

CENTRAL POINT PTA Holds Regular Meeting

By DORIS HUGHES

Central Point — The Jewett and Central Point Elementary schools and the Central Point Junior High school Parent Teacher association held the November meeting last Thursday.

The meeting was held in the cafeteria of Jewett school. Maj. Gen. Joseph Hicks, speaker of the evening, was introduced by Mrs. Alvin Roberts. PTA health and safety chairman, after showing a new English film on the hydrogen bomb, General Hicks gave a talk on civilian defense.

A period for questions and discussion followed. After Mrs. Leo Ghelardi, PTA president closed the meeting, refreshments were served in the back of the cafeteria.

The students of Jewett school had decorated the walls with paper turkeys. The Thanksgiving motif was also carried out in the table decor. Mrs. Cecil Minor and Mrs. Richard Krupp arranged the centerpiece.

The colors were presented by Den & Cub Scouts. Their leader is Mrs. Dominic Tate. The Rev. Jean Shelley gave the invocation. The first grade mothers were the hostesses for the affair.

The Willow Springs Home Extension had a potluck luncheon and meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Archie Purdy of Blue Jay lane. During the meeting, Mrs. James Semora and Mrs. Roy Colpitts gave a talk and demonstration on "standing consumer credit." Eighteen women attended.

Charles A. Meyer reported that the third polio shot will be given Monday. Children included in this group are students from Jewett school, Central Point elementary, and the junior high school, and pre-school children who are ready for their third shot.

Parents of pre-school children are asked to have their youngsters in room 1 in the Junior High school by 9 a.m. Room 1 is just inside the north entrance of the junior high school building. Dr. Alvin Roberts and Dr. Wayne Roberts will be giving the shots.

The Central Point elementary and junior high school will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday. There will be no school Thursday or Friday.

Tuesday a bridal shower was given at the home of Mrs. Floyd Wood, honoring Miss Mabel Dixon. Miss Dixon, whose wedding is set for Dec. 22, is the bride elect of Charles Brown of Central Point. She is the daughter of Mrs. Florence Dixon of Central Point. Forty guests attended the shower. Mrs. Harry Hansen and Mrs. Bernice McCue were in charge of entertainment. Fall colors were used in the decorations. A corsage made by Mrs. William Anhorn was presented to the honored guest.

Mrs. Stella Purkeypile, who was on her way to visit her niece, Mrs. William Skyrman, of Tolo rd., was injured in a fall and is in the White Rock District hospital in British Columbia. Mrs. Purkeypile is reported to be recuperating rapidly. She injured her hip and broke her wrist in the fall.

Third Class Gunners Mate Herb Webber is visiting friends in the Central Point area. He recently returned from a six months tour aboard the USS Amener. Webber graduated from Crater High school in 1954.

His folks have since moved to California.

Mrs. Frank Bruce returned Saturday from California. She had been visiting her folks at Hemet, Calif. Mrs. Bruce's brother is home from Germany on a 30-day furlough. On her return flight, Mrs. Bruce stopped off at San Fernando where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bruce.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Turner left Friday for Corvallis. Dr. Turner attended the mid-year dental convention at Eugene Saturday morning. After visiting friends in Corvallis, they went on to Portland, returning home on Monday.

The planning committee for the reunion of the class of 1949 of Central Point met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Richard Krupp. The group worked on name tags and completed final arrangements for the reunion which will take place Nov. 30 at the Jackson hotel in Medford. The reunion will begin at 6:30 p.m. with a buffet dinner at 7:30 p.m.

The Central Point Home Extension met Wednesday for an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. E. E. Reames at 6236 Crater Lake highway. The subject for study was credit buying. A demonstration on it was given by Mrs. Howard Davis and Mrs. Donald Lacy. Mrs. Earl Sands gave a report on the safety fair. Mrs. Paul B. Snook who is a member of the county committee, gave a report on the first county meeting. Mrs. Arthur Straus is the president of the Central Point Home Extension unit.

The Crater High school faculty wives and women on the faculty had a social get-together Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ronald Lamb of Robin lane. Mrs. Ed Knapp was cohostess. Eighteen persons attended.

C. A. Tharp of 347 Taylor rd., who has been in the hospital since Sunday, returned home Friday. He is recuperating from surgery.

