Oregon State Eleven Solid Choice Over Californians

Corvallis—Oregon State, still nursing title hopes in the Pacific Coast conference, flies to San Francisco this afternoon for Saturday's game against the oft-beaten California Golden Bears. Oregon State, with two PCC defeats, has only an outside chance to regain possession of its undisputed title but a collapse by Oregon could put the Beavers into at least a tie. Each team has three conference games left.

Coach Tommy Prothro's team is a solid favorite over California despite having several men on the crippled list.

Nurse Injuries

Nursing injuries of one type or another were end Dwayne Fournier, tackle Ted Bates, half-back Earnel Durden, guards Jim Brackins and Ladd McGowan, and Jim Stinnette and John Horillo. All are making the trip south, but Stinnette and Horillo don't plan to suit up.

Word from California says the Golden Bears are planning to start their second team Saturday. It looked impressive in last week's 16-14 loss to UCLA.

Tourney Starts At Long Beach

Long Beach, Calif.—The $11,500 Long Beach Open, last stop for the touring golf professionals in the West this year, got underway here today with 149 shotmakers teeing off on the short but exacting Lakewood Country club course.

Such well-known golfing names as Gene Littler, three-time Tournament of Champions winner; former National Open king Lloyd Mangrum, former World champion Bob Toski, Jay Hebert, Bo Wininger, Ed (Porky) Oliver and Billy Casper will be among the 149 slated to tee off in the 54-hole event that ends Sunday.

BOWLING SERIES SET

Chicago — The world-series of bowling, the Invitational Match Game championships, will be held at the Chicago coliseum, beginning on Dec. 4. Top professionals from both the men's and women's ranks will compete in the nine-day tourney.

Cisco Andrade Scores Knockout

Fresno, Calif.—Lightweight Cisco Andrade of Compton, Calif., proved that his broken wrist was well healed Thursday night by scoring a technical knockout over Jorge Macias in the ninth round of their scheduled 10-round at Fresno Memorial Auditorium.

Andrade broke his wrist during a bout in Phoenix, Ariz., earlier this year and had to undergo an operation. Thursday night's battle gave the wrist its first test.

Andrade had Macias of San Jose, Calif., under control at all times. He dropped Macias for a no-count in the third. Referee Frank Manfredo stopped the bout at 2:14 of the ninth when it was obvious Macias could no longer take punishment.

It takes skill!

It's one thing to produce a fine whiskey when price is no object... but to produce a whiskey that's smooth as Kessler at the price of Kessler—that takes a skill born of generations of experience.
