Among the guests at a dinner given last Saturday evening at Rogue Valley Country club were Mr. and Mrs. Armin Richter (seated), Applegate residents. The Richters are shown with their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams, who also live in the Applegate area of Jackson county. Mrs. Adams designed a wall decoration for the party of yellow balloons and autumn foliage arranged to resemble an enormous bunch of grapes.

Parkers Observe 61st Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker, 307 Vancouver avenue, were honored Sunday, October 27, by an open house at their residence in honor of their 61st wedding anniversary. The reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker, 4005 South Pacific highway, a brother of Mr. Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stinson, friends of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker were married October 28, 1896. Mr. Parker, who is 93 years old, moved to Medford in 1888, and has been a farmer for 42 years. The couple have two sons, Roland Parker, Roseburg, and Irvin Parker, Medford, two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Chrysanthemums decorated the room for the reception attended by 27 friends and neighbors. Mrs. Parker was presented a rosebud corsage for the occasion.

Medford Students In Cast of Play

Eugene — James L. Thomas, whose home is at Route 1, Box 470A, Medford is playing the part of Sergeant Gregovich in the current University Theatre production, "Teahouse of the August Moon." He is a senior, majoring in journalism.

Conrad Holzgang, son of Mr. and Mrs. George V. Holzgang, 626 Park avenue, plays the part of Mr. Sumata, resident of a small Okinawan village being taken over by the U. S. Army. Mr. Holzgang also is a senior, majoring in business administration.

Before storing bathing caps for the winter, scrub them with baking soda applied with a moist cloth or brush. The soda cleans and helps protect the rubber.

Lady Lions Seek Toys

The Christmas toy project, sponsored each year by Medford Lady Lions in cooperation with the Medford Fire department, was discussed at a meeting of the women's group Tuesday evening. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Webb, 915 Reddy avenue.

Mrs. H. M. Christofferson, president of the club, asks that anyone who has dolls which are in good condition and toys which may be repaired to call SPRing 2-6825, or leave them at the main fire station downtown.

The women also wrapped Christmas presents for teenagers.

The budget for the year, presented by Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, chairman and her committee, Mesdames W. B. Dziarmaga, J. A. Tomjack and T. R. Esslinger, was accepted.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and her committee, Mrs. Louis Ruhl and Mrs. Earl Courtney.

Couple Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Paulsen, 516 Fairmont street, were honored at a dinner October 22 in honor of their 58th wedding anniversary. The dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. F. Gleason Crowell.

The Paulsens were married in Cando, N. D. in 1899 and moved to Medford in 1948. They have two children, Mrs. Jeanette Shively of Bozeman, Mont., and Albert Paulsen, Los Angeles, Calif.

Richard Paynes Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paynes have returned home after a motor vacation trip south. The Paynes visited Reno, Las Vegas and Virginia City, Nev., and then continued on to Death Valley Lake Tahoe and Boulder Dam.

Returning home, the couple traveled up the California coast and spent some time in Carmel before continuing to San Francisco and Oakland, where they visited relatives.

Nile Queen Coming Here

Supreme Queen Gladys W. Chapman, San Antonio, Tex., will make her official visit to Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, November 16. A ceremonial honoring the queen will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday, November 16 in Lincoln school, 1132 N.E. Tenth St., Grants Pass.

Preceding the ceremonial a banquet will be held at 5:30 p.m. in the school dining room. Banquet reservation chairman is Mrs. H. L. Stonaker, 751 N.W. 5th Street, Grants Pass, telephone GREENwood 6-5836.

Mrs. Stanley Stark, who is in charge of the annual Thanksgiving box for the Shrine hospital in Portland, asks all Daughters of the Nile to leave their gifts at Week's and Orr store, 114 West Main street any time from Friday, November 15 through Thursday, November 21.

The hospital especially needs canned fruits, vegetables, jams, jellies and cheese, she states. All home canned goods must have screw lids for shipping purposes. It is suggested that members might go together and purchase large size canned foods to simplify shipping, or may leave cash donations to purchase the food.

Club Announces Dinner, Dance

Plans for a dinner dance were made at a meeting of Medford Sojourners' club Thursday afternoon at Girls Community club. Mrs. Floyd Robertson presided.