Week end guests at the C. A. Tharp home were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Orlow of Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Brownie troop 119 held the troop birthday party in the Girl Scout room at the school Tuesday, Nov. 19. Mary Ellen Kurz brought a decorated cake and Elin Livingston brought a lighted candle on the cake. Vicki Harper and Sherry Marshall were inducted as Brownies and received their Brownie pins from Mrs. Leon Evans, troop committee member. Dorie Mae Grissom received a two year pin. The following girls received one year pins:

Elin Livingston, Alice Minger, Cindy Bartley, Maggie Rowden, Christine Bishop, Christine Evans, Mary Ellen Kurz, Martha Harris and Jill Peek. Games were planned and led by the Monarch Butterfly troop. Refreshments were served by the Meadow Larks and the Blue Jay troop served as the cleanup committee. Patrol leaders for the past six weeks have been Vicki Harper, Cindy Bartley and Christine Evans. Mrs. Everett Grissom, leader, and Mrs. Lloyd Livingston, assistant leader helped the girls with their party.

Pierre, S.D.—Fires claimed 200 lives and cost two million dollars in South Dakota in fiscal 1956-57.

At the Grange

Live Oak Grange

Live Oak Grange elected new officers for the coming year at their last regular meeting, Thursday, Nov. 14.

They are Carl Christenson, master; Fred Dengler, overseer; Cassie Golding, lecturer; Joe Golding, steward; Larry Sheehan, assistant steward; Jessie Frantz, chaplain; Lyndell Cameron, treasurer; Belle Strahan, secretary; Phil Strahan, gatekeeper; Betty Frantz, Ceres; Mrs. E. Babb, Pomona; Esther Fabrick, Flora; Edna Sheehan, lady assistant steward; and Letsy Miller, Frank Hall and Charles White, executive committeemen.

Joint installation of officers from all Jackson county subordinate Granges will be held at two different sessions in December. The dates are to be announced later.

Carl Christenson, speaking for the agricultural committee, reported a drop in egg prices, but indicated that it would probably be the last drop for some time. Foster Luce, who represented the Grange at a recent meeting of the subdivision ordinance group, stated that there was very strenuous objections to the plan from most rural communities and also from various subordinate Granges.

Next Live Oak Grange meeting will be held December 12. Refreshments during the social hour were served by Mrs. Roland West.

Edna Sheehan,
Publicity

Eagle Point Grange

The first in a series of surprise visitations, sponsored by the Jackson county Pomona Grange, was given Eagle Point at their Grange meeting Nov. 19. Granges represented were Gold Hill, Phoenix, Central Point, Roxy Ann, Upper Applegate, Griffin Creek, and Upper Rogue, making a total attendance of 107.

The Lecturers program preceded the meeting. Miss Irma Penwell, of Medford, gave pantomime impressions of two popular Rock and Roll singers and also gave one of her tap dance routines. Fred Jossy presented a trumpet number accompanied by Miss Georgia Weidman on the piano. Mrs. Jim Edge gave a talk on a recent trip taken into the southwestern states and showed specimens of cacti and other vegetation grown in the desert.

The meeting was called to order by master Cliff Moore. Roscoe Roberts, steward of the Oregon State Grange, was a guest. Honored guests for the evening were Velda Mang, Central Point; Al Sims, of Roxy Ann; Hal Bishop, Gold Hill; Menno Bachman, Upper Applegate and Dee Hendrickson, Phoenix, all masters of their respective Granges.

Committee reports were held to a minimum, with the ways and means reporting a very successful ple social held Saturday evening Nov. 16. Mrs. Paul Force, HEC chairman, announced the next HEC meeting would be held at the home of Mrs. Otis Jones Tuesday, Nov. 26 instead of Wednesday, Nov. 27, due to its closeness to Thanksgiving. All members are asked to attend as there will be an election of officers.

The display table, prepared by Mrs. Otis Jones, was made up of articles made by Mr. Jones of myrtle wood. It showed an unfinished piece of myrtle wood and how it looks when completed.

Pomona master, Robert Bitterling, announced the installation of new officers will be held on two consecutive Sundays, Dec. 15 and Dec. 22. The first one will be held at Central Point Grange hall and the second one at Eagle Point. All new officers should be present at one of the installations. The ceremonies will start at 1 p.m.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Clymer and Mr. and Mrs. Lenn Hickman.

