

Widow's Mite Sermon Topic For Adventists

The New Testament story of the "widow's mite" will be recalled in the Rogue Valley's Seventh-day Adventist churches Saturday when members will climax a week of prayer and rededication by a "day of sacrifice."

The sacrificial offering taken annually in the denomination's churches throughout the world at the Thanksgiving season is designated to help church members re-live through personal sacrificial contributions the days of the early Christian church when the needs of the church took precedence over the common comforts of the individual.

Funds received from the offering taken at the 11 a.m. worship service will be used "to give help to people who do not know what it is to live as most of us do," according to Pastor John Trude of the Medford church.

"A hospital deep in the jungle of East Africa, or a mobile clinic in the thin-air highlands of Nepal might receive these funds," he said, "but the spirit of sacrifice with which they will be given is the most important aspect of the giving. Today's Christians need more and more to realize that a sacrificing spirit will do much to win others to Christianity."

MEDFORD CHURCH DIRECTORY

"O come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also. The sea is his, for he made it; for his hands formed the dry land."

"O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker! For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand." Psalms 95:1-7.

New York Towns Use French on Signs

Albany, N. Y. — North-ern New York, by virtue of its nearness to Canada, does a rather large tourist business with French-speaking persons.

As a result, many businessmen have tacked up signs reading "Ici on parle francais," letting potential customers know that French is spoken on the premises.

But one operator, north of Elizabethtown, apparently has more confidence in his cooking than in his French. His sign reads "Nous ne parlons pas francais bien; voulez-vous essayez notre cuisine?"

Translation: "We do not speak French well, but will you try our cooking?"
