

ILLINOIS VALLEY Fall Style Show Planned

By HELEN BOTTEL
Cave Junction — Tentative plans for the Civic Women's league fall and winter style show were made at a meeting held Wednesday night at the home of Marcia Brown in Cave Junction.

The style show, an annual affair, is one of the highlights of the winter season, and will display costumes from most of the local shops. It is set for early November.

A special meeting of the club has been called for Thursday, Oct. 24, at 11 a.m. at the home of Eileen Quinn in O'Brien. Further arrangements for the show are to be made at the session to which members are asked to bring such lunches.

The linen basket, a club money making project, is being filled with homemade articles, and is to be put on display at Waldo store in O'Brien at the last of the month.

The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Bruner and family are houseguests at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Kingsbury at Kerby this week, while Mr. Bruner conducts an evangelistic mission at Immanuel Methodist church, Bruner and Kingsbury were former college classmates.

"Herbs" will be the topic for discussion at the Illinois Valley Garden club meeting to be held Friday, October 25 at the home of Mrs. Robert G. Smith. Mrs. Stephen E. Counts will be the speaker.

Local gardeners who plan to attend the Siskiyou District of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs Tuesday, Oct. 29, at the Fruitdale Grange hall, are asked to bring horticulture specimens for display. These should be either house or garden plants and should bear a label listing the name and exhibitor.

James C. Donahue of Klamath Falls will show colored slides of native waterfowl at the District meeting.

Floyd and Ray Prichett and Al Mellow brought back three good-sized bucks last week from a hunting trip in the Bly district.

Plans for the year's activities were made at the organizational meeting of the Stitches 'n' Rip club, held Wednesday afternoon at the home of 4-H Leader Mrs. Les Basham. Nine members were present.

Next session is set for after school, October 30.

At the Walter Hunting home at Siskiyou Mountain camp recently were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Beyers of Cleveland, Ohio. Hunting had not seen his nephew, Beyers, in 37 years.

Gordon Leonard bagged a buck having four points on one side, five on the other, on a recent hunt near Lakeview. On the trip with him were Clifford Phillips, who got a four pointer, Marshall Burrows, Henry Wurn, Maburn Campbell and Ted Hooney.

Guests this week at the home of Mrs. Gladys King were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larkin of Manhattan, Kans. Mrs. Larkin is Mrs. King's cousin.

A handicraft sale is planned by St. Patrick's of the Forest Catholic church for October 23 and 24 at the Illinois Valley Bakery building in the north end of Cave Junction.

Christmas gift items, ceramics, aprons and a number of other hand made items will be on display. Mrs. Marian DuBerke is chairman for the affair.

The Illinois Valley Bakery building is getting a new roof. Tony Stava has been hired for the job by owner Mrs. DuBerke.

Sally Clarke is recuperating from major surgery, performed last week at Josephine General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Boucher and family have moved into the U.S. Forest Service house at the Siskiyou Aerial project. It was formerly occupied by the Orville Loopers, who have moved to Redding. Boucher is a squad leader at the project.

Noelene Larda, who at 17 was the first girl ever to make a parachute jump in New Zealand, was a guest last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen at the Siskiyou Aerial project.

Miss Larda met the Allens through Jack Harter, a project squad leader who spent some time in New Zealand several years ago. She is planning to make her home in Canada.

A guest at the Women's Society of Christian Service Monday, October 14, Miss Larda described the customs and churches of her country.

In spite of flu, 16 children were examined at the Well Child Conference held last week at Evergreen school. Openings are available for the December clinic and appointments can be made by calling Mrs. James Allen at 0903 or Mrs. Robert Smith at 13702.

Named to the position of jailer in the sheriff's office of Del Norte county, Calif., is A. W. Siegelkoff of South Deer creek road, Selma. The retired Los Angeles city police officer will take over his duties immediately.

This is the third appointment of valley men to fill offices in Del Norte county. Walter Hunting is undersheriff there, and Don Holten, former Cave Junction police chief, is a deputy in

Air Raid Alert Sounds in Damascus

Damascus, Syria — A five-minute air raid alert sent soldiers scurrying to action stations and civilians to cover Friday.

Authorities said afterwards that unidentified planes were detected in the vicinity of the Syrian capital. It was the first such alert to have occurred during the present Syrian-Turkish crisis.

Alert sirens sounded shortly before Moslem Sabbath services were to begin.

Russian-built MIG15 jet fighters of the Syrian Air Force swooped overhead and soldiers ran to previously assigned stations.

Husky 2nd, an imported Argentine thoroughbred stallion owned by Mrs. Ellen Wood of the valley, was a recent winner in a race at the Fresno District fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Archer of Selma and the Rev. Robert Kingsbury of Immanuel Methodist church attended the Oregon Town and Country church conference at Oregon State college Oct. 15, 16 and 17.

