Counterfeiter Kills Self in Jail

Ukiah, Calif.—A confessed counterfeiter slashed his throat with a razor blade and bled to death in his Mendocino county jail cell Wednesday after he penned a will leaving $100 to death row author Caryl Chessman.

Authorities said Waldo Saxon Newton, who signed his handwritten will with the name of John Saxon Matthews, fixed the blade to a bootcase and drew the suicide weapon across his jugular vein before two cellmates realized what was happening.

Newton, scheduled to be sentenced in Superior Court Thursday after he pleaded guilty to counterfeiting and passing bogus coins in nearby Calipella, Calif., named the San Quentin author beneficiary in the document sheriff's deputies found in his cell.

Newton, arrested in his trailer court home Thursday where authorities found a press and molds for coins, a pistol with a homemade silencer, a blackjack, and four 4-ounce dynamite bombs, will the rest of a $3,000 savings account to Calipella attorney John Robin with instructions he be cremated and his ashes scattered behind his trailer.

Explosion Kills 17 In Scotland Mine

Muir Kirk, Scotland—An explosion ripped through a coal mine near here Tuesday night, killing 17 miners. The rest of the 300-man force scrambled to safety through falling rock, fumes and heavy dust.

Rescue crews which worked through the night recovered the bodies of 15 miners trapped 1,000 feet underground by the blast. Two other miners brought to the surface died of their injuries today in a hospital.

The explosion occurred in the Kames Colliery, one of the oldest working mines in western Scotland. The sound of the blast echoed throughout the adjoining countryside and brought hundreds of men and women to the pit head.

It was Britain's worst mine disaster since 1951 when 81 miners were killed in an explosion at Easington.
