

Area Chapter of Appraisers Society Is Being Formed

A Southern Oregon chapter, Society of Residential Appraisers, is being organized in this area, according to Walter Jones, Medford, temporary chairman.

The Southern Oregon Chapter will include professional appraisers, bankers, title insurance companies, realtors and salesmen, savings and loan officials, and others interested.

About 50 delegates from Salem, Roseburg, Coos Bay, Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford are expected at the first dinner meeting of the group at Henry's Broomer at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 12, Jones said. Speaker at the dinner will be the president of the Salem chapter, which is sponsoring organization of the Southern Oregon chapter.

Purpose of the society is improvement of real estate evaluation standards and professional competency. The society is divided into two classes, the senior ratings, or professional appraisers, and associate members, other groups or persons interested in joining. There are about 3,000 senior rating members in the United States and Canada.

William R. Kiernan of Roseburg is temporary secretary, and Everett Bartholomew, Medford, is temporary treasurer.

Hospital Ringleaders Removed To Prison

Medicine Lake, Wash. — (AP) — Ringleaders of Tuesday's revolt at Eastern State Hospital's security building were transferred to the State Penitentiary at Walla Walla Wednesday as officers began a room-by-room "shake-down."

Edwin Thomas and James Eiland, leaders of the uprising which lasted almost nine hours, were transferred on orders of Dr. Garrett Heyns, state director of institutions.

"These two may need treatment," Heyns said, "but they obviously don't fit into the treatment program at Eastern State."

He called the two men, both former state prison convicts involved in a riot there two years ago, neurotic but not psychotic.

Fourteen State Patrolmen and 10 sheriff's officers were conducting the "shakedown" search for any hidden weapons.

Michigan Governor Cleared by Kennedy

Washington — (AP) — The Senate Rackets Committee eyed labor policies of the Mennen company today, but its chief counsel absolved Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams of any responsibility for them.

Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the governor, a director and stockholder of the company, would not be called to testify at the committee's hearings "any more than we would call all the stockholders of Sears Roebuck to testify."

"We have no reason to believe that Gov. Williams knew anything about — or had any part in — the operations," Kennedy said.

PISTOL FIRE — Syracuse, N.Y. — (AP) — Two pistols can be dangerous. Firemen quickly doused the blaze after Michael Neely, three, laid his plastic revolver on the stove and the heated pistol fell to the linoleum floor, firing the linoleum.

Columbus, Ohio — (AP) — Gov. C. William O'Neill Wednesday called on all of the state's publicity writers, whose annual salaries total $139,000, to tell them how they could improve their work and relations with the press. The meeting was closed to the press.
