New York — Archie Moore, the Old Man River of the ring, is bouncing around the country today picking up soft touches in a campaign aimed at wiping out the remainder of his light heavyweight challengers and getting another shot at heavyweight king Floyd Patterson.

Archie, according to the record book, will be 41 in December. There are those who consider this to be not only a strain of credence but also the under-achievement of the century.

Yet Archie has no thought of calling it a career and, according to manager Charley Johnston, seems likely to go on fighting until he is 60.

Not Expecting Too Much

"Considering the type of fighters we have around and about today," Johnston analyzes, "that should not be expecting too much from a fellow of Archie's talent."

Meanwhile, it can be revealed that Archie is not the poorhouse case which, when he was seeking a shot at Patterson, he was supposed to be. That pose was all a matter of economics.

Code Might Be Relaxed At San Jose

San Jose, Calif. — President John T. Wahlquist of San Jose State college says his school is "examining the possibilities" of easing its athletic code.

Wahlquist made this statement Thursday in the face of a demand by a local citizens committee for the Spartans to adopt a looser code of aid to athletes if they are to continue scheduling such comparatively big time powers as Stanford, Washington State, Oregon and College of the Pacific.

San Jose State has lost five of seven games this season and isn't expected to have much of a chance tonight when it plays COP here in a homecoming game.

"I have been meeting with the faculty where we discussed getting permission of the Council of State College Presidents to ease up on some restriction," Wahlquist said. "At the same time, we would like to join the Pacific Coast Conference — but we have to be invited."

A Little Wearing

"I admit that one of the rules — which forbids training tables — can be a little wearing," Wahlquist said. "But we are gentlemen of our word."

Asked if it were not inconsistent for San Jose State to be adhering to such strict rules while playing schools with a more liberal policy, Wahlquist said:

"Well, some of those games were scheduled as a result of pressure by the same group which now wants us to abandon the council's athletic code.

"The rules must be adhered to but we are seeking to have them liberalized."

HOCKEY
NATIONAL LEAGUE
By UNITED PRESS

The Montreal Canadiens moved back into a tie with the New York Rangers for first place in the National Hockey league today, while ageless Maurice Richard pulled ahead in the individual scoring race.

Richard scored one goal and assisted on two tallies by his younger brother, Henri, Thursday night as the Canadiens whipped the Detroit Red Wings, 6-0. The Rocket now has 22 points, one more than Henri.

Two goals by Billy Harris carried the Toronto Maple Leafs to a 5-3 victory over the Boston Bruins. Bronco Horvath also scored twice for the Bruins, who suffered their seventh loss in their last eight games.

Baseballers Come To No Conclusions

New York — Representatives of the Giants, Dodgers, Pacific Coast League, American Association and Texas League will meet again here next Tuesday in another effort to solve the realignment problems caused by the shift of the two major league clubs to California.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick presided Thursday at a four-hour secret meeting of all concerned in the franchise shifts, and then in a statement to newsmen said that "no conclusions were reached and no definite action taken."

Frick's statement did not mention the cash indemnities to be paid by the Dodgers and Giants to the Pacific Coast League.

It had been believed that this was perhaps the major problem, for it was reported the major leaguers had offered only $50,000 each, a sum which PCL President Leslie O'Connor said was "humiliating." Some PCL owners mentioned million-dollar indemnities, and hinted civil court action.

The presence of George Trautman, president of the minor leagues, President Ed Doherty of the American Association and President Dick Butler of the Texas League indicated that the conferees realize that realignment of the PCL almost certainly will involve cities now in other leagues.

Price Set High

The price, as for Anthony, is a $100,000 guarantee.

But you can't say that Archie's mouthpiece, Johnston, isn't helping to make it look like a solid go.

"Spieser has a lot of ability," Charley insisted. "He didn't want to fight Anthony, wanting instead to merely wait his turn at Moore, and so he wasn't in shape for that bout. He should be formidable."

So formidable, in fact, that Johnston is looking toward the time when Patterson will be forced to invite Archie for a return engagement.

"Eddie Machen is the only one left for Patterson to box," Johnston explained. "Archie, of course, has knocked over just about all the other heavyweights around. After all, Moore has fought heavyweights 75 per cent of the time in the last 15 years. The light heavies didn't want anything to do with him. So eventually they'll have to come to us again."

If this seems to destroy Johnston's early pitch on the Spieser fight, you're right. But, as the man explained, you can't expect too much these days for a mere $100,000.

OSC Admits Pilfering of O at Eugene

Corvallis — Oregon State admitted today it had pilfered the giant "O" of the University of Oregon from Skinner's Butte in Eugene.

Charles Dunn, OSC student body president, made the admission in a challenge to the University to put up the "O" as a trophy for the winner of the annual Oregon-Oregon State football game. Otherwise, hinted Dunn, the big "O" might remain where it is hidden.

Not Too Happy

James Lynch, Oregon student body president, wasn't too happy with the suggestion, saying "perhaps OSC should make the homecoming court a revolving trophy."

Last Friday, after the disappearance of the "O," the OSC Homecoming queen and two princesses also disappeared. It turned out later four University of Oregon lettermen had "kidnaped" them.

But the girls were returned to OSC in time for the rally that night.

Oregon's "O" is still missing. Lynch said he would confer with student leaders to determine what action should be taken.

Speedboat Record Set

Lake Coniston, Eng. — Donald Campbell, who set a new water speed record of 239.065 miles per hour Thursday aboard his jet-powered Bluebird, began preparations today for an expected assault against the 290 m.p.h. barrier sometime next year.

