SHADY COVE-TRAIL Extension Unit Meets

By EVALYN P. WATSON

Shady Cove-Trail—The regular meeting of the Rogue Elk Extension Unit was held Wednesday, Nov. 20, at the home of Mrs. Irvin Ross of Trail with Mrs. H. R. Corliss, chairman, presiding. Cohostesses were Mrs. Henry Rogers and Mrs. A. W. Worth. Sixteen members were present.

Christmas gifts for the Ganado Mission were brought and given to Mrs. Kenneth Lacy who will mail the toys along with money to buy candy. Mrs. Chester Wilson presented a lesson on "credit buying."

An educational report on the Safety Fair in Medford was given by Mrs. Alma Mallory who represented the Rogue Elk Extension unit at the fair. The Elk-Trail Forestry Squirrels sent cookies to the meeting to be sold. The money from the sale of the cookies will go to the 4-H.

Mrs. Nettie Williams of Shady Cove has purchased a home in Medford and plans to move as soon as she is able to dispose of her property and two trailers in Shady Cove. The sale was handled by Darling real estate of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Welch of Long Beach are home on furlough and will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Bob's mother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smart, of the Rainbow auto motel. Mrs. Welch is the former Raedene Hicks of Shady Cove.

The final confirmation instructions were held Monday at the home of Mrs. Bill Brewster of Trail with 14 persons present. The confirmation service in St. Martin's Episcopal church will be held Sunday, Dec. 1 at 3 p.m. at the Shady Cove school gym with Bishop Carman of Portland administering the Sacrament of Confirmation to 10 members.

This service is open to the public and all interested persons have been invited. A social hour with refreshments will follow the service and child care will be provided. The regular Sunday morning service will be held at 9 a.m. in the school gym.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cross of Shady Cove had a family dinner on Thanksgiving at their home with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Williams and son, Gary, of Shady Cove and granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Andrews, and son, Michael.

A number of Shady Cove and Trail families planned big family dinners and reunions over the Thanksgiving holiday and others took trips to have dinner with friends and relatives elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Waltz and family of Shady Cove spent Thanksgiving with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Britt and family in Bandon. The Britt are former Shady Cove residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leaming and family of Shady Cove went to Klamath Falls, where they will spend Thanksgiving with Ed's sister and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers of Elk Creek, Trail, had their family home Thanksgiving. They expected their daughter, Arlene, home from the Milo academy at Canyonville Wednesday followed by the arrival of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rogers from St. Helena accompanied by Mrs. Eugene Rogers' brother, Tom Yeoman, of Paradise, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watson of Trail had their two sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. John Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Watson and children of Shady Cove at their home for Thanksgiving dinner as well as Mrs. Watson's sister, Mrs. George Hill of Red Bluff, Calif., and another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wylie, of Sacramento, Calif.

Arriving early to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kee of Shady Cove are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Chamberlain and sons, Terry, Larry and Gary and David of Spokane. The Kees also expected their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kee, and daughter of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kee and daughter, Laura, of Klamath Falls.

Many residents along Crater Lake highway in the Reese creek area found no Sunday papers in the Mail Tribune boxes last Sunday mainly for the reason that there were no paper boxes. Sometime over the weekend trouble-makers removed a number of the boxes and even went so far as to take down the Butte Falls directional sign at the intersection of the Butte Falls-Crater Lake junction.

Returning from a nine-day successful elk hunting trip into the John Day country were Randall and Monte Axtell, Wyles Berry and Frank Dolenshek of Trail and Ray Briggs and Slim Leiders of Shady Cove. Between them, the group got four elk.

A reminder to residents and voters of the Shady Cove-Trail district on the election to be held Dec. 2 from 2 until 8 p.m. at the fire hall to choose one new director for the Shady Cove-Trail Fire district and also to vote on whether or not to purchase a new fire truck. This piece of equipment would necessarily have to be paid for by an increase in taxes.

The Shady Cove-Trail Lions club and Lady Lions have changed their place of meeting to the Rogue River lodge and future meetings will be dinner meetings. The first meeting at the new location was a zone meeting for the Lions Nov. 27 and the Lady Lions will meet there for the first time Dec. 4.

Newcomers to Shady Cove are Mr. and Mrs. Bud Coulton of Eagle Point who are renting the apartment in the Fagade home.

Mrs. Bertha Wooley of Portland has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Linden of Shady Cove and while here had a pre-Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Linden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Telman, of Eagle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goode and family of the Rainbow cafe, Shady Cove, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Goode's mother, Mrs. Zella Tullis, of the Laurelhurst, road, Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Pflueke and daughter, Jeannie Marie, of Santa Rosa, Calif., spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Pflueke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Segessenman, of Shady Cove.

Guests on Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fagade of Shady Cove were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Stone and family and Mrs. Kay Kohler of Medford and Mrs. Kohler's grandson, Douglas Harrigan of San Francisco. Mrs. Kohler is a cousin of Mrs. Fagade and a former resident of Shady Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larson of Ashland were overnight guests and spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turner of Trail. Other guests for Thanksgiving dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle C. Adams of Medford.

