

Huskies Stall Oregon Duck Bowl Dreams Special, 13-6

By HOWARD APPLEGATE
Portland, Ore. — Huskies' Washington's fired up Huskies shook Oregon's Webfoots out of their Rose Bowl dreams with a 13-6 football upset Saturday before 30,010 fans and a regional television audience.

It was the first loss for Oregon in six Pacific Coast conference games. But Oregon, despite the defeat, remained in first place in the PCC and can still go to Pasadena by beating Southern California or Oregon State in its final two games.

Washington, winner of only one game before Saturday, turned an intercepted pass into its first touchdown and then marched 67 yards in the final quarter for the punter.

Oregon, trying to gain its first Rose Bowl trip in 38 years but plagued by injuries, came alive in the second half and appeared on its way to possible victory.

Trailing 7-0, the Webfoots scored just two minutes into the second half on a 77-yard pass play from quarterback Jack Crabtree to end Pete Welch, who took the ball on the Washington 43 and raced over. But fullback Jimmy Jones, one of many Washington heroes today, broke through to block Jack Morris' extra point try.

The Webfoots then came back again and drove to the Washington 16 but were held. Near the end of the game Oregon again drove far downfield to the Huskies 16 but an intercepted pass by Duane Lowell spoiled Oregon's last hope.

The first Washington touchdown came as a result of spirited defensive play. End Bruce Claridge broke through to hit Charlie Tourville's pass into the air and center Mary Bergman made a leaping interception on the Oregon 26. Quarterback Bobby Dunn went off right tackle from three yards out for the touchdown and then converted.

The Huskies, who had beaten only defending PCC champ Oregon State in a dismal season until today, went 67 yards on the ground in 13 plays for the final score in the fourth period with quarterback Al Ferguson scoring.

Oregon was hurt on the opening kickoff when end Ron Stover, the Oregon pass catcher from Vallejo, Calif., was knocked unconscious and did not return to the game.

Jim Shanley, Oregon's great halfback, became the Webfoot's leading rusher of all time although he didn't have one of his better running days. Shanley carried the ball ten times for 12 yards for a total of 1,740 for the season, passing George Bell's 1947-48-49 mark of 1,729 yards.

Rams Given Edge Over 49ers Today

Los Angeles — Local odds-makers Saturday tagged the Los Angeles Rams as 3-point favorites in their clash here today with the high-flying San Francisco 49ers.

The home team were picked to repeat their dandy 2-4 record as compared with the 49ers who led the western division of the National football league with a 5-1 record. This week's picking stemmed from the fact the San Francisco squad squeaked to its last three wins in the final minute of play.

In their two previous meets with the 49ers this year, the Rams routed their arch rivals, 58-27, in a pre-season game, but were shaded 23-20 in the league game at San Francisco.

Forester To Talk To Waltonians On Monday Night

Howard G. Hopkins, Rogue River National forest official, will address the Jackson County chapter of the Isaac Walton league at 8 p. m. on Monday, Nov. 11, in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel.

Election of officers also will be held.

Hopkins is a staff assistant to Forest Supervisor Carroll E. Brown. He has charge of timber management, recreational use and other land activities in the forest. He will talk on recreational use of the national forest and on correlation of recreation and wildlife use with timber management. He will have slides of forest activities.

A district forest ranger at Waldport for 12 years before his transfer to the Rogue post last March, he is a former president and board member of the Waldport Waltonian chapter.

Seixas Rolls Into Quarter Finals

Sydney, Australia — Vic Seixas, 34, the oldest singles player on the U.S. Davis Cup team, gained the quarter-finals at the new South Wales tennis championships Saturday by defeating Australia's young Rod Laver, 6-3, 6-4, 6-8, 6-2.

Three of Seixas' younger teammates—Herb Flam, Ron Holmberg and Mike Green—were defeated in other third-round matches by Australian cup hopefuls.

BELOIT EYES CONFERENCE

Beloit, Wis. — Dr. Miller Upton, president of Beloit College, said in a statement to the Beloit College paper Friday that the college is "vitaly interested" in reentering the Midwest Conference. Beloit was voted out of the conference in 1951 but since has rearranged its athletic program to conform with conference requirements.

Rooks Win; TD Scored By Plumley

Corvallis — The Oregon State Rooks crushed the Oregon Frosh 20-0 here Friday in a football game plagued by fumbles by both teams.

Roger Johnson, prep all-star from Coos Bay, set up the first Rook score halfway in the first period with a 37-yard run to the Oregon two. Charles Marshall went over two plays later, with Jim Walker making the conversion.

Harbin To Miller

In the second quarter Earl Harbin passed 17 yards to halfback Ron Miller in the end zone. Walker converted again. OSC threatened to score twice in the third period but fumbled three times.

In the last quarter, after the two teams traded fumbles on the Oregon 10-yard line, Neil Plumley, tackle from Medford, grabbed another Oregon Frosh fumble on the three and plunged over for the final touchdown.

Darryl Eisner, quarterback from Santa Maria, Calif., led the scoreless Oregon Frosh attack.