Bluebird, powered with a 4,000 pound thrust engine, skimmed a measured one-kilometer (0.621 miles) course at 260.107 m.p.h. in the first part of the record-breaking run Thursday. Because the boat's nose got dangerously light at that speed, Campbell slowed down to 218.024 h.p. on the runback.

The two-way average wiped out the former mark, also set by Campbell, of 225.63 over the same lake on Sept. 19, 1956.

DROPPED TO BEST DAD

Detroit — Three and one-half-year old Carrie Ane, daughter of Detroit Lions tackle Charlie Ane, changed her mind about her father after the Lions dropped two straight games in the National Football League this season. "She used to call me the 'greatest football player in the world' but changed it to 'the best daddy in the world' after we lost to San Francisco and Los Angeles," Ane commented.

The State Fair of Texas at Dallas is the largest annual exposition in Texas in terms of attendance.

Duck Victory Would Virtually Cinch Bowl

San Francisco — Oregon's high-balling Ducks were a 12-point favorite today to knock off Washington Saturday at Portland's Multnomah stadium and virtually cinch their first Rose Bowl bid in 37 years.

While the Webfoots and Huskies tangle in a regionally televised game, Washington State will make a desperate attempt to stay on the pace as it plays UCLA at Spokane.

The Cougars go into the tilt two full games behind Oregon in the small field of Rose Bowl eligibles and also are underdogs to a surprisingly sharp UCLA squad.

It's Stanford at Southern California in a battle of the beaten. Oregon State is at California in another PCC tilt that only will be carried out for the spirit of the thing. Both Cal and Stanford are hopelessly behind in the Rose Bowl race and neither Southern California nor Oregon State could go even if they were winners. The Trojans are banned from the saucer along with Washington and UCLA for PCC infractions while Oregon State can't return because it was there last January.

San Jose State, which has the alumni howling over a dismal showing this year, is expected to drop another before the old grads' homecoming Saturday night in the prune belt.

Idaho is at Utah State in another clash involving a PCC team while Fresno State, also getting its lumps, hosts Brigham Young.

Red Raiders Take On Ramblers Saturday

Ashland — Southern Oregon college footballers face a light workout this evening as they do the final girding for the last home game of the season at Fuller field.

The Red Raiders of the Rogue are hosts to the Seattle Ramblers at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Made up of ex-collegiate and ex-prep stars, the Ramblers come to Ashland unbeaten and are favored to trim the Raiders. The Seattle club holds a one-sided win over Oregon College of Education which Southern Oregon managed to nose 21 to 19.

Ankle Turned

Coach Akins reported quarterback Larry Yarnell sidelined with a turned ankle and End Jerry Darland out with a lacerated chin.

Possible starters for SOC are Jim McAbee and Chuck Crandall, ends; Troy Bellah and Herb Colley, tackles; Modesto Jimenez and Bud Brittsan, guards; Phil Sword, center, and Lance Lock, Ron and Larry Maurer and Eldon Francis, backs.

For the Ramblers it may be Dale Lamb and Len Randal, ends; Bill Castrow and Larry Dalzell, tackles; Bill Wilson and Nat Davis, guards; Ron Thoreson, center, and Frank Bly, Ed Johnson, Paul Adams and Don Larkin, backs.

Warriors Subdue Knickerbockers

By UNITED PRESS

The Philadelphia Warriors, who are bidding their time until Tom Gola returns from the Army, are nevertheless holding down second place in the Eastern division of the National Basketball association.

The Warriors knocked off New York, 113-101, in Thursday night's only scheduled game to give them a 3-2 season's record and a half-game edge over the third-place Knicks. Neil Johnston enjoyed his best night of the season and popped in 34 points for the winners.

Six teams will be in action tonight as the Knicks travel to Syracuse, Philadelphia meets Minneapolis at Hershey and Cincinnati entertains Boston.

6th Straight Win Aim of UO Gridders

Portland — Oregon's amazing Webfoots go after their sixth straight Pacific Coast Conference football victory here Saturday in a regionally-televised game against the hungry Washington Huskies.

A victory would give Oregon at least a tie for the PCC title and would practically sew up the Ducks' first Rose Bowl bid since 1919, since Oregon has beaten the other three bowl eligible teams.

Oregon has been the surprise team of the conference this season. The Ducks were picked by many to finish as low as seventh place. But sophomores have helped fill the gap and Oregon's first unit has had a remarkable season.

Oregon has specialized in winning the close ones and not even the most zealous Duck fans expects a walkaway against Washington. The Huskies have won only one game, from Oregon State, and have lost five and tied one. But the potential is there and in fullback Jimmy Jones the Huskies have a guy they're touting for all-America.

A crowd of 30,000 or more is expected despite the telecast. The weather should be rainless.

Automobile Tax Proposed in Portland

Portland — A proposal that the city of Portland levy a $1 tax on automobiles to finance new equipment for city and suburban public transportation systems was advanced Thursday by R. L. Clark, former president of the Rose City Transit Company.

Clark told the Oregon Building Congress that such a levy would raise $200,000 a year to buy modern air-conditioned buses for express runs to the suburbs. He said the city could buy the buses and lease them to the operating company.

Molotov Celebrates In Outer Mongolia

Tokyo — V. M. Molotov, the former Russian premier who was ousted from his post as foreign minister last summer, celebrated the 40th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution in Ulan Bator, capital of Outer Mongolia.

A Peiping radio broadcast said the fallen Soviet leader praised Russian scientific and technical achievements and the "leadership of the Communist Party."

Oregon adopted a constitutional amendment June 2, 1902, providing for the initiative and referendum and this set a pattern for similar laws in other states.