Cora Bitterling,
Publicity

Griffin Creek Grange

Griffin Creek Grange will meet Tuesday, Nov. 16, since the regular meeting date falls on Nov. 28. This will be a potluck dinner served at 6:30 p.m. It will be followed by a program of slide pictures taken by members on their vacations this summer. The newly elected master, Cyril Farnsworth, is expected to appoint committees for the year at that time.

During the recent regular Grange meeting Cyril Farnsworth was elected president; Jack Bierma, overseer; Lulu Sturgill, lecturer; Herman Kamping, steward; Harold Tolle, assistant steward; Gertrude Tolle lady steward; Iva Harper, chaplain; Maybl Buchanan, secretary; George Mero, treasurer; Robert Minear, gate keeper; executive committee, Clyde Sturgill, Isabel LeVander, and William Darby; the Graces, Mollie Casey, Ceres; Fern Larson, Pomona; Zelma Minear, Flora.

Phoenix Grange

Phoenix Grange will meet Tuesday, Nov. 26 at 8 p.m. The chaplain requests members bring used Christmas cards or any greeting cards suitable for children's scrap books. The cards are to be sent with a box of toys and cradle gyms to the Fairview home for retarded children, near Salem. This is a project the ladies of HEC started last Christmas.

At the HEC meeting Wednesday, Nov. 20 at the home of Mrs. Harlan Glascock, election of officers was held. Mrs. Al Schroeder was reelected chairman and her assistant will be Mrs. Harlan Glascock, secretary, Mrs. Lester Carr, and treasurer, Mrs. Barney Lewin.

A potluck dinner was held at noon. Mrs. Olin Poe and Mrs. Thomas Klarin were cohostesses. All members answered roll call with "what I am thankful for." Mrs. Vaughn Quackenbush requested more articles for the fish pond of which she will be in charge at the carnival this coming Saturday, Nov. 23.

Final arrangements were made for the turkey dinner to be served in the Grange dining room in connection with the carnival. Serving will start at 5 p.m. Those who have not purchased tickets may get them at the door Saturday evening.

Publicity Chairman
Gertrude Lewin

BOLZANO DEMANDS INDEPENDENCE—A policeman (left) grabs one Italian youth as another rushes to grab an anti-Italian poster carried by German-speaking pro-Austrian demonstrators from the South Tyrol in Bolzano, Italy. About 20,000 members of the South Tyrol People's Party took part in a mass rally demanding independence for the former Austrian province.

A LOWELL QUIP

Cambridge, Mass. — The late President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard university once quipped "No wonder colleges are reservoirs of knowledge. The freshmen bring a little in and the seniors take none away, and knowledge accumulates."

Elkhart, Ind. — A quail flew into a sporting goods store here recently and salesman Dick Laughlin put the confused bird to good use. He made the bird pose for a photograph with himself, a gun and a large sign: "Indiana Quail Season Opens Nov. 10."

Pre-Holiday SALE

Continues With Greater
Savings Daily At

Leons

21 N. Central

TIME TO SHOP THESE

Fluhrer's

Thanksgiving

Specials!

At Your Grocer

DELICIOUS ROLLS BROWN 'N SERVE

Just pop in your oven and bake to your liking

- FRENCH TRIPLETS
- TWIN ROLLS
- ROMAN MEAL ROLLS

Ready Baked Rolls

Just a few minutes heating will give you piping hot rolls

- POTATO ROLLS
- DINNER ROLLS
- FLAKE ROLLS

New! — IN THE BRAND NEW HOLSUM BAGS!
6 HARD ROLLS — 12 ASSORTED ROLLS
If It's FLUHRER'S It's The BEST!

DON'T FORGET!

FLUHRER'S . . .

HOLSUM BREAD & BUNS

For Left-Over Sandwiches

Stuffin' Bread

PLAIN or SPICED

Sliced for Your Convenience
RECIPE With Each Loaf

Got It Figured To The Penny?

CHANCES ARE
YOU CAN CUT
OFF $150 MORE
ON THAT CAR!

Yes, you may be able to save $75 to $150 if you use State Farm's famous "Bank Plan" for Auto Financing. Before you buy any new or used car, get all the facts about this remarkable "Bank Plan" from your nearby State Farm Agent. Call soon.

Medford Agents:
JOHN A. CARTER
VIRGIL R. WILKES
133 So. Central
Tel. SP 2-9322
DONALD E. DAY
1471 Grand Tel. SP 2-5038

State Farm Mutual Automobile
Insurance Company Home Office,
Bloomington, Illinois.