

Curtis-Acheson Rites Take Place In Santa Rosa

Miss Muriel Acheson became the bride of Nevius M. Curtis in a double-ring wedding ceremony held Saturday, November 9, at Episcopal Church of the Incarnation in Santa Rosa, Calif. Dr. Perry G. Hall officiated at the two o'clock afternoon service.

The bride is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lemler of that city and has been making her home at 619½ East Main street, Medford. She attended Gustavus Adolphus college, St. Peter, Minn., University of Oregon and Southern Oregon college and has been employed as a teacher in the Medford public schools.

Mr. Curtis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Curtis, Granby, Mass., and has been making his home at 822½ South Oakdale avenue, Medford. He attended Haverford college, Haverford, Pa., and Stanford Graduate School of Business Administration and is employed as an accountant with the California Oregon Power company.

Attending the couple at the wedding were Mrs. Richard Gregg, sister of the bride from Willets, Calif., and Ronald Barnes, Oakland.

Following a wedding trip to Bodega Bay, Calif., the couple will make their home at 822½ South Oakdale avenue, Medford, after November 14. They plan to move to Holyoke, Mass., after the first of the year where Mr. Curtis will be employed by the Holyoke Water Power company.

Fall Dinner-Dance Set for Saturday

The annual fall dinner dance at the Rogue Valley Country Club will be held Saturday, November 16, from 7:30 until 1 a.m. The evening will start with cocktails followed by a dinner and dancing.

Coming Wedding Announced Here

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Flowers, Detroit, Mich., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to William Earle Mallon, Central Point, grandson of the late Mrs. Carrie Mallon. The wedding is set for Saturday, November 23, in Detroit.

Miss Flowers is a graduate of the University of Michigan school of Nursing and attended Columbia Bible college, Mr. Mallon is a graduate of Crater High school and Prairie Bible institute, Three Hills, Alberta, Canada, and is currently with the Regions Beyond Missionary union in Philadelphia.

The couple plan to travel to the west coast following the ceremony prior to leaving for Netherlands, New Guinea, where they will serve as missionaries under appointment by the Regions Beyond Missionary union.

School Musical To Be Gay Event

Old-fashioned clothes and gay music will invade the Medford High school auditorium Thursday and Friday, November 21 and 22, when the high school choir presents the musical "Carousel."

The Rogers and Hammerstein production will include a cast of nearly 100 plus the high school orchestra. It will be under the direction of Mrs. Lenore Zapell of the drama department, Lynn Sjolund, choir director, and John Drysdale, director of the orchestra.

Tickets for the production may be purchased from the high school office or from any choir member.

Actors include Rosemary Doolen, John Frohnmayer, Sue Baker, Linda Smith, Bobe Gee, Ted Lawson, Dell Clark, Pam Cooksey, David Frohnmayer, Mike Forbes, Jim Ellers and Pat Hilton.

Concert Announced For November 24

The Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon has scheduled the first concert of the season for November 24, Sunday, at Medford High school auditorium.

Richard D. Werner, conductor and musical director for the society, states that rehearsals for the concert are being held at the Jackson school gymnasium each Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. He invites string players to join the group in playing a program of symphonic music.

Cities of Orient Visited by Couple

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden have returned to their home at 211 Genesee street after a month's tour of the orient by plane. They made stops in the Hawaiian and Philippine islands, in Bangkok, Cambodia, Hong Kong and Tokyo.

The Edens report that their visits to the ruins of Angkor Wat in Cambodia were the most interesting part of the tour. These remains of a large city and temples, discovered many years ago by a French archaeologist, have attracted thousands of tourists in recent years. Excavation still continues.

Luncheon Meeting

Women of Rotary will meet Wednesday, November 13 in the home of Mrs. Leonard Mayfield, 1 Black Oak drive. Assisting Mrs. Mayfield will be Mrs. Royal Bebb, Mrs. C. C. Leonard, and Mrs. R. A. Duff.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service. All Rotary wives are invited to attend.

Guests Here

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Olcott and their baby son, Eric, Dunsmuir, Calif., are houseguests this week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Allen Jr., 48 Windsor avenue.

In Ohio

Mrs. Marrs Gibbons, Old Military road, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Hanley, in Cleveland, Ohio. She plans to remain in the Midwest for several weeks.

Kellington-Rector Rites Held at Church

Patricia Carol Rector became the bride of Daniel Fredrick Kellington in a ceremony held Friday, November 1, at St. Mark's Episcopal church. More than 350 guests attended. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Rector, 214 West Jackson boulevard, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kellington, 87 Perrydale avenue.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster performed the marriage ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening, and Mr. Rector gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of embroidered nylon net with applied flowers. It was fashioned with portrait neckline, short sleeves and full skirt with chapel length train, and worn with short veil and matching mitts. The bride carried a white orchid encircled with white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Deanna Cuthbertson, Glendale, Calif., was honor attendant for her cousin and bridesmaids were Miss Carol Rector, Central Point, aunt of the bride, Miss Rosalie Twedell and Miss Syble West. Miss Cuthbertson wore jade green peau de soie designed ballerina length with cap sleeves and modified boat neckline, and a full back panel in bustle effect.

The bridesmaids dresses were of capucine peau de soie designed to match the honor attendant's gown. All the attendants wore veils to match their gowns made by the bride, and their bouquets were white spider chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Mary England was flower girl and Brian Kellington, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Bruce Kellington was best man for his brother and ushers were Frank Rector, Portland, brother of the bride, Raymond Cox, Donald Robinson, Leon McDougall and Robert Ebert, Milwaukie. Glen Allison and Ferris Simpson were acolytes.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad played the wedding music and Louis Clayton, Ashland, was soloist. Arrangements of white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

Both the Rectors and the Kellingtons were hosts for the reception, held in the parish hall. An arrangement of pink and white roses centered the punch table, and white chrysanthemums and white candles with pink roses decorated the bride's table. The wedding cake was baked and decorated by the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Rollin R. Jones. Miss Sandra Thurston served the cake, Miss Glenna Hobbs poured punch and Mrs. James Metternich served coffee.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a sheath dress of metallic lurex with hat of matching gold brocade and accessories of complementing tones. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue sheath dress with matching accessories; their flowers were spider chrysanthemums.