Battle Dance Wins Race In San Francisco Mile

Albany, Calif. — Even favorite Battle Dance wore down North End in the final sixteenth Saturday to win the $16,025 San Francisco mile at Golden Gate Fields by a half length.

Longshot North End took the lead on the inside at the club house turn while Battle Dance forcing the pace. Henry Moreno got the winner up in mid stretch and was pulling away at the wire.

Dodger Ticket Orders May Force Team Move

Los Angeles — The huge demand for season tickets may result in the Los Angeles Dodgers playing all their home games in Memorial Coliseum.

Harold Lefty Phillips, temporarily in charge of the team's local affairs, said Friday the bumper crop of requests all but eliminated Wrigley Field as a park large enough to accommodate all the expected fans.

"If the Dodgers play 50 or 60 of their 77 home games in the Coliseum next season, they may as well play them all there," Phillips said.

He said the response from fans had been far better "than any of us hoped."

Indians Pile Big Win Over Southern Cal

Los Angeles — The quarterback wizardry of Jack Douglas led Stanford university to its most one-sided victory in history over Southern California Saturday as the Indians ran up a 35-7 win before 51,923 fans in Memorial Coliseum.

Douglas mixed his passes with pitchouts to fullbacks Chuck Shea and Rick McMillan and halfbacks Jim Byrer to overwhelm Southern California in the second and third periods.

For a brief few minutes in the second period when quarterback Willie Wood sparked Southern Cal to its touchdown, the Trojans appeared to be able to handle the Indians, but when Stanford began rolling it was only a question of how big the score would be.

Today's win surpassed Stanford's previous high of 34 points against Southern California in 1949.

Stover Hurt In Huskies' Grid Clash

Portland, Ore. — Oregon end Ron Stover, knocked unconscious on the first play of today's Washington 13-6 upset over the Webfoots, probably will be able to play against Southern California next week.

Stover, of Vallejo, Calif., was carried from the field after the kickoff and sat on the bench near Dr. George Guldager, the team physician, throughout the first half. He did not return to action for protection against possible serious injury, but after the game Oregon officials said he probably would be able to play next Saturday.

Stanford Rumors Fill Air About Taylor Promotion

Los Angeles — Stanford football coach Chuck Taylor Saturday denied rumors that he would retire as head Indian mentor after this season to succeed Al Masters as athletic director.

Masters has been in poor health for some time and Taylor, head man at Stanford since 1951, has been subjected to criticism after winding up sixth in the Pacific Coast conference last year and posting only a 4-3 record so far this season.

The rumors were given impetus in the north by reports that Stanford President Wallace Sterling would neither confirm nor deny such speculation.

But Taylor stated flatly he had no plans to give up his coaching job.

The reports noted that Taylor has stated in the past he doesn't regard coaching as a permanent career and one day wanted to "quit this crazy business."

The big game population of the U.S. National forests is believed to have increased in the past 20 years.

PRINCETON TOPS HARVARD

Cambridge, Mass. — Second-string halfback Tom Morris rallied a shocked Princeton team to a pair of fourth period touchdowns on a 10-yard pass and a 39-yard scam to give the favored Tigers a 28-20 Big Three victory over Harvard Saturday in their 50th annual Ivy league game.

Bears Come Close to Upset In Oregon State 21-19 Win

Berkeley, Calif. — Oregon State breezed away to a 21-0 halftime lead Saturday then had to fight for its life to squeeze out a 21-19 victory over the revitalized Bears.

With California trailing 21-13 with 43 seconds to play, Joe Kapp passed to halfback Jack Hart from 22 yards out to give the Bears their third touchdown of the second half. But as had been the case in their first tally, the attempted point after touchdown was blocked as once again another West Coast game was settled in the conversion department.

Right guard Jim Brackins stormed through to block California's first conversion attempt.

Gals Invade Grid Sports In Germany

Frankfurt — A group of hardy frauleins seem to have kicked off women's football on the road to success in Western Germany.

And they are determined to make it an international sport as well. Following a series of experimental international games between the Germans and all-star teams from Austria, England and Holland, a West German football leader, former soccer star Josef Floritz, announced he will try to set up an international women's soccer federation.

The German football girls have come a long way in a country where many males believe that women's place is with "kinder, kirche und kuche" (children, church and kitchen). Despite the all-out opposition of the men's football association, an estimated 800 frauleins now regularly play soccer.

Portland Pilots Slate 28 Games

Portland — Basketball Coach Al Negretti has announced a 28-game schedule for the University of Portland for the 1957-58 season which includes 14 home games.

One new opponent, Brigham Young, is on the schedule this year for a game at Provo, Utah, Dec. 14. The other foes have been played by Portland in the past.

Topping the list of rugged at-home opponent are Oregon State and Seattle university. Others include Portland State, Utah State, Sacramento State, Gonzaga, Whitworth, Idaho State, Montana State and Regis.

The Pilots on the road also will meet Bradley, last season's National Invitational Tournament champs, and DePaul.

The season opens against Portland State Dec. 2.
