballerina length dresses of powder blue net over satin. They had white flowers in their hair which held blue net shoulder length veils and they carried bouquets of pink carnations and yellow marigolds.

Gerald True, Medford, served as best man, and groomsmen were Robert Bowlin and Gary Bowlin, brothers of the bride. Gary Wimberly, F. V. Steinmiz and Dr. E. F. Bowlin seated the guests.

Miss Evelyn Munley was organist and accompanied Mrs. Dudley Fabrick, Rogue River, Robert Bowlin, and Mrs. William Shipley, who sang.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bowlin chose a rose colored dress with white accessories. Mrs. Smith chose a blue lace frock with black accessories. They both wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the parish hall at the church.

For their wedding trip the newlyweds traveled to Canada. They are now making their home in Brookings. For her traveling attire the bride chose a black and white wool suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremony were the parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald True, all Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris and son, Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, all Gold Hill, Mrs. Jack Simcox, Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Nowak, Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Fabrick and son, Rogue River, and Gary Bowlin, Mount Angel.
