

Volunteers Give Demonstrations At Scout Workshop

An arts and crafts workshop for Intermediate Girl Scout leaders and Brownie Scout leaders was held November 6, at St. Marks Guild hall.

Consultants for the program were volunteer hobbyists and scout leaders. Mrs. Grover Corum, author of "Creative Activity Simplified," taught how to make puppets of several kinds. On display were puppets made of self-hardening clay by Troop 185, led by Mrs. Vincent Bevis. Wire sculpture was demonstrated by Mrs. Don Madden and Mrs. Maurice Ritchey demonstrated the making of plaques, hurricane lamps and other items out of discarded tin cans.

Woodburning was taught by Mrs. William Baker, field director for Girl Scouts; Miss Ruth Kilbourn, executive director, taught art design, prints and stencils. On display was a frame of leaf prints made with real leaves and printers ink.

Mrs. Eric de Place demonstrated the use of an electric jigsaw, and an electric drill. Later Mrs. de Place also demonstrated how baskets are woven, showing the use of two types of weaving. On display were various articles made from plywood and other woods. Some of these were a scrapbook, two types of bookends, a snack tray, a lamp, and a game, besides several types of baskets.

On display but not demonstrated were many other handicraft, and hobby items brought by the leaders, and a commercial display by Sims Hobby shop. Many items displayed would be suitable for girls to make for Christmas gifts or favors.

Mrs. Jerry Gastineau, area training chairman, was coordinator for the program. There were approximately thirty attending besides the consultants.

Sorority Holds Model Meeting In Central Point

Alpha Lambda chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha international, held a model meeting at the home of Mrs. E. L. Mathews Jr., 123 Oak street in Central Point last week.

Chapter members explained the aims and purposes of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, activities of the local chapter and outlined the combined accomplishments and efforts of the 67 chapters in the state of Oregon.

The educational program of the chapter, this year is "Gracious Hostess" and speaker for the evening was Mrs. Ann Wirkkala. She spoke on the origin and care of silver, china and glassware.

Mrs. Dean Eppinger, Mrs. B. Gilbert and Mrs. Robert Shangle served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

To remove fruit stains from washable cottons or linens, place the stained fabric over a wash-bowl and pour boiling water through the stain.

Half-Size Gem

9021 SIZES 14½-24½

Gem of a Printed Pattern—this pretty dress is so wonderfully becoming to the shorter, fuller figure. Simple lines adapt to both casual and dressy fabrics. Three sleeve versions.

Printed Pattern 9021: Half Sizes 14½, 16½, 18½, 20½, 22½, 24½. Size 16½ requires 3½ yards 39-inch fabric.

Printed directions on each pattern part. Easier, accurate.

Send Thirty-five Cents (coins) for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern for 1st-class mailing. Send to Marian Martin, care of Medford Mail Tribune, Pattern Dept., 232 West 18th st., New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly NAME, ADDRESS with SIZE and STYLE NUMBER.

Secretary of State Hatfield And College Counselor to Wed

Portland — Secretary of State Mark Hatfield, one of Oregon's most eligible bachelors, has announced his engagement. The secretary plans to be married next July to Miss Antoinette Marie Kuzmanich, counselor for women at Portland State college. Their engagement was announced Saturday night at a dinner party following the Oregon-Washington football game.

Mr. Hatfield is a graduate of Willamette university and his bride-to-be is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Secretary of State Mark Hatfield, considered Oregon's most eligible bachelor, announced Saturday night that he would marry Miss Antoinette Marie Kuzmanich of Portland next summer. His fiancée is counselor of women at Portland State college.

Altrusa to Honor Award Winners

Altrusa club's vocational scholarship winners will be honored by the Medford group at a potluck dinner and meeting to be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, November 14 at Hillcrest orchard.

Mrs. Maisie Daily will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. Peggy Beebe. Mrs. Edith Baker, co-chairman with Mrs. Daily of the vocational information committee, is to be in charge of the program and will introduce women who have received either local or national founders' fund Altrusa grants. They are Mrs. Mildred Marshall, Rogue River, and Mrs. Helen Lyttle, Central Point, who are both taking teacher training at Southern Oregon college, and Mrs. Sherman Moore, who has just finished a business course in Medford.

Mrs. Lena Castle, Ashland, who received a year's practical nurse training at Oregon Technical institute in Klamath Falls, cannot be present as she is employed at the Nevada State hospital in Reno.

Mrs. Bertha Haskins, chairman of the public affairs committee, will report on final plans for the booth to be sponsored by the group as a part of the Safety Fair to be held Saturday, November 15, at the Armory.

