Speakers' Group Continues Contest; Winners Named

Second in the current series of contest talks made up the program for a meeting of Medford Toastmistress club at Girls Community club Monday evening. Mrs. Effie Kurtz, president, presided.

Following the invocation given by Mrs. Willis Williams, Mrs. Kurtz introduced a guest, Mrs. Lloyd Neilson. Miss Anna Streed introduced and welcomed Mrs. Elmer Ness as a new member of the club. Mrs. Ness recently moved to Medford from El Cajon, Calif., and is a former member of the El Cajon Valley Toastmistress club.

Mrs. Clayton Ruhl, topic mistress, asked several members to give two minutes talks on personal reasons for thansgiving at this season.

The educational talk was given by Mrs. James Welch. She gave a brief history of the origin of Toastmistress clubs and their objectives. A report on the recent council meeting held in Klamath Falls was given by Miss Streed.

Mrs. Ethel Me Intyre, toastmistress for the evening, introduced those participating in the second contest of the current series of contest speeches being held by the club.

The first speaker, Mrs. Harry Marshall spoke on, "Runny Meds." She told of the origin of the "Magna Carta" and its relation of our present democracy and world freedom under law.

Mrs. Earl Sands second speaker, took the group verbally on a train through the Rogue valley, her speech being titled, "A Tour of the Rogue River Valley."

The subject of Mrs. Roy Roll's speech was, "The Power of a Smile."

Each contestant gave a three minute impromptu speech on, "Fashions."

The tellers announced that Mrs. Roll's talk had been judged as first place winner of the contest. It was also announced that Miss Streed and Mrs. Clarence Redmond had tied for first place in the first speech contest which had been held two weeks ago.

Mrs. Frank Salvers received a special prize. After the business meeting, cards were played.

After a stated meeting in the Lodge of Perfection and a stated meeting in the Chapter of Rose Croix, Fred M. Gatter and cast conferred the 24th degree of Scottish Rite upon a class of candidates. The Scottish Rite Masons joined the ladies for the coffee hour.

Refreshments were served from tables centered with arrangements of red, green and silver "guided missiles," moon weed, pine cones, and autumn leaves.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Charles Hoppe, Mrs. Glenn L. Linn and Mrs. Vernon A. Thompson.

The next meeting will be November 25, with Mrs. Purdin chairman. This will be a social night. All Scottish Rite Masons' wives are invited.

With Earl E. Thielke and cast officiating, the 14th degree of Scottish Rite Freemasonry will be presented at 8 p.m. Monday, November 18, in the Masonic temple, for the benefit of the fall class of candidates.
