Next to Karras came Crow, the spearhead of Texas A. & M.'s attack, with 2,269 points.

The closest race was for the center position with Stephenson beating out Dan Currie of Michigan State by 42 points. Another tight contest was for the fourth backfield spot between Anderson and Don Clark of Ohio State's Big Ten champions.

By UNITED PRESS

Coaches Tommy Prothro of Oregon State and Len Casanova of Oregon indicated today they planned to return to these schools again next year, despite rumors linking them to other jobs.

Prothro told a banquet at Gresham Tuesday night that he plans to return to Oregon State next year. On reports linking him with a possible job at Arkansas, Prothro said, "no one at Arkansas has offered me a job. I'm very happy at Oregon State and I intend to stay there."

Casanova's name has come up in connection with the coaching vacancy at Stanford. But Casanova said he wouldn't be interested in it.

Joe Francis, Jim Shanley High Rated

New York — Oregon and Oregon State, co-champions of the Pacific Coast conference, failed to place any men on the first three All-American football teams announced by the United Press today but Ducks and Beavers were high on the list of honorable mentions.

Dick Wallen of UCLA was named to an end spot on the second team and Washington State's passing combination of Bob Newman and Don Ellingsen made the third team.

Newman piled up 372 points and he was followed in that order in the backfield balloting by Joe Francis of Oregon State with 333, Jim Shanley of Oregon with 322 and Jim Jones of Washington with 317. Thus Francis, Shanley and Jones were the 13th, 14th and 15th rated backs in the country.

Morris Named
Also making honorable mention in the backfield were Jack Morris of Oregon, 149 points; Nub Beamer of Oregon State, 22 points; Earnel Durden of Oregon State, 18 and Howard Willis of Idaho, 11.

Dreaded 'White Plague' Still Is Major Problem

Forest Park, Ill. — A doctor who has spent much of his professional life fighting tuberculosis says the once-dreaded "white plague" still is a major medical problem.

Dr. E. A. Piszczek, executive director of the suburban Cook County (Ill.) Tuberculosis Sanitarium, said there has been a popular misconception for many years that TB is "under control."

Piszczek and his staff know better. They are waging an unrelenting fight against a "forgotten" disease.

"There still is no sure preventive for tuberculosis," he said, "and there is no known cure."

People Are Lulled
Piszczek said many people are lulled by the fact that the TB death rate has declined from nearly 200 deaths per 100,000 population in 1900 to about 10 per cent in 1956.

But he said there has been no appreciable decline in the number of new cases reported yearly since 1930. Last year, he said, there were 161,276 cases and 13,810 deaths reported, and the figures for 1957 are expected to be about the same.

"Since we still have no cure for TB this means we have an ever-increasing number of victims who will need care all their lives," he said.

The growth of cities has added another headache to the problems of health officials attempting to stamp out TB.

"Tuberculosis is roughly three times as prevalent in the city as in suburban areas and three times as prevalent in the suburbs as in rural areas," Piszczek said.

Texas Aggregations Provide Top Football Fare on Turkey Day

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Texas A. & M. is rated an eight-point favorite over Texas in the top game of Thursday's Turkey program while Navy is a six-point choice over Army in the big game of Saturday's grand climax to the college football season.

Such results combined with a Rice triumph over Baylor and a Mississippi victory over Mississippi State on Saturday would just about round out the Jan. 1 bowl pairings by pitting Texas A. & M. against Mississippi in the Sugar and Navy against Rice in the Cotton. The Rose and Orange bowl pairings have already been determined.

Texas A. & M., rated the nation's top team until its 7-6 loss to Rice on Nov. 16, will clinch at least a tie for the Southwestern conference title if it beats Texas on Thursday.

Assuming the Aggies win, Rice will be on the spot Saturday although the Owls are favored by eight points over a Baylor team that hasn't won a conference game this season and is 3-5-1 against all competition. In the event of a Rice victory, the Aggies would have to settle for a Sugar bowl bid with Rice winning the honor of representing the conference in the Cotton bowl.

Navy is known to be receptive to a Cotton bowl bid if it beats Army and the odds-makers rate the Middies that solid one-touchdown favorite to turn the trick. The Cadets will not accept a bowl bid whether they win or lose.

In other Thanksgiving Day "traditionals," Brown is a six-point pick over Colgate at Providence, R.I.; Pennsylvania is rated six over Cornell at Philadelphia; Cincinnati is six over Miami of Ohio at Cincinnati, and Virginia Military Institute is two over Virginia Tech at Roanoke, Va.

Perfect Season Possible
Auburn, ranked third nationally but ineligible for a bowl bid, can round out a perfect season by beating Alabama on Saturday and the defense-minded Tigers are rated 14-point favorites to make it.

Mississippi, 5-0-0 in the Southeastern conference and 8-1 overall, is a four-point pick over Mississippi State which has a 4-2 conference mark and a 6-2 slate overall. Mississippi State could win a Sugar bowl bid with an impressive triumph and will be a Gator bowl possibility even if it loses.

In other Saturday games, Oklahoma is rated 20 over Oklahoma State; Georgia Tech seven over Georgia; Tennessee seven over Vanderbilt; Holy Cross by three over Boston College; Southern Methodist three over Texas Christian; Notre Dame 14 over Southern California; North Carolina 13 over Virginia; South Carolina eight over Wake Forest; Louisiana State eight over Tulane and Florida two over Miami, Fla.

CUBS, SOX NOT SCHEDULED
Chicago — For the first time in 25 years, the Chicago Cubs and Chicago White Sox will not meet in a pre-season exhibition game, it has been announced.

