Newlyweds Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alfred Griffiths Jr. now at home at 517 Benson street, Medford, after they returned last week from a wedding trip along the Washington coast. The couple were married Friday, October 18, at four o'clock in the afternoon in Meeker Chapel of First Methodist church in Medford.

Mrs. Griffiths is the former Arlene Ruth Hooper, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hooper, 1028 East Eleventh street, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Griffiths, 505 Fourth street, Phoenix.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by relatives and close friends. Baskets of white, yellow and pink chrysanthemums decorated the chapel for the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length white lace and net gown and carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Miss Judy Ann Hooper attended her sister. She wore a coral colored taffeta net frock with a bow detail in back and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Eugene Gregory Orr served as best man and Wendall Clausen and Brison Stovall, Phoenix, acted as groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hooper chose a blue crepe dress. Mrs. Griffiths also wore a blue dress and they both had pink nosegay corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Bea Griffiths, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Peg Keever poured the coffee and Miss Janie Guetzloff presided at the punch bowl.

For her traveling attire on the wedding trip the bride wore a blue sheath dress with white accessories and a white orchid. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed as a bookkeeper by Hooper's Radiator Service. The bridegroom attended Phoenix High school and is employed as a mechanic for Morse Motors.

They returned with penguin feather souvenirs, sealskin key cases, scrolls naming them "Queen of the Antarctic Seabees" and cards giving them lifetime membership in the "Royal Order of the Deep Freeze."

This is the "warm" season for the antarctic. It was only 16 below zero when the plane landed. But the two girls wore navy-issue cold weather gear anyway: padded jackets and trousers, parkas with fur hoods, windbreakers, padded gloves, high boots, wool stockings.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weber, who were sweethearts 63 years ago, were married October 26 at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. James Lillie, 1174 Court street, Medford. The bride is 77—the bridegroom 85 years old. The two met again last summer when the bride, then Mrs. Mary May Lunceford, was visiting in Montana.

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

Mrs. Mary May Lunceford became the bride of Louis Weber Saturday, October 26, in a ceremony held at the home of the daughter of the bride Mrs. James Lillie, 1174 Court street, Medford.

Dr. George G. Roseberry of First Methodist church officiated at the three o'clock afternoon ceremony attended by 15 relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride and Mr. Weber, who is from Harlowton, Mont., were friends 63 years ago. They met again only last summer while the bride was visiting relatives in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gerling of Grants Pass, friends of the couple, served as best man and matron of honor.

Present for the ceremony were four of Mrs. Weber's daughters. They were Mrs. Ross Pierce, Port Orchard, Wash.; Mrs. Glenn Sollars, North Bend; Mrs. V. O. Seals, Los Angeles; and Mrs. Lillie. Her son, William Lunceford, Harlowton, Mont., was unable to attend.

Others present were Mr. Soklar, Mr. Pierce, Mr. Lillie, Mrs. Wayne Birkland, granddaughter of the bride; Mrs. James E. Lillie, daughter-in-law of the Lillies; Mrs. Bud Lowen, and Mrs. Nettie Birkland. Also attending were the two sons of Mrs. Wayne Birkland, great-grandchildren of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. A wedding cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Birkland for her grandmother was served. Chrysanthemums decorated the home for the wedding and reception.

The newlyweds are making their home in Medford.

Queen Elizabeth Sets Fashion for Diamond Wearing

New York—One of the most significant fashion trends sparked by Queen Elizabeth's recent visit to this country is the current interest in the use of brilliant jewelry for daytime wear, the Fashion Coordination institute reports.

Inspired by the flashing diamonds the queen wears on even the most casual daytime ensembles, American women are taking a new daylight look at the pins and brooches they have traditionally saved for after-dark occasions, according to the institute.