The Rev. Kingsbury served on the planning committee for the conference and was master of ceremonies for the Youth Banquet Wednesday at which Mark Hatfield, Oregon secretary of state, was the principal speaker.

The 11 hunters who brought back 11 bucks from eastern Oregon during a week of hunting are Bob Miller and sons, Ted and Hank, of Kerby; a brother-in-law, Henry Carter, Roseburg; C. Wallace and sons, Loren and Marilyn of Selma; Glen and Lonnie Plumlee of Selma; Floyd Vaughn and Clyde Prevatt of Kerby.

Ed McDonald of O'Brien and his son, Chester, of Kerby, don't believe in wasting time. They drove over to Bly mountain Saturday afternoon, shot a doe and a four-point buck within 15 minutes and returned the same evening to dress out their kill.

Also lucky were Hubert Love and his son Bill of O'Brien, who arrived home Sunday from LaPine with a forked horn and a doe. With them on the trip were Bill's cousin, Gene Ley, a former valley resident now living at Medford, and Bill's young son, Patrick.

The three unexpectedly met an old hunting companion of the Loves, John Grubb, also out after a doe or a buck in the LaPine area. Before Grubb moved to Ashland, he and Bill Love made annual hunting trips either with bow and arrow or rifles, in eastern Oregon.

GOLD HILL Residents Return to Area

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—Many local residents have returned to their homes in the Gold Hill area following vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Dickinson arrived at their home on Sardine creek Oct. 17 from a six-week tour of several states. The travelers spent some time at Yellowstone National park, and visited relatives in Washington, Colorado and Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cogswell returned Oct. 21 to their home on Second ave. following a ten-day trip to California. They spent several days visiting in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abbott and daughters, Debbie and Julie at Chula Vista. A party was given, while the Cogswells were at the Abbott home, in honor of Julie's first birthday Oct. 15.

While in southern California, they visited his mother, Mrs. Margaret Cogswell, who is confined to a hospital in Los Angeles with a broken hip. She is well known in Gold Hill, having visited at the Cogswell's home many times.

En route home the Cogswells stopped for a visit with relatives in Downey, Oakland, and El Sobrante. They were also guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Parker at Santa Rosa. The Parkers are former Gold Hill residents.

Mrs. Floyd Taylor and son, Glen, and Mrs. Jack Arnold went to Idaho Oct. 17 where they visited relatives of Mrs. Taylor in Boise and Nampa until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boye and children, Patty and Bobby, and Arnold Boye returned to their home on highway 99 north Oct. 21 from eastern Oregon, following a five-day pheasant trip in Little valley. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Colby at Harper.

Attending the dinner besides the honored guests and their parents were Carol and Larry Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones and the children, Billy and Marie, all of Gold Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Chapman and children, Dennis and Linda, Dr. R. P. Mortenson from Medford, and the hosts.

Mrs. Lester Parker entertained at a party held after school Oct. 22 in honor of her daughter's ninth birthday. Games were played, and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the guests. They were Patty and Bobby Boye, Wanda Potts, Shirley Kell, Jackie Straus, Irita Taylor, Donna Mae Arbuckle, Crystal Litton, Joan Hilkey, Marie Forman, Wanda Munday, Ronda Rosecrance, Leona Blake, Mike Malery, Kirby Koopman and the honored guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parker were also hosts for a birthday dinner Tuesday evening, Oct. 22 in Linda's honor. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kell and Shirley and Dave Parker.

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gray, the evening of Oct. 17 to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Gray on Oct. 18 and their daughter Nancy's second birthday on Oct. 17. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray, Sardine creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Malone, old highway 99 south.

Mrs. Mabel Newnham is a patient in the Rogue Valley hospital in Medford, with injuries she suffered in an automobile accident Monday evening.

Bob Gray was honored on his birthday Oct. 23 when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray and his wives parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Malone dropped in with ice cream and cake to help him celebrate. Also present were his wife and their daughter, Nancy.

Arnold and Arthur went on to Ontario, where they spent a short while visiting with Bruce Bennett, who is manager of the Commercial Finance office there. Bruce is a former resident of Gold Hill.

Also returning to their home on Kanes creek Oct. 18 were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rosecrance, who had spent five days hunting near Gerber reservoir in eastern Oregon. Mrs. Nora Baker of Medford stayed at the Rosecrance home during their absence to care for Susie and Carol.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook arrived home Oct. 18 from a hunting trip to Silver lake in eastern Oregon.

Cook injured his shoulder in a fall while hunting on Foothills Creek Oct. 20, Mrs. Cook said.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell went to Placerville, Calif., Oct. 18 where they attended the wedding of their nephew, Rodney Butts, on Sunday, Oct. 20.

