Home Rites Last Sunday Wed Couple

Jacksonville — Miss Judith Ann Jeschke became the bride of Larry Grant Robinson in a ceremony held Sunday, December 1, at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Millard, Eagle Point. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. A. G. Cleveland, Jacksonville, and Curt Jeschke, Phoenix. She has been making her home in Eugene. Mr. Robinson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Robinson, Eugene.

The Rev. Mr. Millard officiated at the three o'clock afternoon ceremony attended by 45 relatives and friends. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations decorated the Millard home for the wedding. The Millards sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pink wool suit with pink accessories and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Robert Dallaire, Los Angeles, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a champagne colored dress with white headpiece and corsage of pink carnations.

Kenneth H. Kivett, Eugene, served as best man for his brother-in-law.

The couple will make their home at Westwood court, Eugene, after a wedding trip to the Oregon coast. The bride attended Crater High school and was employed as a receptionist for the Northwest Photographic studio, Eugene. The bridegroom attended Springfield High school and Oregon Technical Institute and is employed as a commercial artist by the Eugene Register-Guard.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included relatives of the bridegroom. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Robinson, parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Kivett, brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sloss, brother-in-law and sister, all Eugene. Relatives of the bride included Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rhoten and son James, Eugene, uncle and aunt, Miss Sharon Jeschke, Klamath Falls, cousin, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dallaire, and son, Bobby, Los Angeles.

The bride attended Grants Pass High school and Pacific University. She was employed during the summer at a lookout by the Southern Oregon Forestry Service. Mr. Foy attended Oregon State college and Southern Oregon college and is a partner in the Medford Air Service with which he is a pilot.

Altrusans to Hold Party at Dippels

The annual Christmas party of Medford Altrusa club will be held at the home of Mrs. Adrienne Dippel, where it has been held every year since the club was organized in 1952.

The event will take place Friday, December 13, at 7:30 p.m. Desert will be served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dippel, Mrs. Margaret Miles, Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, Miss Ruth Kilbourn and Mrs. Enid Rankin. Mrs. Francis Schuhard will be in charge of music for the evening.

A novel contest will be conducted and a prize given for the best dressed doll brought by members as their Christmas gift for the children of the valley who are to receive Christmas baskets. The dolls will be given to the Lady Lions who are assembling, cleaning and dressing dolls for the annual project.

The prize doll will be christened "Miss Altrusa of 1957." All present will be judges, voting for their favorite. Mrs. Miles will be in charge of the contest.

Other gifts for teen-agers, such as costume jewelry, will be part of the Christmas gift project. Members and guests will exchange gifts and a social evening is planned.

At a luncheon meeting November 30 the public affairs committee, headed by Mrs. Bertha Haskins, reported on the recent Safety Fair for which Altrusa had a booth. The committee plans to take the club exhibit, which was a map of the city which visitors to the booth marked with red flags at points considered to be traffic hazards, to the next meeting of the Medford Safety council.

Women of Rotary Plan Yule Party

The annual Christmas party of Women of Rotary will be held at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 11, in the home of Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, 1 Eastwood drive. Gifts not to exceed fifty cents in value will be exchanged.

Assisting Mrs. Dippel will be Mrs. A. Orin Schenck, Mrs. Porgen Jorgensen and Mrs. Emmett Bullard.

A special invitation is extended to wives of new Rotary members to attend the Christmas party. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

Foreign Students To Give Program

Monthly meeting of the Congregational Women's fellowship will be held at Pilgrim house, Thursday, December 12, at 12 noon.

Two foreign students, Miss Heike Schneider from Germany, and Shuji Yamamoto from Japan, will be guests at the meeting and will answer questions about Christmas customs in their countries.

Christmas gifts for the mental hospital should be taken to the meeting. All members and friends are invited.

Open House Honors Couple On Fiftieth Wedding Day

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. George Atkins, 1634 Orchard Home drive, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, December 1.

Open house was held at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Panter, Central Point, in honor of the couple.

The anniversary cake was served from a table decorated with a heart-shaped centerpiece of golden chrysanthemums and taper candles of pink. For the occasion Mrs. Atkins wore a fiesta pink dress. A matching corsage of rosebuds was presented to her by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Paul Atkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkins were married in Kansas, and have lived in the Rogue River valley for 28 years. Here for the occasion were all of the Atkins' children and families. They are Mr. and Mrs.

Everett Brownfield, Red Bluff, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Rorden and daughter, Union, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Panter, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Atkins, Mt. Vernon, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atkins, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Rolf Smith, Redmond, Ore.; and Dale Atkins, Medford.

The Atkins grandchildren were also present for the occasion. They are Billy, Bobby, Barbara, Claud and Richard Atkins, and Marilyn, Larry, Martha and Katherine Smith.

Mrs. Walter Atkins presided at the refreshment table. Mrs. Everett Brownfield was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Wendel Panter was in charge of the gift table.

Friends called throughout the day.

Couple to Live in Medford After Honeymoon in Mexico

Miss Peggie Ann Pearson, daughter of Mrs. Floyd Ralston, Grants Pass, became the bride of Richard Eugene Foy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Foy, Route 1, Box 324, Medford, in a ceremony held Friday, November 29, at Bethany Presbyterian church chapel in Grants Pass.

The Rev. J. A. Marquam officiated at the seven o'clock evening double ring ceremony attended by 60 relatives and friends. Blue and white flowers decorated the church for the wedding.

The bride wore a ballerina length white lace over white satin gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Della Sinn was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length pale blue gown with bouffant skirt and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Dale Newton, Medford, served as best man while Robert Anderson, Murphy, and Al Stanley, Gilchrist, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Bethany house. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Ann Riggs, Mrs. L. C. Jones, Mrs. Alice Swisher and Mrs. Glen Pearson. Miss Mary Green was in charge of the guest book.

The couple will make their home in Medford when they return from a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico. For her traveling attire the bride chose a black faille suit with black and white accessories.

The bride attended Grants Pass High school and Pacific University. She was employed during the summer at a lookout by the Southern Oregon Forestry Service. Mr. Foy attended Oregon State college and Southern Oregon college and is a partner in the Medford Air Service with which he is a pilot.