Installation Set By Townsend Club

Medford Townsend club will hold installation of officers at the weekly meeting Wednesday, November 13, at Carpenters' hall. A potluck luncheon at noon will precede the business session.

At last week's auxiliary meeting, Mrs. C. E. (La Rue) Naffziger was reelected auxiliary chairman.

A card was read from John Smith, who is spending the winter at Mesa, Ariz.

The auxiliary club plans a quilting bee for the November 20 meeting at 10 a.m.

The Townsend club meets every second and fourth Wednesday of each calendar month. Visitors are welcome.

Christmas Plans Made By Methodist Class

Shipmate class of First Methodist church held the monthly potluck dinner in the church Friday.

Mrs. Claudia Gass, skipper, presided at the business meeting. It was decided to make the Christmas meeting one of giving and remembrance of those less fortunate.

The Rev. George Trobaugh showed travel pictures, with Mrs. Trobaugh giving a descriptive reading.

Everybody joined in singing Thanksgiving hymns.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Brood planned the program. Forty-six members were present.

DENTAL NURSE EXCLUSIVELY FOR WOMEN INFORMATION UPON REQUEST DENTAL NURSES SCHOOL 1500 CALIFORNIA ST. SAN FRANCISCO 17

Central Point Girl Joins College Choir

Naida Smith, Central Point, has joined the 45-voice cappella choir of Linfield college, McMinnville.

Linfield's choir, now in its 29th season, is directed by Carl J. Kittleson, assistant professor of music at Linfield since 1952. Members meet twice a week during the college-year for extensive practice.

Highlight of this year will be a presentation of Handel's "Messiah" in cooperation with other campus music groups. Annually the choir tours Oregon and other Pacific Northwest states presenting a cappella music to church and school audiences.

Singer Loses Weight To Appear On Show

By WILLIAM EWALD United Press Correspondent New York — Merv Griffin, a singer who used to be fat and happy, is currently slim and hungry.

"I used to weigh 245 pounds. I used to eat anything I wanted to," recalled Griffin with a smack of his lips. "You can imagine how I looked. I'm five-foot-nine."

"In fact, I was so fat early in my career that when I was with this local show in San Francisco, they used to bill me as the 'Mystery Singer.' The station was too embarrassed to send out my picture."

Griffin, lured into semi-solomonance by the blissful perkings of his digestive system was untroubled by this treatment. But he did take pause one morning when he was called to appear on a local breakfast show with another singer, Joan Edwards.

"Well, Joan heard me sing and she said — 'Merv, you sing the end, but the blubber's got to go,'" recalled Griffin.

"Then two days later, this elderly lady fan came up to me and when she found out who I was, she shrieked — 'But you're so fat!' I think she got a little hysterical about it because she kept saying it over and over."

Griffin was, as another musical observer has put it, all shook up. "I decided maybe I better trim some of it off—television was beginning to come in around then, too, and I figured my fat had had it," he said.

"I did it the hard way — nothing but steaks, eggs and cottage cheese. I knocked off 11 pounds the first week. I got so enthusiastic after that, I almost ended up on lettuce leaves."

Griffin harked off 90 pounds in four months, a feat roughly comparable to negotiating the Sahara in roller skates.

"The terrible thing about sticking to a diet in show business is that the people in it are the greatest eaters in the world," he said. "Everybody's always eating — during rehearsals, be-

toys, dolls, others. Send 25 cents for your copy of this needlecraft book—now!

toys, dolls, others. Send 25 cents for your copy of this needlecraft book—now!

Thrifty Wardrobe

by Alice Brooks

Make this wardrobe for a 8-inch doll — just like Mother's clothes. Delight a child.

Use scraps of yarn. Pattern 7270: directions for knitted skirt, sweater, cap, mittens; crocheted dress and hat; sewn petticoat and blouse.

Send Thirty-five Cents (coins) for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern for 1st-class mailing. Send to Medford Mail Tribune, Household Arts Dept., P.O. Box 168, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly NAME, ADDRESS, PATTERN NUMBER.

A bonus for our readers: two FREE patterns, printed in our ALICE BROOKS Needlecraft Book for 1957! Plus a variety of designs to order—crochet, knitting, embroidery, huck weaving.

Make Your Date With... Beauty... VIRGINIA'S BIG Y Beauty Salon

Jim Funk, Lillian Lewis, Virginia Welch, Owner & Operator PHONE SP 2-9380

Television Wife Role Liked By Phyllis Avery

Hollywood — Pretty Phyllis Avery likes being a television wife. She is probably the only woman who can say she was married — on TV — to people like Ray Milland, Lew Ayres, MacDonald Carey, Dan O'Herlihy, Steve McNally, James Whitmore and Darrin McGavin.