Diamonds, real or simulated, are sure to appear increasingly on the easy clothes of today as American women copy a simple trick of regal elegance, by adding a sparkling pin to a shoulder or neckline. Brilliant pins or brooches will also go to American heads in a literal sense, the institute reports, as women again imitate the queenly trick of using a sparkling pin to accent a simple hat.

This new look of daytime jewelry glitter will be increasingly important in the months to come, the institute predicts. Inspired by Paris, whose sure fashion sense was profoundly affected by the queen's visit there, designers are showing flashing brilliants with all the newest resort clothes.

It's time to take the diamonds out of the vault—whether it is a small pin or a magnificent brooch—or copy the beauty of these priceless stones in one of the more inexpensive costume pieces and wear these glittering beauties right out in the open—at high noon—for a new queenly look of daytime elegance.

Guild to Meet

St. Elizabeth's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet Friday November 8, at the church. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. with the monthly meeting of the guild following.

Eagle Point PTA To Give Dinner Friday Evening

Eagle Point—Professional chefs will prepare a spaghetti dinner Friday, November 8, in the Eagle Point school cafeteria. Serving will be from 6 to 8 p.m. This dinner will be the one fund-raising event during the year for the Eagle Point Elementary Parent-Teacher association.

Tickets are on sale at Olsen's Confectionery store in Eagle Point, and are available from all members of the executive committee. Tickets will also be sold at the door that night.

Don Pulley, chief cook at the Veterans' Administration Domiciliary, Camp White, and his two assistants, C. Miller and N. H. Chapman, are volunteering their services. The three men are fathers of students attending the Eagle Point schools and will prepare the meal in the school cafeteria. Harold Jaffrey, assistant manager of the domiciliary, also has children attending the school and was appointed chairman of the event. Mr. Jaffrey has stated there will be entertainment provided throughout the evening at no extra charge.

Program Planned On House Plants

Phoenix-House plants will be the topic for the monthly meeting of Phoenix Garden Club to be held at the Community hall in Phoenix Friday November 8 at 1 p.m.

The program for "Care and Culture of House Plants," will be a panel discussion under the direction of Mrs. Vaughn Quackenbush, with a question and answer period to follow. Members are asked to bring any unusual house plants they have growing, and discuss them.

Hostesses for the meeting are H. A. DuBouque, Mrs. E. G. Coleman, Mrs. L. O. Caster and Mrs. Thomas Carter.

Book Club

Contemporary Book club will meet Wednesday, November 6, at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Farrell, 1540 East Main street.

Methodists Plan Bazaar On Tuesday

An "International Bazaar" at First Methodist church, Tuesday, November 5, will include a booth on the United Nations staffed by members of the local chapter. The bazaar is sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service as a benefit for the church building fund, according to Mrs. I. G. Rankin, president of the society and chairman of the event. Hours will be 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Plans were announced for a luncheon to be served under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Poage. The public is invited to this luncheon which will be served continuously from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Beginning at 5:30 p.m., Mrs. George Lawless will direct the serving of ham and turkey dinners with special dishes for grade school and for pre-school children.

Mrs. Rankin invites all friends to attend and to view the handmade gift articles that will be displayed in 14 booths decorated to present as many countries of the world. The Alaskan booth will feature Christmas novelties, including table and tree decorations. The booth from old England will have 400 approved children's books for sale, ranging in price from 15 cents to $3.50. The children's room, decorated to represent China, will have many items priced at five and ten cents for the youngsters to purchase. Included will be gaily aprons with sequins for the young ones to attach to suit themselves and "do it yourself" kits of doll clothes.

A free nursery will be provided during the day and throughout the dinner hour for parents who wish to leave pre-school children while they shop.

October Session Held By Rogue-Elk Unit

Rogue Elk Extension unit held the October meeting at the home of Mrs. H. R. Corliss.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Corliss, Mrs. Harry Nicholson and Mrs. Kenneth Lacy.

The demonstration was given by Mrs. Albert Esten.

A report was given on the election of officers and the progress of the 4-H group, the Elk Trail Forestry Squirrels.
