Army Back Tops Scoring On Gridiron

New York — This season's major college football scoring champion may win the title with less than 100 points, the first time that has happened since 1948 and only the third time in the past 19 years.

Bob Anderson of Army leads the scorers with 84 points, and has one game left, against Navy. The odds seem stacked against Anderson scoring three touchdowns against the Middies. Jimmy Taylor of Louisiana State was second in scoring with 74 points and also has only one game left, against Tulane.

Stuart Vaughn of Utah retained his lead in pass receiving, statistics from the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau showed, 49 passes caught in nine games for 727 yards and five touchdowns. Gary Kapp of Utah State was second with 41 receptions, 591 yards and four touchdowns. Chance at Record

Vaughn has a chance at the all-time season record of 57 receptions by Ed Brown of Fordham in 1952 and 864 yards gained by Ed Barker of Washington State in 1951. Vaughn needs eight catches and 137 yards.

Dave Sherer of Southern Methodist leads in punting with an average of 45.0 yards per kick on 25 punts in seven games, but Ken Hall of Idaho is close behind with 44.7 yards per kick on 18 punts in nine games.

Tom Greene of Holy Cross leads in total offense with 1,323 yards in eight games, and Leon Burton of Arizona Tempe State leads in rushing with 967 yards in eight games. Bob Newman of Washington State is the leading forward passer with 90 completions in 163 passes.

Defensive Work In Duck Camp

Eugene, Ore.—The University of Oregon Ducks concentrated on defensive work—and particularly pass defense—during a long session Tuesday in preparation for Saturday's crucial game against the Oregon State Beavers.

Coach Len Casanova pointed out that the Ducks have been rated No. 1 in the PCC on pass defense in four of the last five years, but have slipped to seventh or eighth this season.

Bob Newman Still Holds Stats Lead

Los Angeles — Sharp-shooting Bob Newman of Washington State today led the Pacific Coast Conference in passing and total offense in figures released by the PCC commissioner's office. Official statistics as the PCC heads for the final week end of league action showed that Newman had completed 90 passes in 163 attempts for 1,196 yards and had a total offense mark of 1,254 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Stanford's Jack Douglas had 70 completions in 127 tries, while Howard Willis, Idaho, and Jack Crabtree, Oregon, each had 42. Newman was trailed in total offense by Joe Francis, Oregon State, with 1,007 yards, and Douglas, 966 yards.

The top rushing spot was held by Stanford's Charles Shea, who has gained 85 yards in nine games, just six more than the 679 won by second-place Nub Beamer of Oregon State. Oregon's Jim Shanley was third with 628, followed by teammate Jack Morris, 598.

Don Ellingsen of Washington State led in pass receptions with 37 good for 477 yards and two touchdowns. He was followed by Oregon's Ron Stover, 20, and Jack Fanning, also of Washington State, 19.

UCLA's Kirk Wilson was the top punter with a 42.3 yard average, compared to 39.1 for Southern California's Jim Conroy and 37.7 for Washington's Bob Dunn. Wilson was tied for first place with teammate Dick Wallen in pass interceptions. They each had four.

Teamwise, the report revealed that Oregon is the best in the league on something the team may sorely need against mighty Ohio State in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day-defense.

Oregon, the West representative in Pasadena, led the league in total defense and rushing defense. The ducks gave up but 268.1 yards a game while holding opponents to 153.3 yards a game in rushing defense.

ST. LOUIS WINS
London — Boswell St. Louis of Trinidad outpointed British welterweight champion Peter Waterman Tuesday night in a non-title bout. Waterman holds a victory over former world champ Kid Gavilan.

Al Funston Named Most Valuable McLoughlin Ninth Grade Gridman

Fullback Al Funston was named most valuable player of the 1957 McLoughlin Junior High school ninth grade football team.

Guard Terry Earl was selected as outstanding lineman, Right Halfback Mike Hood as outstanding back and Right Halfback Jim Stever as the most improved player.

The four were recognized last night at a father and son dinner for McLoughlin eighth and ninth grade gridgers. Stever was picked by Coaches John Reed and Ed Doran and the others by the players.

Coach Reed announced the awards and gave information concerning the ninth grade players. Quarterback Dick Ragsdale responded for the players and presented their gifts to the coaches. His father, Lee V. Ragsdale, supervisor of physical education in Medford schools, spoke for the dads.

Deep and Smart
Other remarks were made by Fred Spiegelberg, Medford Senior high head grid coach, and Doran. McLoughlin Principal Glenn Linn was master of ceremonies. Superintendent of Schools Leonard Mayfield, Assistant Superintendent Elliott Becken and members of the senior high coaching staff were special guests.

Reed told the fathers that among the ninth squad are players who can be some of the finest in Medford high history. He described the squad as "deep and smart," adding that "they know football." The coach said that the

Valdez Records Knockout Win

Bangor, Maine — Ninth-ranked heavyweight Nino Valdez, 215, of Havana Cuba, today hoped his impressive knockout win over Jeff Dyer, 210, of Springfield, Mass., would boost him a notch higher in the heavyweight ranks.

Valdez battered Dyer around the ring for 10 rounds at Bangor Auditorium Tuesday night, flooring him twice.

Bulldog club had a "quiet dignity of spirit." Reed reported that his unbeaten Bulldogs tallied 154 points to opponents 40 and probably could have scored more. They led their rivals about six to one in offensive yardage, he stated.

Lee Ragsdale spoke of the spiritual and emotional values of football. Spiegelberg advised the gridgers to stick together in sports through high school, pointing out that school leaders are athletes.

Wooden O Returned to UO Campus

Eugene — The University of Oregon got its wooden "O" returned from Oregon State Tuesday night but the Webfoots' victory bell was missing. Or at least a facsimile of the bell was missing.

The big "O," pilfered three weeks ago by Oregon Staters from atop Skinner's Butte here, was returned in sections, displayed briefly at the student union building and then was hidden until this weekend when it will be displayed at Homecoming. Students Rally

The return of the "O" touched off a student rally. Oregon Staters said it had been hidden in a barn outside Corvallis.

After the "O" was taken Oregon students "kidnapped" the Oregon State Homecoming queen and two princesses. The girls were returned after an agreement that the "O" would be brought back before Homecoming.

But meanwhile, OSC "raiders" were suspected of pilfering the Webfoot victory bell. However, campus leaders here put together several "phonies" and planted them about the campus in an effort to throw off the invaders.

Phil Moyer Scores KO

Portland — Phil Moyer, 158, Portland, knocked out Al Jackson, 158, of Reno, in the second round of a scheduled eight-round bout here Tuesday night. Moyer had Jackson down for a nine count earlier in the round.

Tommy Thomas, 147, Portland, decisioned Ernie Gipson, 150, Seattle, in the six-round semi-finals. Other bouts saw Cincho Chavez, 145, Portland, knock out Harold Nelson, 140, Portland, in the third round; Ray Hoskins, 156, Albany, knock out Bob Silverfox, 150, Portland, in the second; Howard Meredith, 149, Albany, decision Jerry Hamilton, 150, Portland, in four, and Fred McNally, 170, Portland, knock out Gene Meeker, Estacada, in two.