Her current husband is Donald O'Connor with whom she was cast in "The Jet Propelled Couch" Nov. 14 on CBS-TV's "Playhouse 90." The same day also happens to be her birthday.

"I'm very happy playing wife to such prominent people," she said. "I counted them up the other day, and now I know that at least eight interesting men want me."

"I've learned a lot about people's general ideas on what a wife should be like. I guess the outstanding thing she should have in her character is sympathy."

Miss Avery, whose credits include Broadway plays such as "Charley's Aunt," said the general sketch of wives as she plays them has a hint of sex. The wife is faithful but still interesting. And in the "Playhouse 90" show the script even gave her a chance to have a top quality domestic battle with O'Connor.

"I get a bubble out of playing some guy's wife," she said. "However, while most of these eight guys still have some romance left in their souls, I give them back to their own wives at the end of the working day. Gee, I think most of them are married and have about eight or nine kids."

Miss Avery said she has never met any of her co-stars' real wives. She also said she doesn't plan to seek out any of them. "It might be a little awkward," she said.

The actress said her wife roles have permitted her to wear a wide range of clothing from strictly kitchen attire to an evening dress. She also donned maternity clothes for one teleplay.

Her most frequent television is Ray Milland, with whom she performed in about 80 programs in "The Ray Milland Show." She said they got to know each other quite well.

"We really got sort of used to each other," she said. "We were very casual. He's very charming and would make a good husband — in fact, he is married."

Miss Avery said she has done additional wiving in motion pictures. Her movie husbands were Charlton Heston and Dan Dailley. She said she also has been asked if she'll play Ralph Meeker's wife on a Broadway production "The Brass Section." She's thinking it over right now.

The actress' personal life includes one marriage, two daughters and a divorce. "But I guess I still look the way a young wife is supposed to," she said. "I just keep playing one wife after another."

"My former husband — he's Don Taylor, an actor-director — must think I look OK, too, I guess. He drops in for dinner all the time."

Plans for the annual Christmas party of the Grange will be made; officers will be nominated and elected.

Friday, November 22, the club members will meet at the Grange hall for a clean up day. A potluck meal will be served at noon.

Home Economics Club To Meet on Thursday

Home Economics club of Upper Rogue Grange will meet Thursday, November 14, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Oscar Hanson. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harold Barber, will serve luncheon.

Plans for the annual Christmas party of the Grange will be made; officers will be nominated and elected.

Friday, November 22, the club members will meet at the Grange hall for a clean up day. A potluck meal will be served at noon.

Meeting Announced For Sewing Club

Mrs. Amy Randle, 1116 Ni-antic street, Medford, will entertain members of the sewing circle of the auxiliary to Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Thursday, November 14. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Television Wife Role Liked By Phyllis Avery

Hollywood — Pretty Phyllis Avery likes being a television wife. She is probably the only woman who can say she was married — on TV — to people like Ray Milland, Lew Ayres, MacDonald Carey, Dan O'Herlihy, Steve McNally, James Whitmore and Darrin McGavin.

Her current husband is Donald O'Connor with whom she was cast in "The Jet Propelled Couch" Nov. 14 on CBS-TV's "Playhouse 90." The same day also happens to be her birthday.

"I'm very happy playing wife to such prominent people," she said. "I counted them up the other day, and now I know that at least eight interesting men want me."

"I've learned a lot about people's general ideas on what a wife should be like. I guess the outstanding thing she should have in her character is sympathy."

Miss Avery, whose credits include Broadway plays such as "Charley's Aunt," said the general sketch of wives as she plays them has a hint of sex. The wife is faithful but still interesting. And in the "Playhouse 90" show the script even gave her a chance to have a top quality domestic battle with O'Connor.

"I get a bubble out of playing some guy's wife," she said. "However, while most of these eight guys still have some romance left in their souls, I give them back to their own wives at the end of the working day. Gee, I think most of them are married and have about eight or nine kids."

Miss Avery said she has never met any of her co-stars' real wives. She also said she doesn't plan to seek out any of them. "It might be a little awkward," she said.

The actress said her wife roles have permitted her to wear a wide range of clothing from strictly kitchen attire to an evening dress. She also donned maternity clothes for one teleplay.

Her most frequent television is Ray Milland, with whom she performed in about 80 programs in "The Ray Milland Show." She said they got to know each other quite well.

"We really got sort of used to each other," she said. "We were very casual. He's very charming and would make a good husband — in fact, he is married."