A surprise was in store for Ed Brown of Shady Cove when he returned to his home Saturday. The surprise was a fat goose in a crate in the middle of the kitchen. Reason for the goose being in the middle of the kitchen floor was that it was the door prize for the Shady Cove PTA variety show with Ed's wife, Shirley, being the lucky recipient. Latest word from Shirley was that the family menu had been planned for ham for Thanksgiving but now goose might be added provided an executioner could be found.

Mrs. Stella Geary of Trail had Thanksgiving dinner with her son, Norman Geary, and family in Medford, and another son, Delbert Geary, of Grants Pass at the Norman Geary home. Delbert's wife, the former Nancy Harris of Medford, spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Walla, Ore.

According to yearly custom several Shady Cove families have a joint Thanksgiving dinner. This year the group consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Briggs and daughter, Phyllis, Mrs. Thelma Reinling, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hopkins, all of Shady Cove had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chubb.

Mrs. Blanche Zimmerlee of Elk Creek, Trail, had her daughter, Mrs. Lena Wilkinson, and granddaughter, Camille, of Central Point as guests for dinner on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Osborne of Shady Cove are parents of a boy born Nov. 23 at Sacred Heart hospital in Medford. This is the couple's third child and second boy. Mrs. Ellen Osborne who has been keeping house for her sons, Leroy and Bob in Colfax, Wash., will come to help take care of the mother and new baby. LeRoy is recruiting officer in Colfax.

Carroll Watson of Shady Cove entertained at his home Saturday evening with a stag H. F. session with guests bringing their own records to play and a general musical evening being enjoyed by all. Guests attending were Paul Pearson and Johnny Garmann of Prospect, Marcu Dey, Dr. A. J. Loeffler, A. Myklebye of Trail, Bob Rogers of Elk Creek, Trail, Bob Vincent, Ed Brown, Dr. Howard Ferguson, Ted Conway and Ernest Golberg of Shady Cove and Harold Cook and Charles Cook of Medford. Refreshments were served during the evening. Paul Pearson and Johnny Garmann of Prospect gave the set a check-up eliminating a lot of unnecessary hum and flutter.

Mrs. Bob Walker and sons, Bill and Craig, of Eugene, were house guests of Mrs. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burdett, of Shady Cove. The Burdett's recently returned from a trip to California which they took with their daughter, Mrs. Mildred Frisbie, and daughter-in-law, to see their son, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burdett, of Milpetas, Calif. Tom is stationed at Moffat Field.

Mrs. Esther Deeder, sister of Mrs. Mary Hopkins of Shady Cove returned to her home in Kellogg, Idaho last weekend.

Mrs. Ernest Segessenman and Mrs. Dick Bartuss of Shady Cove were among those attending the annual meeting and workshop of the Cancer Society last week at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Howe have returned from their trip to San Pablo, Calif., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Steacy.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

EMMETT WATSON woke up one morning in the heavily curtained guest room of a small English inn. He could not get his lamp lit, so he summoned the chambermaid. "I had a fine sleep," he reported, "but now I'd like to read a bit, and want this lamp fixed as quickly as possible."

"I'm sorry I cannot oblige you, sir," she said, "but in this village, there is no wick for the rested."

A grumpy citizen was complaining about the short dresses being worn by young girls in his town. "What would people say," he asked the leading banker, "if your wife was galivantin' around in shorts?" "I imagine they'd say," sighed the banker, "that I must have married her for her money."

A Boy Scout admitted to his father that his daffy good deed was not quite up to snuff this once. "I helped an old lady across the street like you suggested," he said, "but she got hit by a taxi."

St. Louis, Mo. — Charles G. Gelb, 64, like many another man, pulled the wrong bill from his wallet and accepted the wrong change. But he ran back faster than most to collect the difference. Gelb said he had given the tire store cashier a $1,000 instead of a $100 bill.

Medford, the honored guests, Mrs. Marshall Caster and daughter, Beth, and Mrs. Dean Collins, and the hostess, Mrs. Wayman Bergman.

The regular meeting of the Young Citizen's club was held Thursday, Nov. 14, at the Parish hall. Plans were made for a Christmas banquet to be held at Mary's Casa for members. Discussion on obtaining more sports equipment was also held. Benny Nork showed pictures of Hawaii taken on his trip there with his family this past summer. A social meeting was held Friday, Nov. 29.

4-H Club News

The Nimble Thimbells

The Nimble Thimbells 4-H Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Frink. The meeting was called to order by President Carolee Kuest. Colleen Franek led in the flag salute and 4-H pledge. The secretary called the roll and read minutes of last meeting.

There was no old business. Under new business the motion was made and passed to have reporters from the workshops. Mrs. Frink told us of coming 4-H events for November.

Meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by Ruth Daniels, Kristy Chamberlain and Pasty Charley. Next meeting is Dec. 14 at Mrs. Frink's home.
