A complete ham dinner will be served in the school cafeteria from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Mrs. Emerson Anderson is in charge of the dinner, assisted by mothers of the sixth graders.

The carnival is the association's annual fund raising project and all children, parents and friends are invited to attend.

Returns

Mrs. Helen A. Wilson, 621 South Holly street, returned Sunday from San Francisco where she spent the Thanksgiving holiday. She was joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Horrell, Phoenix, Ariz.

To Nominate

Medford barracks, Veterans of World War I, and auxiliary, will meet Wednesday, December 4, at 229 North Bartlett street at 8 p.m. Both groups will nominate officers.

A fanciful concoction, but an easily made one, using canned pears, is this Pearadise Cake Flambe. Use 1 No. 2 1/2 can Bartlett pears, one 17-ounce package orange cake mix, 1/4 cup butter, 1/2 cup brown sugar, sugar cubes and lemon extract.

Drain pears thoroughly. Melt butter in bottom of 9-inch round cake pan. Add brown sugar and cook until melted. Place pears, cut side down in sugar mixture with tips pointing in. Prepare cake batter according to directions. Pour over pears to within 1/2 inch of top of pan. Use remaining batter for cup cakes. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 45-50 minutes or until done. To serve, invert onto serving plate. Sprinkle sugar cubes with lemon extract and place in pear cavities. Light just before serving. Cubes will burn one minute. Makes 7-8 servings.

Actor Declared Real Discovery For Footlighters

One of the "real discoveries" in tryouts for "The Wooden Dish", three-act drama to be presented by Medford Footlighters beginning December 10, is Robbie Robbins, local radio announcer and former drama student. He plays the itchy-footed, earthy character, Ed Mason, in the piece, according to Leslie Boardman, Footlighter president.

Mr. Robbins, who has been in Medford less than a year, has been a radio announcer for six years, three of them in Honolulu, and one-and-a-half in Seattle. He attended the University of Washington and Seattle Pacific college, taking part in numerous campus productions.

Another newcomer to Footlighter production is Mrs. B. A. Cope, Ashland, cast in the role of Susan Dennison, 18-year-old granddaughter in the play. Mrs. Cope, wife of an Ashland doctor and mother of three small children, said she was "flabbergasted" when she received the part of such a youthful character. Fellow actors however, describe her as "very convincing" in the role.

Mrs. Cope studied drama at Sullins College in Bristol, Va. and at the University of Indiana, taking part in several college as well as little theater productions. She is a member of the Tudor guild, but although she has lived in Ashland for eight years, has never tried out for any of the local theater productions until now.

Tickets for "The Wooden Dish" which will run for five nights at the Fairground Theater beginning Tuesday, December 3, will be available at Purucker's Piano house, Swem's, Office Stationery and from members of the cast.

Buying of Foods To Be Unit Topic

Westside Extension unit will study "Consumer Buying of Foods" at a meeting to be held Thursday, December 5, at 10:45 a.m. at the Grange hall in Central Point.

Leaders for the lesson will be Mrs. Donald Ross and Mrs. Robert Russell. The annual Christmas gift exchange will be held, with gifts to be valued at no more than 50 cents. Members are also asked to take an ornament for the Christmas tree, and table service.

Child care will be provided at the home of Mrs. Eunice Jones, 235 Laurel street, Central Point.

To Elect

Election of officers will be held at a meeting of Wenonah club to be held Thursday, December 5. The club members will assemble at 10 a.m. at Redman hall to tie a comforter for a needy family. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon, and the business meeting will follow.

Central Point PTA Announces Dinner

Central Point—Plans for the annual chili dinner sponsored by Central Point Parent-Teacher association were announced at the monthly business meeting of the association held November 21 in the cafeteria of Jewett Elementary school.

The dinner will be held Thursday, December 5, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the school. There will be no charge for pre-school age children.

This dinner is an annual event proceeds of which go towards a scholarship in teacher education, and projects at both the Jewett Elementary school and the Central Point Elementary and Junior High school. These projects vary from year to year, but mainly are the purchase of educational equipment, pictures and records. The proposed 1957-58 budget calls for $225 towards the purchase of this school equipment.

Guest speaker for the last meeting was Maj. Gen. J. R. Hicks. His topic was the H-bomb, radio-active fallout, and how citizens can be prepared to take care of themselves and others in the event such an emergency should arise. A film on the H-bomb was shown also.

Hungarian Dancers Who Appeared Here Publish New Book

Members of Jackson County Music association will be especially interested in the book, "Leap Through the Curtain," recently added to the Medford Public library. Written by Nora Kovach and Istvan Rabovsky, the Hungarian artists of the ballet who performed in Medford under the auspices of the Association on November 9, their book tells the true story of their lives, their romance, and their escape to freedom from behind the Iron Curtain.

This escape was motivated only by their innate love of liberty since, as stars of the ballet, the authors were actually persons of privilege in their own country, enjoying the life of luxury that is furnished such artists in Russia.

The young artists contrast the styles and training of Russian and Western ballet and express their belief that both Russia and the West have something to learn from the other in respect to the art. It is their own purpose to do all they can to unite the best they have seen and learned in their two worlds.

The first visiting art show ever brought to Medford by the Southern Oregon Society of Artists opened last night at Lusk's Piano house, 333 South Riverside avenue. The exhibit, which will remain open until after Christmas, is made up of works by members of the Coos Bay Artists' league.

Twenty-seven oils, water colors and works of other media are included. One portrait formerly hung in a Seattle museum and is said to be particularly interesting.

The public is invited to view the show any time during the store hours, which are 9:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. Victor G. Wrigglesworth is chairman in charge of the event for the Southern Oregon society.

Documentary Film To Be Shown for Philatelic Club

A filmed documentary, "It's Just a Postage Stamp," put out by the Netherland's Philatelic Service, will be shown for members of the Southern Oregon Stamp club and guests at the meeting to be held Thursday, December 4, at 8 p.m. in room 2 of the Girls' Community club. Any interested person is invited to attend.

The film starts with the stamp before it is designed, and follows through each step until it is ready to be used on postage. The film will take approximately 25 minutes to show.

Club business for the evening will be the report of the nominations committee and election of new officers.

Chapter C P of the PEO sisterhood will meet at the home of Mrs. Jack Sanborn, 2180 Capitol avenue Wednesday, December 4. Mrs. C. H. Paske will be assistant hostess.
