

Wedding Of Interest In Valley

Central Point—Of interest in southern Oregon is news of the wedding September 21 of Miss Shirley Jean Evans, Lindsay, Ontario, Canada, to the Rev. Donald Gordon Collins. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans, Lindsay, and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. Lewis Collins and Mrs. Collins, Central Point.

The ceremony took place at the William Street Baptist church in Lindsay, with the Rev. James George reading the double-ring ceremony. Miss Florence Hisey was organist, and Mrs. Cyril Elliott, soloist.

After a honeymoon to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, New York, the newlyweds took up residence in Eastend, Saskatchewan, where the bridegroom is a pastor.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown designed in the Elizabethan mode with Chantilly lace bodice and bouffant skirt of net with bustle-type overskirt of embroidered lace. Her finger-tip length veil of lace edged nylon tulle was caught to a shell headpiece of lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of red roses, chrysanthemum and white stephanotis. Her pearls were the bridegroom's gift.

Miss Anne Evans, sister of the bride and maid of honor, was gown in coppermist taffeta with mushroom nylon net overskirt. The bridesmaids, Miss Joy Seale and Miss Deanna Arnold, wore Nile green and gold taffeta.

The attendants all wore matching headresses and mitts, and carried bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

John Evans, brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were Fred Moynes and Kenneth English.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

For traveling the bride chose a dress of dusty rose tweed with matching velvet hat and duster, and a corsage of yellow sweet heart roses.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of the Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta, Canada.

Two Dinner Clubs Book John Pettley

John Pettley, London-born Englishman who visited America and liked it well enough to remain, will speak at both the Rogue River Valley Knife and Fork club and the Siskiyou Knife and Fork club this week. He will be in Medford Wednesday, December 4, and the following evening in Ashland.

Mr. Pettley will speak on "An Englishman at Large in America." Dinner will start at 6:45 p.m. in Medford at the Rogue Valley Country club. Reservations will be checked between 7 and 7:30 p.m. at the Elks' lounge in Ashland.

The speaker was headmaster of Willington college, Millborne Port, England, before visiting the United States in 1946. He is a fellow of Royal Geographical Society and is now a member of the faculty of Webb School, Clatsop, Calif.

Following his visit here he returned to England but returned to America in 1948 to make his home.

Guests Leave

Mr. and Mrs. John Adamczyk and their five daughters of Gridley, Colo., were Thanksgiving week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Youmans, 1446 Comet rd., Medford. Mr. Adamczyk is a former employee of Fluhrer's Bakery. The family will leave the valley this afternoon.

Past Matrons

Reames Past Matron's club will meet Monday, December 2, at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain, Old Stage road. Members are reminded to take an exchange gift and a present for a needy child.

National Office Guest at Dinner

Members of the Medford Letter Carriers and auxiliary gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rose, 2110 Corona ave., for a dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lindholm of Portland. Mr. Lindholm is a vice-president of the National Association of Letter Carriers, and Mrs. Lindholm is state treasurer of the Oregon State auxiliary to the NALC.

Mr. Lindholm brought information he received during a recent regional meeting.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newland, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rose.

Episcopal Bazaar To Be Thursday

"The Partridge in a Pear Tree" will herald the opening of the annual Christmas Bazaar to be given by the women's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church Thursday, December 5. A "fascinating array of Christmas gifts, table and home decorations, fancy foods and plants will be on display from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m." the committee states.

A coffee hour will be held from 10 until 11 a.m. featuring Pillsbury's famous $50,000 rolls, and from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. luncheon will be served.

Prospect and Shady Cove Episcopal guilds will have a booth featuring "Treasures of the Forest," gifts made from woods and cones so bountiful and beautiful in their area.

Proceeds from the bazaar this year will provide additional floor covering for the church.

Chairman of the bazaar is Mrs. W. G. Agdry.

Christian Women To Hold Bazaar

Plans have been completed for the bazaar and smorgasbord to be held at the First Christian church fellowship hall, Friday, December 6, starting at 10 a.m., according to the chairman, Mrs. Lee Bailey.

Luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. with a choice of menu available. Mrs. Carl Pearson and Mrs. Glen Allen are co-chairmen for the meals. The smorgasbord will be held from 5:30 until 8 p.m.

Features of the bazaar will be a country store and free candy canes from the "candy cane tree" will be given to all children attending.

Proceeds from the sale will be used for the benevolent work of the Women's fellowship.

The next meeting of the fellowship will be held Wednesday, December 4, at 11 a.m. in the Christian church sanctuary annex. All working members and friends of the fellowship are invited to attend the noon luncheon served by Troxell V circle.

The Christmas theme, "An Experience of Fellowship," will be conducted by Mrs. Wayne Troxell, Byerlee VI circle, at 1:30 p.m. assisted by Mrs. Bill North, chairman of devotions.

Phoenix Women To Hold Bazaar

Phoenix — The Christmas bazaar and cafeteria supper sponsored by the Women's association, First Presbyterian church, Phoenix, will be held Friday, December 6, at the church.

The bazaar will start at 2 p.m. and many articles for Christmas gifts and decorations will be for sale in the booths. Included will be Christmas candles, wreaths, and many handmade items. Coffee and cake will be served to guests from 2 until 4 p.m.

The cafeteria supper will be served starting at 5 p.m.

Mrs. M. A. Williams is in charge of the bazaar arrangements with Mrs. Rex Nicodemus and Mrs. Merle Simmonds in charge of the supper. Women interested in making contributions to these projects may contact any of the chairmen.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lamb, 634 Iowa street, Ashland, are shown here with their sons, Richard (second from right) Stanford university student, and Jimmy Drew, during their stay at the university for the Stanford-California football game. The picture was taken backstage before one of the performances of the annual Stanford Gaities, annual Big Game student show. Richard Lamb wrote the music and lyrics for some of the numbers appeared in others and served as assistant director for the production staff. His name occurred on the Gaities program no less than 11 different places. A member of Ram's Head, he is now playing the leading role in the Stanford Player's premiere production of the children's show, "Magic in the Sky" which opened Friday. (Anita Fowler photo)

Dinner Announced By Townsend Club

Townsend club will serve a turkey dinner Wednesday, December 4, at 12:30 p.m. and a program will be given after a short business session. Plans for the Christmas party, December 18, will be made.

At last week's club meeting three members were honored with birthday cakes. Mrs. Lulu Springer was present after spending several months in Portland. A general resume of the club's activities for the past year was read by the treasurer, Mrs. Ida Kelly.

The fourth district council will be held in Medford in January. The meeting closed with readings. Visitors are always welcome.