Miss Betty Ross became the bride of Rodney Butts in a ceremony held at 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 20, in the Federated church in Placerville. He attended the Gold Hill school for several years. Rodney is employed for the Placerville Fruit Growers and his bride works for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in Placerville. They went to Las Vegas for their honeymoon.

The Bells were house guests of his sister, Mrs. June Butts. They returned to Gold Hill Oct. 21.

Several birthday dinners and parties have been held this past week in Gold Hill.

A birthday dinner was given Sunday evening, Oct. 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Christensen on old highway 99 north to celebrate the birthdays of three of the Christensens' grandchildren. Honored guests were Curt Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson, Medford, who observed his first birthday Oct. 20; Patty Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Washburn, Gold Hill, was seven on Oct. 22 and Mike Johnson celebrated his fifth birthday, which is also on Oct. 22. Mike and Curt are brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Page were surprised recently when Mrs. Page's nephew, Jody Hensley, stopped for an overnight visit with them. He was enroute to southern California from his home in Waukegan, Wash. Hensley is serving with the Navy as an electronics engineer.

Mrs. Nora Wait received word recently of the death of Mrs. Gus Himmel of Salem. Mrs. Himmel was the former Grace Hicks of Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wharton, Medford, recently spent a day on Sardine creek gathering apples. They visited at the home of Mrs. Wharton's sisters, Mrs. Nora Wait and Mrs. Robert Sutherland.

Recent house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulson on Sardine creek were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chelgren and daughter, Miss Gail Chelgren, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Martensen and son, Jeff, all of Los Angeles.

Also spending a week at the Paulson home where Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brylla of Sonora, Calif. Mrs. Brylla is the former Harta Paulsen, Henry's sister.

Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray were Mr. and Mrs. E. DeGarmo of Central Point and their houseguests, Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Holland of Temple City, Calif.

Mrs. Minnie Kirk has returned to her home in Van Nuys, Calif., following a week's visit in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray. She also visited in Ashland at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Linsey Bratcher, and family.

Mrs. Gray entertained at a luncheon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Kirk. Other relatives attending were Mrs. Linsey Bratcher, Ashland, Mrs. James Wood and Mrs. Wesley Riley, both of Central Point, Mrs. Merlin Fagle, Medford, and Mrs. Roy Parmenter, recently of Medford. Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Fagle, and Mrs. Parmenter are sisters, and daughters of Mrs. Bratcher.

Mrs. Ferd Jones was hostess for the October meeting of the Gold Hill Garden club recently at her home on Sixth ave.

Members participated in an open discussion on winter care of plants to be left outdoors during the coming season. The care of geranium and fuchsias were discussed. Mrs. J. G. Kofahl presided at the panel, at which time proper storing and transplanting of bulbs were discussed.

Mrs. Roy Cameron provided a quiz for the afternoon's program. Mrs. Tony Ross received a rooted dahlia for answering the most questions correctly.

Mrs. Lloyd Dusenberry, flower chairman, reported on the get well cards she has sent during the past month.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIVE

HOME WORK

Nashville, Tenn. — When the dome on Tennessee's state capitol was built, the great grandfather of Gale Wilkins helped with the work. Recently the dome was torn down for rebuilding, and Gale's father had a hand in that.

Officers of the club have announced that the next meeting will be held Nov. 22 instead of the third Friday, Nov. 15, because this date is so close to the dinner which is to be given Nov. 16 by the Woman's Society of the Community Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wolff and children, Donna, Freida and Marvin, of Roseburg were week end guests recently in the home of her father, Charles F. Rosecrance, on Kanes creek. Mrs. Wolff is the former Millie Rosecrance. Other visitors at the Charles F. Rosecrance home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dowles and children, Marion and Lee, of Grants Pass. Mrs. Dowles is the former Betty Rosecrance. The Wolff and Dowles families also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rosecrance and daughters, Susie and Carol.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray had as their house guests recently Mr. and Mrs. Titus Martin of Sutherland.

Mrs. Donald Morrow, president of the Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club was hostess for the group at her home Monday, Oct. 21. Mrs. Jerry Herrington was cohostess.

Final plans were made for the club's participation in the Teacher's reception. Mrs. Morrow presided at the business session.

The November meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert McDaniel, vice president of the club, who lives in Central Point.

Mrs. Paul Molloy reported that $56 was raised toward the PTA budget by the coffee hour, which was held at her home recently.

Mrs. Molly was assisted by members of the Gold Hill Parent-Teacher association. They were Mrs. Melvin Johnson; Mrs. Edsall White; Mrs. Floyd Taylor, president of the unit; Mrs. Lester Wakeman; and Mrs. Georgia Wilson.
