

Three Participate In College Event

Portland — Three Medford students recently participated in the third annual community program sponsored by the Associated Women Students of Lewis and Clark college. The purpose of the program, involving 160 young women, was to observe and assist in the work of various social agencies of Portland. It was also hoped that it would stimulate interest in volunteer service after graduation.

Medford participants and the agencies they visited are Misses Melva Gebhard and Sally Mongold, Boys' and Girls' Aid Society; and Miss Jonna Henson, Family Counseling Service. Miss Gebhard, an elementary education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gebhard, 1519 North Riverside avenue.

Griffin Creek Club Announces Film

A film entitled "The Inside Story" will be presented at the next meeting of the Griffin Creek School Mother's club, Wednesday, December 4, at 1:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Mothers of fifth graders will serve refreshments. Mrs. Harold Kanyon and Mrs. Joe Killingsworth will be in charge.

Baby sitting services will be provided.

and Miss Mongold is a medical technology major and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mongold, Eagle Point. Miss Henson, who decided as to her major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henson, 200 Westerlund drive.

All three are freshmen.

Grove Gardeners Hold Annual Event

Members of Grove Garden club and their guests attended the annual turkey dinner recently at Oak Grove schoolhouse. Thirty-four attended.

A business meeting followed, with Mrs. W. H. Arnold presiding. The club passed a resolution calling for protection of the turtle or mourning dove, stating that the bird is of benefit to farms and gardens.

Mrs. A. O. Floyd, Medford, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, was a guest. She spoke of the activities of the federation and of the benefits to be derived from federation membership.

Mrs. B. H. Belknap of Perrydale was introduced and gave a demonstration on gift wrapping. Corsages were presented to Mrs. Belknap and Mrs. Floyd.

The display table contained several arrangements of dried material made by Mrs. Henry Zacharisen and placed in brass bowls. Mrs. L. M. Hamilton displayed a cornucopia of fresh fruits and nuts. Mrs. C. Shores an arrangement of berried shrub branches and Mrs. Arnold of fruit and nuts around a fresh pineapple.

Mrs. Zacharisen was awarded a prize.

Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wimer, Mrs. Floyd and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McMann. Mrs. Belknap, the Wimers and the McManns became members of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Erskine and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brewold were the serving committee. The tables were decorated with lace mats, berried shrubs and colorful nut cups.

Annual Holiday Party To Be Given by Club

Gettogether club annual Christmas party will be held Wednesday, December 4, at 1 p.m. Members are reminded to take a dish towel with their name worked on it as a gift and something for a box for needy families.

Club Party

Central Point—Central Point Garden club will hold a Christmas party Wednesday, December 4 at the home of Mrs. C. W. Anhorn. The meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m. with dessert and will include a plant exchange.

Richard Alley of Alley Lumber company was named "Boss of the Year" at the 1957 annual Boss night dinner given by Rogue chapter, National Secretaries association. Mr. Alley is shown here with his secretary, Mrs. Virginia Schuster, who is chapter president. Since Mr. Alley did not know he was to be honored by the chapter, he went elk hunting the week of the dinner and the award was accepted by Ben Evans, also of the firm. When he returned, Mr. Alley received the statuette from Mrs. Schuster.

Christmas Parties Planned By County Extension Units

Four Home Extension units have scheduled meetings this week, another one will meet December 11, and one has postponed its meeting until Friday, December 13.

A Christmas party for Medford Parents unit will be held at the home of Mrs. Myrlin Scott, 601 West Tenth street, Tuesday, December 3, at 7:30 p.m.

Those attending are reminded to take a homemade gift for the Christmas tree exchange and canned food for the Christmas basket.

Hostesses will be Mrs. C. P. Smets and Mrs. J. H. Fields. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Arthur Hertzger at SP 2-2480.

The Reed Creek group will meet Tuesday, December 3, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Ben Gardner, Crater Lake highway. The lesson will be "Consumer Buying" and a gift exchange will be held. Price limit on the gift is $1, according to unit officials.

Meeting Wednesday, December 4, is the Lake Creek unit at the home of Mrs. James Edge. The place of meeting has been changed from what was previously announced. The meeting will start at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Joe Arens and Mrs. Leiland M. Charley will be leaders for the project lesson on "Consumer Buying of Foods." The Christmas party will be held with gifts costing not more than $1 being exchanged.

Members who have not been contacted as to what food they should take are asked to call Mrs. Henry Meyer, luncheon chairman.

Child care will be provided at the home of Mrs. Ernie Payne, Brownsboro, and mothers are asked to take a sack lunch for their child. A charge will be made for their care.

Instead of the annual gift exchange in the Upper Applegate unit those attending the Wednesday

Sisters to Hold Annual Election; Luncheon Planned

Pythian Sisters will meet Tuesday, December 3, at 8 p.m. at the Pythian building. Past chiefs will be in charge of the opening and closing ceremonies, and Mrs. Dorothy Jack will be initiated. All officers and members are requested to wear formal gowns if possible.

Members of the staff will practice today at 3 p.m. with the officers. All those who have any part in the initiation service are requested to attend.

Election of officers for the new year will be held Tuesday evening during the meeting. Mrs. George Bryant and Mrs. Harry Bryant are in charge of refreshments for the evening.

Past Chiefs' club will meet Wednesday at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Don Ross, Ross lane, for a potluck luncheon. Members are asked to take articles they may have for the box to be sent to the Pythian home. During the meeting following the luncheon, plans will be made for the annual Christmas party.

16. Jackson county extension units won a second prize for their display on safety in the home.
