

Lodge to Confer Rank of Knight

The rank of knight will be conferred upon a class of esquires tomorrow at 8 p.m. by members of Talisman lodge, Knights of Pythias, in the Pythian building at Fifth and Grape streets.

Report of the nominating committee will be ready. The usual social hour will follow the meeting. Knights visiting in the valley are invited, said James O'Duane, chancellor commander.

A business meeting of officers of Boy Scout Troop 16, sponsored by Talisman lodge, will be held at the home of Jimmy O'Duane, 128 South Columbus avenue, starting 7:30 p.m. Friday, December 6.

Master to Visit Medford Lodge

Roy V. Terney, grand master, will make his official visit to the Medford lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Wednesday, December 10, at the lodge hall.

Following a turkey dinner at 6:30 p.m. the grand master will address the lodge.

At the last meeting of the group members who had birthdays during November were honored with birthday cakes. They included John Daniel, H. B. Benton, L. O. Howard, Frank Perl and Grover Gully.

If there are not enough hot dish-holders for a large buffet dinner, wrap magazines in aluminum foil.

Man Elected PTSA Head

William T. J. Andrews of Camp White accepted the office of president for Eagle Point High School Parent-Teacher Student association at the November meeting. Mr. Andrews was elected unanimously.

A panel of service men and women spoke on the advantages of enlistments in the various branches of the service, and how the high school graduate could best be advised and benefit from his selection. Captain Simpson represented the United States Air Force, Chief Boe spoke for the Navy, Sergeant Keyes for the Marines, Master Sergeant Liput for the Army, and Miss Hawkins, a sergeant in the Women's army corps, spoke for all of the women's branches of the services, and the opportunities offered young women graduates. In stressing the advantages of the particular branch of the service he represented, each member of the panel brought out one thing that the services had in common—the educational opportunities offered both in college courses and in career training.

The project chosen for the year was to attempt to purchase a turntable for the public address system in the gymnasium. A short skit, presented by Eugene Edwards and Kenneth Williams, portrayed the interests of the PTA magazine.

The flag salute was led by Clarence Davies, and refreshments were served by mothers of students in the Junior class. The auction and dance held Saturday night as a fund-raiser reportedly raised sufficient funds to meet the expense of the proposed budget.

Decorative Theme For Women's Club Is Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving was the theme for the Scottish Rite Women's club meeting held Monday evening in the Masonic temple.

Cards were played, with the bridge prize going to Mrs. Howard E. Goldsmith, the pinocle high score to Mrs. Frank L. Rauch, and the caftana award to Mrs. Neville Eldridge.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Joseph E. Crawford, Mrs. Rauch, Mrs. Philip E. Dopp, and Mrs. Orville C. Hamer. Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Dopp became members.

The 18th degree of Scottish Rite was presented to a class of candidates by Wyles E. Berry and cast, under the direction of Clay M. Lee.

Leslie M. Scott, Portland, 33rd degree Mason and sovereign grand inspector general in Oregon and grand chancellor of the supreme council, 33rd degree, was guest speaker for the Scottish Rite bodies.

The men joined the ladies for the coffee hour.

The refreshment tables had arrangements of cornucopias filled with fall fruits and gourds, miniature turkeys and pinocchio chrysanthemums. About the room were baskets of spoon chrysanthemums.

Mr. Scott also addressed the group during the coffee hour.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Fred A. Purdin and Mrs. Leonard C. Scott, Central Point.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party to be held at the Medford hotel, December 9. It will be a no host luncheon, at 12 noon.

All Scottish Rite Masons wives, widows, mothers, daughters and sisters are welcome.

Monday night, December 2, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic temple, Fred A. Purdin and cast will confer the 30th degree of Scottish Rite Freemasonry, upon a class of candidates.

Baptist Women Plan Prayer Day

Baptist women's day of prayer will be observed Friday, December 6, at 2 p.m. at Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene way drive at Ridgeway. This day, devoted to strengthening the fellowship between Baptist denominations through prayer, is sponsored each year by the Women's department of the Baptist World Alliance. All Baptist women of the Medford area have been invited to participate.

The theme for the day is "Now Is the Time—Now Is the Day." Most of the program will be devoted to prayer for schools, seminaries, foreign students, and to praying for the six continents where Baptists have work. All Baptist women and any other interested women are invited to attend. Nursery care will be provided.

Meeting Planned In Yuletide Theme

Christmas will be the theme for the monthly dinner meeting of Christian Business and Professional Women to be held Monday, December 2, at 6 p.m., at the Pioneer room, Hotel Jackson.

Mrs. Eloise Winklebleck will give the special feature, "Keeping Christmas." Mrs. Richard Jones will be guest devotional speaker, and Christmas music will be provided.

New officers, who were installed at the November dinner meeting, will preside.

All women of the community are welcome to attend the meetings of the group, held the first Monday of each month. Reservations may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Ada Caldwell, MU 2-4882.

Gift Wrapping Is Demonstrated

A demonstration on gift wrapping was given at the last meeting of Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority International, held Monday evening.

Miss Arnetta Phillips was guest for the evening. Miss Phillips, from Portland, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Howard Phillips, a chapter member.

Mrs. Otto Ewaldsen from Swem's store gave the demonstration on gift wrapping with emphasis on the art of making fancy bows.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Chester Peterson and Mrs. Charles Clark.

December 9 is the date for the only meeting to be held during December. Mrs. Jackie Adams and Mrs. George Lee will serve as co-hostesses at the home of Mrs. William Raymond, 728 Beekman street.

Combine peanut butter, chili sauce and bits of bacon as a stuffing for celery.
