Mr. and Mrs. Graham P. Curry (Sukalac photo)

Marriage Of Interest In Medford

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Weatherspoon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hunter, Amboy, Wash., and Graham P. Curry, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Curry, 906 West Main street, Medford. The ceremony took place November 1 at Holy Cross Lutheran church, Portland, and the newlyweds are living in that city.

The service was held at eight o'clock in the evening, with the Rev. Edward May officiating. Seventy-five guests attended.

The bride wore a gown of net over satin with bodice of Chantilly lace and appliques of lace on the skirt. A crown of seed pearls held her veil and she carried Stephanotis and pale pink roses.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Barbara Young, Portland, her step-sister, Miss Karen Christensen, Sumas, Wash., a cousin, Miss Donna Hunter, Amboy, Wash., another step-sister, Miss Carol Jones, Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Iris Del Von Systad, Portland. They wore frock of pale pink net over darker pink taffeta with matching cummerbunds, small headresses and satin slippers. They carried pink roses and Stephanotis.

One Marie Crandell, Portland, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long frock of pale pink taffeta.

Mr. Hunter gave his step-daughter in marriage and Phillip Landstrum, Portland, was best man for Mr. Curry. Ushers were Richard Masters, Robert White and Donald Telen, all Portland. Pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

Mr. Curry, an airman in the United States Air Force, and his bride traveled to Hawaii for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a light green suit with white gardenia corsage for going away. The bride, a cashier for Paramount theater, Portland, attended school in Battleground, Wash., and the bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school with the 1955 class.

The bridegroom's parents traveled to Portland for the wedding. Mrs. Curry wore a blue crepe dress with pink accessories and a white orchid corsage for the ceremony and reception. The bride's mother wore a pink lace gown with pink accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Other guests from Medford were Miss Sandra Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Neely, and Mrs. Herman Pfahlf; also present were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Emerick, formerly of Medford and now of Beaverton, Ore.

Members of the board will be hostesses for the meeting. All women who have lived in Medford for two years or less are invited to attend. Cards will be played later in the afternoon.

Medford Sojourners will hold the annual Christmas party Thursday, December 12, at 12:30 p.m. Members and friends attending are asked to take a gift so they may share in the gift exchange.

Mrs. M. N. Hogan and Mrs. Coett Davis will host a Christmas dinner and card party Tuesday, December 17, at the home of Mrs. Hogan for Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

At a meeting December 3, plans were made to prepare a Christmas basket for a needy family. Mrs. Neal Curry gave the program for the evening on finger painting pictures.

Mrs. Walter Smith and Mrs. Ray Bostwick were hostesses for the social hour.

Mrs. Wallace Haskins will present a Christmas program at the Saturday, December 14 meeting of College Women's club at the Girls Community club. Mrs. S. H. Gay will be social chairman.

Past Presidents' club, Fraternal Order of Eagles auxiliary, will have a Christmas party and gift exchange with the regular meeting Friday, December 13, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Floyd Lewis, 710 Sherman street.

Past Noble Grands of Olive Rebekah lodge will hold their annual turkey dinner for members and guests Saturday, December 14, at 6:30 p.m. at the Odd Fellows hall.

Mrs. Jennie Hensler and Mrs. Harry Turner are co-chairmen for the event. For further information members may call SPing 2-4219.

Arrangements for the afternoon are in charge of Mrs. Edmund W. Pease and Mrs. Wallace B. Brill.

Chicago—A cheese butter sauce spread on cube steaks before broiling will delight the gourmet's palate. The sauce can be made by combining 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese to 1/2 cup melted butter.

Dilley-Burns Ceremony Held In Yreka Catholic Church

Hornbrook—St. Joseph's Catholic church in Yreka, Calif., was the setting Saturday, November 30 for the 2 o'clock wedding of Miss Arlene Kay Burns, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardon Burns of Hornbrook, and Charles Matthew Dilley. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Dilley, now of Reno, Nev., but formerly of Hornbrook.

Father Daniel Cullinan of St. Joseph's church officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 120 friends and relatives. Ricky Sokolowski served as acolyte. Miss Judy Moore played the wedding prelude music. Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums stood at each end of the altar.

Ardon Burns gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of imported Chantilly lace with a full skirt of net over satin and panel of applique lace encircled the skirt just below the hip line. The fitted bodice of lace had a Queen Anne collar and long sleeves. Her fingertip length veil fell from a small chapeau of lace embroidered with iridescent shells and pearls, and she carried a white orchid encircled by white carnations and pink sweet-heart rosebuds.

Her gown was her "something borrowed", having been worn first by her cousin, Mrs. Leland Stuckney of Medford, and again by her sister, Joann, now Mrs. William Paulsen of Oakland, Calif. at her wedding last April. Maid of honor was Miss Myrna Cummins, and bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Burns, sister of the bride, and Miss Sharon Walsh. Miss Cummins was in blue, Miss Burns in pink and Miss Walsh in green. Their waist-length gowns of brocade taffeta stich with a fine gold thread were made with fitted bodices and full skirts, and cummerbunds.

Becky Adams of Lakewood, Calif. served as flower girl for her aunt. Her dress was of melon pink organza, trimmed with narrow white lace. She wore a tiny white flowered hat. Best man was Dale Conrad, and seating the guests were Steve Wagner and William Kleaver. All are from Yreka, former schoolmates of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Burns wore bottle green brocade taffeta gown with black accessories. Mrs. Dilley chose a turquoise nylon sheath with a satin cummerbund in a lighter tone of the same color, and black accessories. They wore identical corsages of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parish hall. Mrs. Gene Adams of Lakewood, sister of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Donna De Sosa of Grenada, Calif. Receiving the gifts were Miss Betty Dilley, younger sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Sherrie Adams, niece of the bride, and opening the gifts were Mrs. Charles Caster and Miss Rochelle Grazer of Yreka. Miss Evelyn Burd of Glendora, Calif. presided at the guest book.

Other out-of-town guests, besides the bridegroom's parents, included his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wicks, Reno, Nev.; his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Pete Mullin of Crescent City, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns, Oroville, Calif., brother and sister-in-law of the bride; Gene Adams, Lakewood, her brother-in-law; Mrs. Leland Stuckney, Medford; Mrs. Robert Jorgenson, Willow, Calif.; Miss Marilyn Cummins, Ron Gallino and William Holland, all students at Chico State college, Chico, Calif.

Also among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. William Nothleifer, Miss Florence Cameron and Mrs. Archie Cameron, all Salem.

Miss Marilyn Cummins caught the bride's bouquet. The couple are making their home at 900 Hokum street, Reno, after a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a blue suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Hornbrook grammar school and is a graduate of Yreka High school. She has been employed near Los Angeles for the past several months. The bridegroom is a graduate of Yreka High school and attended Arizona State college at Tempe last year. He is enrolled this year at the University of Nevada, Reno, where he plans to continue his studies.

Those attending are asked to bring a 50-cent gift to exchange; also an article of food for a Christmas basket.

An invitation is extended to all who have been British subjects, or are of Canadian birth.

Following a business meeting, moving pictures will be shown of a trip taken by A. T. Lathrop.