Corvallis — Oregon State's 1957 football team played before 304,995 fans during the season, more than any Beaver team in history. Athletic Director Spec Keene said today.

Police Blame Four Deaths on Money

Pasadena, Calif. — Police blamed an attorney's worries over financial problems today for a triple slaying and suicide which wiped out an entire family.

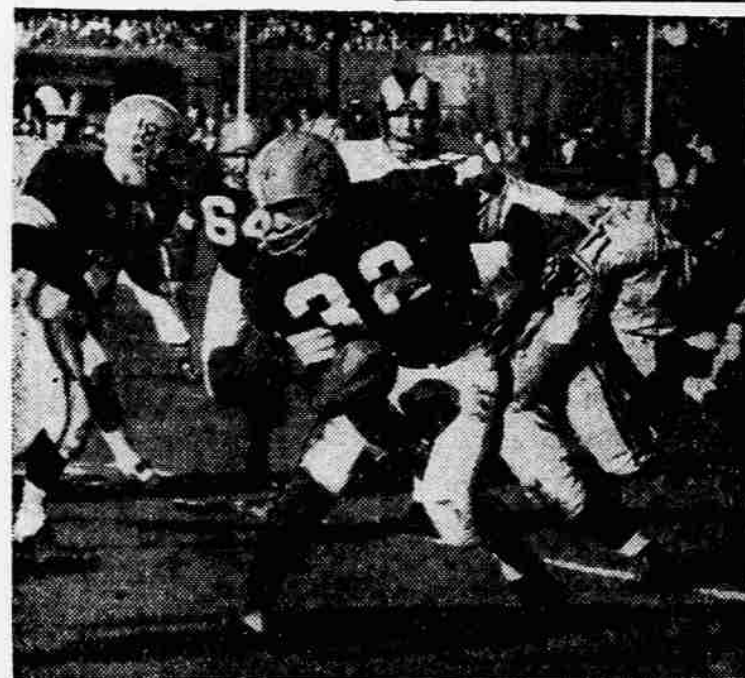

Bodies of Harvey Rawlings, 42, his 42-year-old wife Ruth, and their sons, Raymond, 11 and Robert, 16, were discovered on Tuesday night in their home in the exclusive San Rafael Hills district.

Mrs. Rawlin's nightgown-clad body was found in the hallway of the home. Bodies of the boys were discovered in the beds of their separate sleeping rooms.

Det. Capt. Carl A. Lindholm said Rawlings apparently hit his wife on the head with a hammer, killed the boys with a .38 caliber revolver, came back and shot his wife and then killed himself. His body was found in the bathroom.

Investigation of Rawlings' personal effects indicated the attorney was in financial difficulty, officers said. They said the murders and suicide probably took place early Tuesday morning, although the tragedy was not discovered until Tuesday night.

Rawlings' home was not far from the Annandale Country club and only four or five blocks from the home where Harold Oiler killed his wife and three children several years ago.

RECORD RUSHER—Jim Brown (32), Cleveland Browns' fullback, picks up a first down for the Browns in the third quarter of the Browns-Rams game in Cleveland. Brown scored four touchdowns and set a National Football League record for rushing. Frank Fuller (71) and two other unidentified Rams are in hot pursuit of Brown. Cleveland won, 45-31.

Arizona State, Auburn Head Gridiron Elevens In Offense, Defense

New York — Meet the new statistical champs — Arizona State and Auburn.

Arizona State already has clinched major-college football's offensive championship for 1957 and Auburn has wrapped up the defensive title even though each has one more game remaining.

According to National Collegiate Athletic Bureau figures released here today, both Arizona State and Auburn are too far ahead in their respective departments to be caught on Saturday.

Arizona State has averaged 449.2 yards gained per game with a total of 4,043 yards gained in nine games so far. The Arizona State also are tops in scoring with 350 points or an average of 38.9 points per game as compared with runnerup Army, who has scored 251 points in eight games for an average of 31.4 points per game.

Colorado wound up second in total offense with an average of 415.2 yards gained per game, followed by Army with a 405.0 average and Navy with 400.8. Army led in rushing offense with an average of 323.3 yards gained per game.

Mississippi was second on the ground with 322.6, Colorado third with 322.4 and Arizona State fourth with 306.7.

Navy has yielded an average of 165.6 yards per game while Georgia Tech is third with 178.3 yards given up per game.

Chessman Book Ordered Released

Los Angeles — San Quentin authorities were under court orders today to release the manuscript of convict-author Caryl Chessman's fourth book, "The Kid Was a Killer."

Superior Judge Walter R. Evans issued the order Tuesday, commenting that a refusal to do so might prolong the Chessman case for "another decade."

Besides, Judge Evans said, failure to do so would deprive the 37-year-old death row author of due process of law. Chessman argues he needs revenue from sale of the book to finance his fight to avoid the gas chamber.

Chessman was convicted of 17 counts of robbery, burglary, kidnapping and sex offenses in 1948. He was sentenced to death under California's "Little Lindbergh" law.

He has avoided death in San Quentin's gas chamber for nearly 10 years by a series of legal maneuvers made possible by the sale of the best selling novels, "Cell 2455 Death Row" and "Trial By Ordeal."

Judge Evans' ruling on the impounded book came in the midst of hearing on the 1,821-page transcript of the 1948 trial, which Chessman claims was fraudulently prepared after the death of the original court reporter in the case.

Council Approves Park Blocks for Festival
Portland — The city council informally approved the use of downtown Portland Park blocks Tuesday as a "festive center" next year to consolidate the many Rose Festival events into one location.

Rose Festival Association President William Boone said use of the 13 Park blocks for the proposed center would make the event more accessible to the public.
