

BASEBALL WAS NEVER LIKE THIS—Fred Haney, manager of the Milwaukee Braves and "Manager of the Year," shows Devra Korwin how to hit a homer. Devra is the dancing star of the Broadway production "Damn Yankees" which is opening at the Riviera in Las Vegas, Nev. Haney is on hand to join other Braves and Yankees for the Western debut of the musical comedy.

Multnomah Deputy Denied Financial Aid

Portland — Multnomah county commissioners Thursday refused financial aid to Deputy Sheriff George Minelli for costs of defending himself against vice indictments. Minelli was indicted by a grand jury in connection with the part he played in investigating vice activities in Portland. The charges were subsequently dropped but Minelli incurred $5000 in legal expenses. He asked for county help to pay the fees since the charges were in connection with his duties as a deputy sheriff.

Lebanon Mayor's Wife Dies in Fall

Lebanon — Mrs. Grace Scroggin, 52, wife of Mayor Scroggin of Lebanon, was injured fatally late Thursday when she fell 15 feet from the ledge of an apartment building into the car lot below. Police said Mrs. Scroggin apparently had left her purse containing the key to her apartment in her car, and crawled through a double door at the end of the hall to cross a narrow ledge leading to a window of her apartment when she slipped and fell.

Teamster Findings Said Unjustified

Washington — Counsel for the Teamsters Union denounced as entirely unjustified Thursday recent trial findings that teamsters officers conspired to "rig" their election at the union's September convention at Miami Beach.

Attorney Martin F. O'Donoghue of Washington told an appeals court panel that the findings throw him "out of court" even before a trial can be had on the charges.

President-elect James R. Hoffa and other members of the union's lame duck Executive Board met to discuss the union's suspension by the AFL-CIO Executive Council. A source familiar with the board's operations said it had three choices — to give in, quit the federation, or do nothing.

Roseburg Boy Killed In Bike-Auto Mishap

Roseburg — Richard Oliver, 12, on his way to neighboring houses on a Halloween trick or treat mission, was injured fatally Thursday night when his bike was hit by a car on Diamond Lake blvd. east of Roseburg. He died shortly after arriving at a Roseburg hospital.

Sheriff Ira Byrd said the bike was struck by a car operated by Selmer L. Looney, Roseburg. The sheriff said Looney told him he was heading east on his way home two miles east of Roseburg when the boy on the bike loomed in front of him. Looney said he tried to avoid a crash, went into a ditch and wrecked the car. Looney was unhurt.

Richard was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oliver of Roseburg.

COP SHOT
Bethesda, Md. — Police said a 72-year-old man called Thursday night for protection from "prowlers." When patrolman Richard T. Russell arrived at the house, police said, the elderly man stepped from behind a bush and shot Russell in the leg.

Air Force Forced To Make Further Cuts To Keep Missile Program at Full Steam

Washington — The Air Force, determined to keep missile and space procurement programs operating full blast, was forced today into making further sacrifices in less crucial activities.

The cutbacks, coming on top of recent economy reductions, are necessary to make up increased costs in missile-plane purchases of $800 million since last January.

An Air Force spokesman disclosed that the rise, amounting to almost 10 per cent of the entire program, was due to higher labor and material costs. Part also resulted from too low estimates in the budget President Eisenhower submitted to Congress at the beginning of the year.

Costs High
The cost of the program now totals $9,600,000,000—more than half the entire Air Force budget of $18,200,000,000.

Eisenhower, meanwhile, huddled with his cabinet today for what was expected to be another high-level review of America's course in meeting Russia's challenge in the space-missile era.

Scio Man Drowns in South Santiam River

Lebanon — Edward H. Trolinger, 42, drowned while trying to remove irrigation equipment from the South Santiam river near his home near Scio, Coroner Glenn Huston said today.

Huston said the drowning which occurred Wednesday, climaxed a series of misfortunes to the Trolinger family in a two-year period. Earlier Trolinger's father drowned, his small daughter was injured fatally when struck by a truck and the family home was destroyed by fire.

P. Anderson (D-N.M.) chairman of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, raised serious doubts about the wisdom of Eisenhower's proposed plan to share U.S. atomic and weapons secrets with Britain and other NATO nations.

Anderson said the U.S. should "work with them in every possible way." But he wants to make certain no U.S. secrets find their way into Soviet hands.

The new Air Force cutbacks followed a number of economy moves this year. These included elimination of a number of jet fighter and reserve groups, stretch-outs in jet plane and B52 heavy bomber production and a reduction in civilian employment.

Defense officials have approved a three-point plan for making up the $800 million Air Force procurement deficit.

A further slowdown or cutback in a number of activities to make more funds available for missile and plane purchases. —Slowing down payments for so-called "cost plus" contracts. —Addition of $300,000,000 to the Air Force budget for procurement, ordered by Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy last Tuesday.

Former Engineer Here Gets Salem Position

Salem — Jack A. Rowland, former Medford locating engineer for the Oregon state highway commission, has been promoted to chief locating engineer for the commission.

Rowland will assume the new position when Chief Maintenance Engineer E. A. Collier retires on Nov. 1, according to the commission.

Rowland joined the highway department in 1946 when he graduated from Oregon State college. Between the period as locating engineer in Medford and his current promotion, Rowland has been working as the locating engineer for the commission at Roseburg.

Zhukov Believed Out of Party Post

London — Reliable reports from Moscow said, Thursday it now is almost certain that Marshal Georgi Zhukov has been dropped from his Communist party posts following his release as Soviet defense minister.

An official announcement from Moscow on this may be imminent, the reports said, or it could be delayed for up to several days.

But there was no indication thus far of Zhukov's new job, which Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev said Tuesday would correspond to the famed soldier's "experience and qualifications."

According to the reliable reports, the Central Committee of the Communist party, after lengthy debate, decided to drop Zhukov from the 15-member Presidium to which he had been elected only last July.

GOOD SAMARITAN
Mobile, Ala. — A striking bus driver interrupted a city-wide bus strike Thursday to pick up one regular rider as usual. Oliver Blue, a blind concession stand operator, didn't know the strike was on and showed up with his seeing-eye dog at the bus stop. Minutes later, driver Roy Holland came along and picked them up "just to make sure he and his dog had a ride."

Veto of Trust Deed Measure Overridden

Salem — The state Senate Thursday overrode the veto of Gov. Robert D. Holmes of the trust deed bill (HB 172) passed during the regular legislative session.

voting to sustain the governor's veto were Sens. Phil Brady, Portland; Alfred H. Corbett, Portland; Dan Dimick, Roseburg; Walter J. Pearson, Portland; Monroe Sweetland, Milwaukie; and President of the Senate Boyd Overhulse, Madras, all Democrats.

Sen. Ward Cook, Portland Democrat, in the principal talk in favor of the bill, held that passage of the bill over the governor's veto was important to Oregon economy. More than 30 states have adopted trust deed laws.

Monaghan Ineligible For Committee Duty

Salem — Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton said today that when Rep. Tom Monaghan of Clackamas county resigned as a state representative he also became ineligible to serve on the legislative interim committee on problems of retarded children. Thornton said that the vacancy could be filled by House Speaker Pat Dooley. The opinion was requested by Sen. Carl H. Francis, Dayton Republican.
