

Announce Trothal Of Two Students

Eagle Point — The engagement of Miss Ruth Dobra to Russell Ragsdale was announced at a party at the Dobra home during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Dobra is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dobra, Hillsboro, and is a graduate of Mulnomah School of Bible at Portland. She is currently attending Southern Oregon college.

Mr. Ragsdale is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ragsdale of route 1, box 92B, Eagle Point and is a senior at Southern Oregon college.

No wedding date has been set.

Holiday Wedding Planned by Pair

Shady Cove — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goode, Shady Cove, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Michael James Kaiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kaiser, Eagle Point.

Miss Goode is a student at Eagle Point High school, and her fiancé is a graduate of the same school.

The couple plans to be married during the Christmas holidays.

Three Play With College Orchestra

Corvallis — Miss Janet Ann Carter, Miss Betty J. Hershiser and Thomas D. Robertson of Medford are members this year of the Oregon State College-Corvallis Symphony orchestra. Miss Carter plays the timpani, Miss Hershiser the viola, and young Robertson plays the string bass and tuba.

They were selected among the 50 orchestra members by the music department, following auditions of interested students and Corvallis townspeople.

First community concert of the group was presented November 26. A second concert is planned for winter term at OSC and a children's concert is planned spring term as a special event for youngsters of the Corvallis area. John A. O'Connor, associate professor of music at the college, is conductor.

Miss Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter, 1111 Reddy avenue, is a sophomore enrolled in the lower division of liberal arts. A sophomore in engineering, Miss Hershiser is a daughter of the C. D. Hershisers, 1255 Sweet road. Thomas Robertson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Robertson, 1028 West Ninth street.

Ceremony At Church Weds Couple

Central Point — Miss Linda Lou Baer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baer, 6369 Ponderosa street, Central Point, became the bride of Walter Leon Brenner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman E. Brenner, route 1, box 579, Central Point, in a ceremony held Wednesday, November 20, at the Central Point Church of Christ.

The Rev. Mr. Jean M. Shelley officiated at the double ring 8:30 o'clock evening ceremony, attended by 25 relatives of the couple.

Given in marriage by her brother Barry E. Baer, the bride wore a white knit suit with white satin hat and short veil. She carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Miss Nancy Faye Eck was maid of honor. She wore a baby blue colored suit and carried a pink carnation bouquet. Miss Virginia Bean was candlelighter. She wore a pale green frock with a camellia corsage.

Franklin Saxbury served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Baer wore a black dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Brenner chose a black turquoise and pink print dress with black accessories. They both had pink carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Brenner home. Miss Eck cut and served the wedding cake while Mrs. Don Boone, aunt of the bride from Warsaw, Ind., served the coffee and Miss Virginia Bean poured the punch.

The couple traveled to California and Nevada on their wedding trip. The bridegroom, a commissaryman third class in the United States Navy, is a graduate of Crater High school. He reported to Bremerton, Wash., following the wedding and is now serving aboard the USS Midway. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school.

Meeting Planned For Association

Jacksonville — Mrs. Marion Niedermeyer will entertain the Women's association of Jacksonville First Presbyterian church at her home on Route 2, Tuesday, December 10, for a 1 p.m. desert luncheon.

Installation of officers will be held during the business meeting with Mrs. Robert Bridge as installing officer. President of the association is Mrs. John Keaveny. All women of the church are invited to attend.

Miss Susie Drake

Miss Susie Drake, Steven Butterfield Set Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Drake, 1101 Loal street, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Susie Drake, to Steven B. Butterfield, son of Mrs. Rhea Hockema, Sonora, Calif., and Wallace Hockema, 105 Tripp street, Medford.

Miss Drake is a junior at St. Mary's High school and Mr. Butterfield is a junior at Medford Senior High school.

The marriage ceremony has been set for next June 26 at the home of the bride's parents.

Family Ceremony Weds Pair

Ashland — Ashland First Presbyterian church was the setting Saturday, November 9, for the wedding of Miss Sheyla Rae Thompson and Robert Clyde Lake. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Thompson, 4850 South Pacific highway. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Lake, Willow Ranch, Calif.

The Rev. B. J. Holland officiated at the two o'clock afternoon wedding attended by members of the couple's immediate families.

The bride wore a white faille sheath dress styled with empire waist and draped back and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white stephanotis encircled with a white orchid.

Miss Sharon Larimer, Medford, cousin of the bride, was her attendant. She wore a deep turquoise colored taffeta frock.

Charles Lake served as best man for his brother.

Baskets of white and pink chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Harold Sloper home at 4756 South Pacific highway for about 100 relatives and friends. Miss Carol Ballard cut and served the wedding cake while Mrs. Larry Larimer, aunt of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Ernest James, all Medford, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Sandra Owens was in charge of the guest book.

The couple are making their home at 430 North Grape street, Medford, following a wedding trip to California and Nevada. The bride attended Phoenix High school and Southern Oregon college and is employed as an IBM operator at Bear Creek orchards. Mr. Lake attended Modoc Union High school and served with the United States Navy for four years. He is employed by Cascade Wood Products.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grubbs Jr., and Denise and Karen, Kenneth Grubbs, all St. Helena, Calif., relatives of the bride; Miss Jo Anne Sims and Mrs. Grace Hogen, grandmother of the bridegroom, both Lakeview, Ore. the bridegroom's parents and brothers and sisters, Willow Ranch, Calif., and Miss Lorna Chapman, Eugene.

Here's a menu item for Sunday breakfast or brunch: waffles dusted with confectioner's sugar and topped liberally with thawed, frozen strawberries.