Miss Avery said she has done additional wiving in motion pictures. Her movie husbands were Charlton Heston and Dan Dailley. She said she also has been asked if she'll play Ralph Meeker's wife on a Broadway production "The Brass Section." She's thinking it over right now.

The actress' personal life includes one marriage, two daughters and a divorce. "But I guess I still look the way a young wife is supposed to," she said. "I just keep playing one wife after another."

"My former husband — he's Don Taylor, an actor-director — must think I look OK, too, I guess. He drops in for dinner all the time."

Plans for the annual Christmas party of the Grange will be made; officers will be nominated and elected.

Friday, November 22, the club members will meet at the Grange hall for a clean up day. A potluck meal will be served at noon.

Home Economics Club To Meet on Thursday

Home Economics club of Upper Rogue Grange will meet Thursday, November 14, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Oscar Hanson. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harold Barber, will serve luncheon.

Plans for the annual Christmas party of the Grange will be made; officers will be nominated and elected.

Friday, November 22, the club members will meet at the Grange hall for a clean up day. A potluck meal will be served at noon.

Meeting Announced For Sewing Club

Mrs. Amy Randle, 1116 Ni-antic street, Medford, will entertain members of the sewing circle of the auxiliary to Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Thursday, November 14. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Credit Buying To Be Topic of Extension Units

Howard, Eagle Point and Prospect Home Extension units will hold meetings this week.

"Understanding Consumer Credit" will be the topic for the monthly meeting of Prospect unit, to be held at the Community hall Wednesday, November 13, at 10:30 a.m. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon. Child care will be provided at the home of Mrs. William Ferns.

Eagle Point unit will meet Thursday, November 14, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Don Kimmel. The project will be "Credit Buying" with Mrs. Robert Bitterling and Mrs. Edwin Hayes as leaders. Members are to take table service. Child care will be in charge of Mrs. Ethel Coy, 301 South B street.

Howard unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Ernest Gleason, 2684 Crater Lake highway, Thursday, November 14, at 10:30 a.m. "Consumer Credit Buying" will be the project for the meeting and will be conducted by Mrs. Jack Campbell.

Luncheon will be served by members of the unit, and child care will be provided for small children. Arrangements can be made by calling NO 4-1461. Anyone interested in attending the meeting is welcome.

Parade Marks Holiday Observance in Portland

Portland — A parade in southeast Portland topped local Veterans day observance today as public schools, banks and most federal, state and city offices were closed.

Most business houses remained open.

Oregon Centennial Urged as Fair Theme

Gearhart — The Oregon Fairs association Saturday urged all county and regional fairs throughout Oregon to adopt as their major theme of their respective 1958 fairs the Oregon centennial which is to follow in 1959.

Maid Of Cotton Set To Represent Calif.

Fresno, Calif.—Janice Brown, 19-year-old University of California junior, was selected Saturday as the California maid of Cotton and presented to about 800 persons attending the annual Cotton Cotillion.

Chosen as first alternate was Susanne Aslin, 20, of San Gabriel, a student at Occidental college. Second alternate is Claudia Ackers, 20, Modesto, a San Francisco State student.

The maid, who measures 36-24-35, stands five feet seven inches and has bluish-green eyes and blonde hair. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown of Fresno.

Miss Brown is studying physical education at California and was sponsored in the contest by Delta Gamma sorority. She left Fresno Sunday for Hollywood where she will undergo a week of modeling training and be outfitted in an all-cotton wardrobe. She will then tour the State before traveling to Memphis, Tenn., to represent California in the national Maid of Cotton finals.

Personal: Dear Mable: Sorry to hear about your carpet troubles. Why don't you call Bill Laurine at SP 3-5182 or go see him at 529 S. Riverside. Yours truly,

Parade Marks Holiday Observance in Portland Oregon Centennial Urged as Fair Theme

I just didn't believe it until I tried it! Sanitone Dry Cleaning keeps our clothes looking just like new! You'll be amazed at our Sanitone Dry Cleaning after you've given it a thorough trial. You'll be delighted, too, when you see how your clothes come back time after time with like-new beauty of colors, patterns and textures fully restored... yet no dry cleaning odor, ever. Call for service today. All garments delivered in plastic bags Try Our CUSTOM LAUNDERED SHIRTS • Fit Better • Feel Better • Look Better Nu-Way CLEANERS FURRIERS Free Parking -Right at the Door! H. D. CHRISTENSEN 601 East Main St. - Phone SP 2-9169

The LARGEST Selection of Toys in Medford Are Waiting for You at THE TOY HOUSE Shop Early and Use Our Easy Layaway THE TOY HOUSE 317 E. Main SP 2-5880 Mail those overseas packages by Nov. 15th